Dear Hillary,

Thank you so much for taking the time to visit with my constituents.
I deeply appreciate it, as I do all that you and the President have done to help me. And please be assured that there is absolutely no reason at all to be concerned about how I will ultimately vote on health care reform.

I've refrained from endorsing and co-sponsoring your bill solely so that I can remain publicly "open-minded" until the final, most crucial days of the debate. That may help me salvage what hope I have left of somehow surviving next November in my heavily Republican and supposedly impossible district. Far more important, it may help give me the ability to move other moderate and conservative Democrats to support the bill in those final days. That's precisely the approach I took on the NAFTA, and Mickey, Daley, Frenzel, and others will tell you how I moved eleven other votes in Florida, and a few others elsewhere, into the "yes" column in the end. My goal is to do the same on health care reform. You and the President have my commitment that you will have my vote, my voice, and my most ardent efforts, in the end.

Jim

Dear Ms. Clinton:

Thank you so much for taking the time to meet with Dianna Morgan, Senior Vice President, Walt Disney World Co., during your recent visit to Orlando, Florida. I am most grateful to you for taking time from your busy schedule to meet with her regarding "Mickey's Worldwide Kids Party."

As you know, this grand event will take place in November and will offer 13,000 children from disadvantage situations a chance to visit a Disney theme park. In addition, events organized by the Children's Defense Fund and interview opportunities will provide approximately 2,000 members of the press covering the activities, the opportunity to help communicate the state of children in America, their circumstances and concerns, and their hope for the future.

Again, Mrs. Clinton, thank you for your time and interest in this exciting event. I would be personally grateful if you would consider participating with Walt Disney World for what I know will be a rewarding experience.

Sincerely,

Jim Bacchus
