Washington, DC 20500

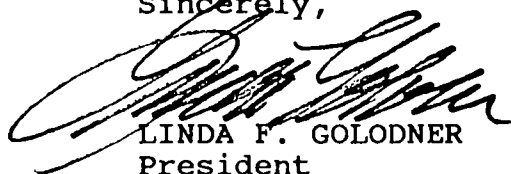

Dear Ms. Williams:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter we have sent to the First Lady regarding our annual Trumpeter Award Dinner. We would very much like to honor Ms. Clinton with our Trumpeter Award this year.

Phil Sparks, who is a member of our Board, suggested that I send a copy of this letter to you in the hope that you might encourage the First Lady to accept our invitation.

Thank you so much for your help and consideration.

Sincerely,

LINDA F. GOLODNER

Ms. Hillary Rodham Clinton
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Ms. Clinton:

It is my privilege as president of the National Consumers League to write you this letter on behalf of our Board of Directors. We have long admired the leadership you so effectively demonstrate as an advocate for children and in particular in your dedication to change the health care system in our nation.

The National Consumers League wishes to honor you with its Trumpeter Award on October 21, 1993. There will be a reception and an award's dinner at the Capitol Hill Hyatt Regency in Washington, DC, starting at 6:30 and ending at approximately 9 p.m. It will be an opportunity for the League to pay tribute to you and the exceptional service that you are giving to all Americans.

Let me tell you briefly about the League. We are a national consumer advocacy organization founded in 1899 to represent consumers in the marketplace and workplace. Our members come from every state and from every walk of life -- senior citizens, students, nurses, steelworkers, accountants, immigrants. Our priority issues are health care reform, food and drug safety, telemarketing fraud, consumer/environmental issues, and fair labor standards, with special emphasis on child labor. I have enclosed four newsletters we publish -- NCL BULLETIN, the oldest, and longest-running consumer newsletter; the Child Labor Monitor, the only U. S. newsletter on the exploitation of children in the workplace, Community Health Link, a newsletter of the Community-Based Health Care Project that we administer with the American Nurses Association, and the Quarterly, a publication on telemarketing fraud we produce for the Alliance Against Fraud in Telemarketing, our coalition on phone fraud.

The Trumpeter Award is presented annually to prominent individuals for their outstanding public service and advocacy. The trumpeter, not a quiet instrument, throughout history has been used to sound warnings, to mark many celebrations, to announce the presence of very special people. It is a great symbol for NCL's history, for the dedicated and committed people who have worked so hard for its principles, and of a celebration for the people who have been honored with our Trumpeter Award. It is an award conferred on people who have not been afraid to raise their voices in support of a fairer marketplace, a safer workplace, and a more just society.

Among those to whom the League has given this award in the past are Averell Harriman, Philip A. Hart, Esther Peterson, Herb Block, Marian Wright Edelman, Lady Bird Johnson, Claude Pepper, and last year to Senator Jay Rockefeller and to Charlayne Hunter-Gault.

The National Consumers League would take great pride in having you accept this invitation and award. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,

LINDA F. GOLODNER
President

Frontrunner Awards

April 1993

The renewed American spirit brings a promise of political, economic and social change. Women are at the forefront of this change more than ever. As prime policy-makers and decision-makers, women are setting the agenda and making a difference at every level of society.

With the annual presentation of the Frontrunner Awards, Sara Lee Corporation recognizes exceptional women who have influenced and shaped business, government, the arts and the humanities.

Our tribute to these special women includes a contribution in the name of each Frontrunner to a not-for-profit organization focusing on issues of concern to women. In this way, we expand each Frontrunner's positive influence on society.

I invite you to play a role in our celebration of women of achievement by bringing them to our attention on the enclosed nomination forms.

We look forward to hearing from you, and we thank you for helping us salute the women who run the world.

RE: Awards for First Lady

Attached are the lists of awards I have received. The two stapled ones came from Evelyn's office, and, as you can see, are not identical.

Should we also include on the résumé her serving as honorary chair for various events/organizations? Perhaps this record is already being maintained in your office or by someone else.

Thanks for your assistance in helping set up a procedure for keeping this information current since I do not always know when she receives an award or honorary degree.

7/25/94

Milli,

Capricia came by with an award and suggested I give you the names of all of the awards I have in Hillary's office in case you have not received that information for her resume. In most cases, all I have is the award without any paper backup so where there isn't a citation or date, I may or may not be able to help you out. Let me know.

- ✓ 4/14/94 Elie Wiesel Foundation Award
- ? [6/28/94 Economic Club of Washington (you should check with Melanne or someone who was with her to determine if this was just a gift thanking her for her speech or if it was an award in recognition of something -- it is a crystal eagle)
- ✓ 6/94 The Ellington Shield Against Helplessness - given by the Duke Ellington School for the Performing Arts in Washington, D. C.
