Dear Mr. Lindsey:

We are writing to support Ms. Jan Levine for an appointment to the Legal Services Corporation Board (LSC).

Ms. Levine offers a unique combination of both practical experience and political judgment. Her entire career has been that of a public interest attorney.

In her most recent position, before returning to California, she served a valuable role in the defeat of numerous controversial Reagan and Bush judicial appointments. As the Senior Staff Attorney of People for the American Way she coordinated a nationwide Lawyers Network of some 300 lawyers who worked with the organization in investigating the credentials of and opposing specific nominees.

As members of the Administrative Law and Government Relations Subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee, which has oversight of the LSC, and as strong supporters of the Legal Services Corporation, we know the value of LSC to some of the most vulnerable members of our society. It is our feeling that Jan Levine would be a tremendous asset to the Board and would work to revitalize the LSC and its important mission.

Sincerely,

JOHN BRYANT

Hillary!

You were great in your testimony on the Hill. I had told everyone that they would find out just how smart you are during these days.

Congratulations on not only a great couple of days, but for coming up with a super plan.

Sincerely,

Randy White

U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Representative Bryant:

Thank you for recommending Ms. Jan Levine for an appointment to the Legal Services Corporation. Although the President was unable to offer Ms. Levine a position on the Board, I commend her for her work as a public interest attorney and appreciate your bringing her to my attention.

Sincerely,

Hillary Rodham Clinton
