Dear Senator Danforth:

Thank you for your letter and for sending along Rev. Abbott's invitation to visit the Connecticut Hospice. It sounds like a wonderful institution.

We had a great time at the Washington School of Medicine and it was a pleasure meeting your brother, Bill. I assured him that you would take care of all the problems related to academic health centers! I am sorry that you could not be with us.

I have forwarded Rev. Abbott's letter to my scheduling office for consideration. He will be hearing directly from them in the future.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Hillary Rodham Clinton

Dear Mrs Clinton -

Some months ago, I told you of our daughter, Jody, who is a home care hospice nurse in Connecticut and of the remarkable hospice in Branford where she worked when a nursing student. I suggested that it would be a great boost to the hospice movement if you would visit this remarkable place.

I enclose an invitation from the Connecticut Hospice which I strongly endorse and hope you will accept.

Your Visit would focus attention on hospice and, I believe, point out to many suffering people a new possibility for themselves.

I am sorry that I could not be with you in St. Louis yesterday, but I could not get away from the Senate.

Sincerely,
Jack Danforth

Dear Senator Danforth:

Thank you for your letter in support of the invitation extended by Cyndy Nayer to attend a Breast Health Update seminar. Unfortunately, my schedule does not permit me to take part in every event that I would like to attend. If I am able to take part in this worthwhile event, I will contact Ms. Nayer directly.

Again, thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Clinton,

Enclosed you will find a request for your appearance at a seminar hosted by one of my constituents, Cyndy Nayer. If your schedule permits, I would appreciate your attendance at this event.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

John C. Danforth.

Dear Mrs. Clinton:

I am writing to encourage you to accept the invitation of the Missouri Council on Women's Economic Development and Training to attend and speak at its conference on March 13 and 14, 1994.

Your consideration of this invitation is appreciated.

Sincerely,

John C. Danforth

Dear Senator Danforth:

Thank you for your letter in support of the invitation extended by the Missouri Council on Women's Economic Development and Training. Unfortunately, my schedule does not permit me to accept every request that I would like to honor. If I am able to participate in this worthwhile event, I will contact the Council directly.

Again, thank you for writing.
