Ryan Evans
Aide to Hillary Clinton
THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington D.C. 20500

Dear Miss Evans:

I am the Indianapolis person who tried to get a groundswell of letters started to Mrs. Clinton. The following paragraphs will explain that I am a very busy person, but still trying to counteract the unfair image that some people try to give Mrs. Clinton. You have given me good advice, and I am asking again for your advice. (The stationary is for the organization I helped to form in Indiana.)

From February 17 through 20th, I will be in Washington, D.C., representing Indiana at a conference sponsored by my professional organization, The American Association of Family and Consumer Scientists (formerly home economics). This is the 1996 Public Policy Seminar, this time focusing on the impact of block grants on families, and how we can help to get the best deal for families. The seminar will be held at the Washington National Airport Hilton.

I suggested to the person mostly in charge of the seminar, Mrs. Ann Chadwick, that we ask Mrs. Clinton for a greeting. She quickly answered, "Oh, let's reserve that for our national conference, to be held in Nashville latter part of June. That would be great."

My question is: How does an organization procede with such a request? Would a letter from our national president be most appropriate? (The current president is from Indiana.)

Conversation by phone is just as easily done from Indiana as from Alexander, Virginia. But somehow, I would like to talk with you while I am there, if that is possible. I will take your phone number with me.

The enclosed snapshot is to show you that I am a true Democrat. Greeting in the center is from the White House, Bill and Hillary. To the right is Gov. Bayh and Susan with their twin babies. To the left is the greeting from the President of Ball State Univ.

Best regards -

Dear Evan Ryan,

I am a Senior at the University of California at Santa Barbara, Majoring in the History of Public Policy. I am interested in participating in the activities of the First lady's Office as an intern. I will be available and in Washington, DC from September 19 through December 1, 1995. I am very excited about this opportunity to work in Washington.

I am a highly motivated individual, intellectually engaged and seeking challenging and substantive tasks. Although I am willing to do all tasks, I would like very much to limit the amount of clerical work to no more than 20% of total work hours.

Please see the enclosed vita detailing my past work experience. I am certain that the strengths I can bring to any task make me an excellent choice as an intern. I look forward to hearing from you regarding an offer of an opportunity to work and learn with you.

I am available by telephone at 805-562-6186, by E-Mail at ubetzp00@mcl.mcl.ucsb.edu. My mailing address is 796 Juniper Walk #A, Goleta CA, 93117. Thank you for your consideration.

Employment History

United States Department of Congress,
Bureau of the Census, Van Nuys, CA

Assistant Manager, Field Operations

1/90 - 12/90

Supervised a field staff of 800 field personnel (primarily enumerators and crew leaders) in canvassing their respective districts to obtain responses to the 1990 Census questionnaires. Work included recruiting, logistical planning, assignment preparation, training, execution and closing operations. Other subsidiary operations included a review of preliminary census counts, answer challenges to the counts by field investigations and preliminary checks involving U.S. postal service address listings.

Supervisory Geographic Specialist

10/89 - 1/90

Promoted to supervise a 10 person unit responsible for digital updates of Census Maps and Geography. My role also included administration of time and production rates, training staffing and deadlines.

Geographic Assistant

1/89 - 10/89

Assisted in updating of Census cartography with the assistance of specially designed CAD/CAM software. Made additions and deletions to computer files based on hand drawn annotations made in the field. Also, prepared new/updated map reprints for shipment to use in further field operations. Was responsible for the arrival process and transporting of annotated maps upon their return.

E.R.G. INTERNATIONAL, Los Angeles, CA

Customer Service Manager

7/87 - 8/88

Responsible for determining applicability of corporate product warranty. Managed telephone lines for consumer complaints, information, repairs, and replacement part orders. Was part of product research and development team. Assisted with preparation of product literature, catalogs and advertising.

Paul R. Betz

Volunteer Experience

CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS

Vienna, Austria

Dear Evan Ryan,

I am a Student at the University of California at Santa Barbara, Majoring in History. As such I have applied to, and been accepted into that university's 'U.C. in D.C.' program. This involves serving an internship in Washington. I am very interested in being involved in the activities of the First lady's Office, and would like to be considered as a possible intern in her offices. I will be in Washington and available from September 19 through December 1 of this year.

My personal and educational experience along with my research and presentation abilities make me great asset to any organization.

I am intelligent and highly motivated. As an intern I would hope that I might be provided with tasks that are substantive and challenging. While clerical work is important in any office, I would hope it could be limited to no more than 20% of my work time.

Since I will be affiliated with the UCSB Washington Center, I will be required to attend seminars on Friday afternoons. I would hope this need could be accommodated.

I would like very much to be involved in your program, and look forward to further communication with you regarding your expectations and possibly a work assignment. I can be reached at the phone number, E-Mail address, or address on the accompanying resume'. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

On behalf of the UCSB Washington Center, it is my pleasure to recommend Carolyn Hopkins for an internship with your organization during the Fall Quarter 1995.

Ms. Hopkins was recently selected to participate in our Washington Center Program during the period September 19 - December 1, 1995. Students are selected on the basis of a careful review of their academic records, a statement of purpose, and confidential letters of recommendation. Selection also reflects a clear and serious commitment to combining academic studies with an internship in Washington, D.C.

Our students attend seminars on Friday afternoons to supplement and build on the learning in the internship experience. Please accommodate the student's need to attend these meetings.

We can assure you that the students are highly motivated and intellectually engaged. We hope that you will, therefore, provide internship tasks that are challenging and substantive and will limit clerical work, if any, to no more than 20% of their work hours.

If you decide to employ Ms. Hopkins as an intern, please send me a letter (or a copy of the letter you send the intern) outlining your expectations and the nature of the work assignment.

If you have any questions, please call me at (202) 296-4371. Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Maggie,

I just wanted to express my appreciation to you and your staff for the wonderful job you did yesterday arranging for our military members to attend the President's State of the Union Address. Each of them was thrilled with the special treatment and, I'm sure, will consider the evening one of the highlights of their life. For Corporal Depestre and Lieutenant McLean, meeting President Clinton will be a story they'll tell their grandchildren.

I understand today's tour of the White House went especially well -- the special attention extended by Mrs. Clinton was more than they could have hoped for. It was an occasion they will long remember and cherish.

Again, my thanks to you and your staff for your hard work and personal attention.

Dear Mr. Ryan,

Allow me to introduce myself. I am a sophomore at Harvard studying race relations and government. I have a great interest in public service and would like to work in the government when I graduate. In the meantime I am trying to gain as much real world experience before I graduate.

Last summer I worked as an inter in the Washington office of Senator Ben Nighthorse Campbell. I was wondering if you ever offered internships in The Office of the First Lady over the summer to college students.

If such internships do exist, could you please send me an application for the summer of 1995.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Ciara Carolyn Torres
