Meridian International Center is a not-for-profit educational and cultural institution that promotes international understanding through the exchange of people, ideas and the arts. Located in Washington, D.C., Meridian has a national reach and an international impact. For visitors from other countries, Meridian serves as a doorway to the United States through its programming and training services. For Americans interested in global issues, Meridian provides a window on the world through lectures, briefings and educational outreach. Meridian offers cultural programs, presenting exhibitions in Washington and throughout the country. Affiliated with Meridian is The Hospitality and Information Service (THIS), whose volunteers assist the diplomatic community. A tax-exempt corporation, Meridian is supported by government grants and contracts, foundation grants, and corporate and individual donations. The Center occupies a three-acre site including the Meridian and White-Meyer Houses, both of which are listed on the National Register of Historic Places and the District of Columbia's Inventory of Historic Sites.

NO

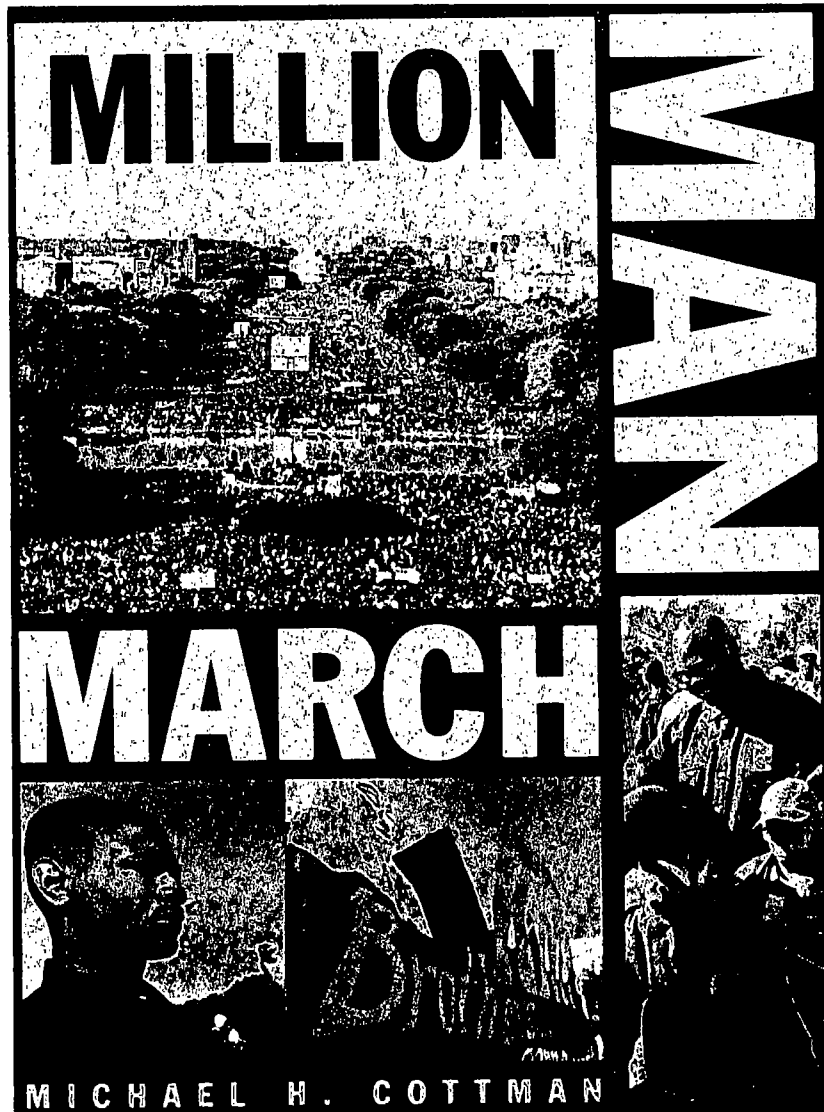

Senator D'Amato, it was with great pleasure to see in the new paper, that the legal bills of the ill legal first travel office Personal will be paid by the White House. We hope this means the occupants, and not the taxpayers. After all, it was Hilary Rodham BS that hurt these people. By the way, just as he is footing the cost for the witch to fly all over the world trying to sell her Ghost writers book??

BLACK AMERICA'S NEWSMAGAZINE

emerge

January 30, 1996

Ms. Maggie Williams
Chief of Staff
Office of the First Lady
The White House
2nd Floor - West Wing
Washington, DC

Dear Maggie:

Please join me and a select group of your peers to explore, first hand, some of the most compelling issues of the day as BET Holdings launches the "Emerging Ideas Forum."

Sponsored by Emerge Magazine, the "Emerging Ideas Forum" will bring together an intimate group of African American business owners, professionals, elected officials and opinion leaders on a regular basis to discuss burning issues with leaders in their respective fields. In addition, we hope to offer an opportunity to network and create new relationships among individuals with similar interests.

In celebration of Black History Month, we will launch the first "Emerging Ideas Forum" on Thursday, February 22, 1996. Our guest speaker will be The Honorable Kweisi Mfume, who will have just been installed on February 20th as the new President of the NAACP. You will have an opportunity to hear, first hand, his new vision for the country's oldest civil rights organization.

The "Emerging Ideas Forum" will be held at the Four Seasons Hotel, 2800 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW in the Dunbarton Room. We will begin at 5:30 PM with a Networking Reception. The program will begin promptly at 6:30 PM and will last for approximately one hour. Because of limited seating, we ask that you RSVP no later than Friday, February 16, 1996. (This invitation is non-transferable.) To respond or obtain additional information, please contact The Caraway Group, Inc. at 202-965-2810

We hope you will join BET and Emerge as the "Emerging Ideas Forum" makes its debut on February 22, 1996. We look forward to seeing you then.

Sincerely,

Bob
