Dear Hillary:

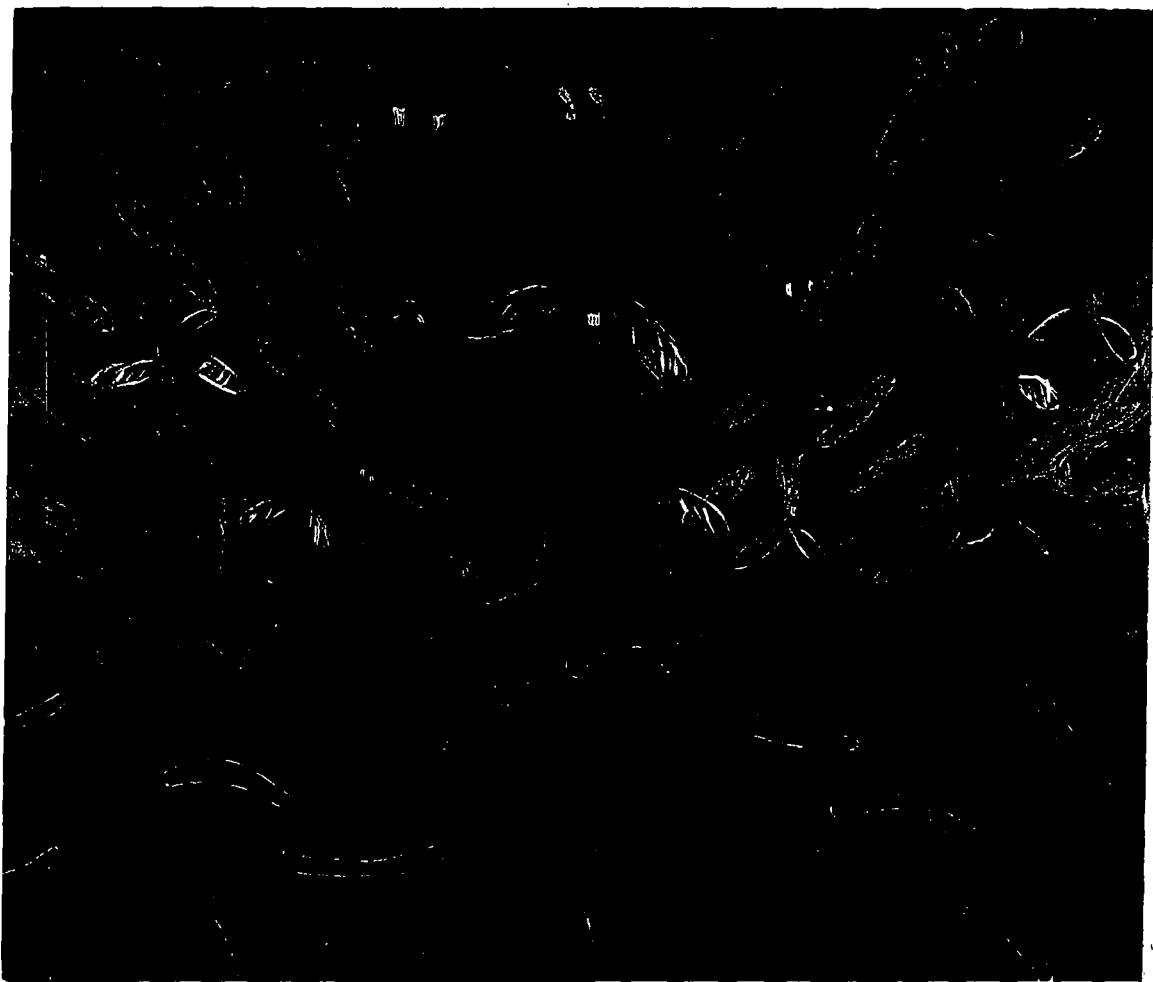

As much as I would love to be able to attend your Surprise Birthday Party today, my schedule has gone totally out of control. I know you understand how that happens!

I didn't want to miss this opportunity, however, to send my best wishes and to give you a personalized Rubin dollar (note that the serial number is your birth year). I hope you enjoy the party, surrounded by (almost) all of your friends and admirers.

Sincerely,

Dear Hillary + Bill,

We hope this painting will make you smile, and think of happy times, past and present. The artist who painted your picture of the world wrapped up, Greg Mot, also did this painting.

Tommy made you an anniversary book. She + Sam wanted you both to have their favorite new toy, the "sticky hand." It is good for grabbing hard to reach papers, and waking up dozing staffers + visiting heads of state!

Dear Hillary,

I was in Lithuania a few weeks ago to see my father honored for all his good work on behalf of his homeland.

It's a small country but with a place in history for its role in the dissolution of the Soviet Union and the downfall of communism. I'm especially proud to have been born there - oh so long ago!

On the occasion of your birthday, please accept a small memento of Lithuania - our amber collected from the Shores of the Baltic sea.

Roger and I send you our love and warmest wishes for a very happy birthday!

All the best,
