Dear Rep. McMillan:

Thank you for meeting with me to discuss the vitally important topic of health care reform.

I noted your strong views about the need to review and reform our medical tort system, as we reform other elements of the health care system. Your suggestion to utilize arbitration as an alternative to litigation is extremely constructive and I look forward to working with you to see how best we address this issue.

I look forward to working with you. With your collaboration, I feel confident that our common endeavor will be successful.

Sincerely yours,

Hon. J. Alex McMillan

Dear Mrs. Clinton:

You have recently received an invitation from the Public Library of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County regarding the Novello Festival of Reading. I would like to encourage you to participate in the kickoff event for the Novello Festival. Your presence on October 18th would help promote Novello as one of the premier literary events in the southeast. Also, if your schedule permits, we would be particularly pleased to have you be the keynote speaker at a dinner for The Library on the prior Sunday evening.

Novello is a week long festival which promotes reading and library services to both young and old members of the community. In addition to school participation in reading challenges and contests, Novello brings in more than sixty locally, regionally, and nationally known authors. This year, writers Tom Wolfe, Mary Higgins Clark, Robert James Waller, Virginia Hamilton, and Lee Smith are scheduled to attend.

This event presents a wonderful opportunity to stress the enjoyment and importance of reading. Your attendance would reinforce the already wide support from our community leaders like Erskine Bowles and our businesses like NationsBank and First Union. Your leadership would help bring Novello into the national focus as Charlotte seeks to promote reading for all.

Sincerely,
