NATIVE AMERICAN AGING ORGANIZATIONS

The National Association of Area Agencies on Aging also represents the 190 Native American organizations funded under Title VI of the Older Americans Act. Since Fiscal Year 1980, the Administration on Aging has awarded funds to federally recognized Tribes and organizations serving Native Alaskans and Hawaiians to provide supportive and nutrition services to their elders. Unlike Area Agencies on Aging, the majority of Tribes and other Native American organizations are direct providers of these services. However, they are permitted to provide services through either grant or contract.

The Administration on Aging is part of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, established under the Older Americans Act. Congress has designated AoA, with its 10 regional offices, as the lead organization in assisting State and Area Agencies on Aging to develop responsive, community-based systems of comprehensive and coordinated services nationwide. For additional information on AoA, see p. 2.
