Dear Representative Coleman:

Thank you for your letter suggesting ways in which the President's health care reform plan should address the needs of Americans who live in the United States-Mexico border area. The unique situation faced by border-area residents has been brought to the attention of the President's advisors on health care so that they may ensure that the final proposal appropriately responds to the needs of this group.

We appreciate the assistance that your legislative aide Carrie Luttbeg has provided the Task Force. I look forward to our continued work together to ensure that the President's proposal provides all Americans with the security of quality, affordable health care.

Sincerely,

Hillary Rodham Clinton

Dear Mrs. Clinton,

It is an honor for the Pan American Round Table of El Paso Texas/Juarez, Mexico to extend an invitation to you to be our special guest in April, 1994.

As is our custom every year, we will celebrate Pan American Day at a Gala International Event on a date convenient to your schedule. (April 10, 16, or 24)

An invitation is also being extended to Mrs. Cecilia Salinas de Gortari.

Several years ago the Pan American Round Table of El Paso/Juarez hosted a similar visit from Mrs. Roslyn Carter and Mrs. Carmen Romano de Lopez Portillo. It was a successful, meaningful and historic event attended by numerous international officials and received much positive press in both nations.

The El Paso Table, established in 1924 and composed of over 300 women, is the only Binational Table in the Pan American Alliance made up of 162 tables in the Americas.

Since an invitation is also being tendered to Mrs. Gortari, we hope that we will have a positive indication from you at an early date, so we can proceed with necessary plans.

Representative Ronald Coleman
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Representative Coleman:

Thank you for your letter concerning health care on the United States-Mexico border. I, too, am disturbed by the high level of underinsurance of Mexican Americans and other communities of color, which is one impetus for our drive to institute universal health care.

I also share your concern regarding the problem of infectious diseases. I hope that President Clinton's plan to provide vaccinations for all American children will help combat tuberculosis, measles, and other preventable diseases.

I appreciate your invitation to meet with the members of the Border Caucus and will be in touch with Ms. Luttbeg if we are able to arrange such a meeting. I look forward to our continued work together on these issues of such importance to American families.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Clinton:

I am writing at the request of the Women's Initiative to Strengthen El Paso (WISE), which is requesting your presence as keynote speaker for the WISE Conference in the Fall of 1993.

WISE is a coalition of women's groups from El Paso, Texas committed to strengthening our community through public policy and activism. Some of the groups that are currently involved in WISE include: the YWCA, the El Paso Commission for Women, the Junior League of El Paso, the Executive Forum, the Women's Department of the El Paso Chamber of Commerce, and the National Council of Jewish Women.

I understand your office was already contacted by WISE and acknowledged receipt of the invitation. I want to express my support for the organization's efforts in our community and hope you will afford them an opportunity to show you the various health care facilities and programs in the border area. Some of these include La Fe Clinic, a nationally recognized neighborhood health care facility, and the Texas Tech Medical Center which is a recipient of a major Kellogg Foundation grant to develop medical school curriculum that addresses community-based medicine.

El Pasoans are proud of our unique heritage and rich culture, but we are equally faced with unique problems because of our border location. El Paso is indeed in a position to lead the nation in many areas and WISE would like the opportunity to showcase our city.

Your presence at the WISE Conference would mean a great deal to the citizens of El Paso, and it is my sincere hope that your schedule will permit you to join them this Fall. Your consideration of their request is deeply appreciated.

With kindest personal regards, I remain

Very truly yours,
