ANN LANDRETH GUNDProfessional Experience*1984 - Present Consultant

Co-organizer of a three-day symposium, "Nurturing Daring" addressing job-changers, sponsored by Tufts University and The Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce. Involved in projects for the Fogg Art Museum, The Boston Museum and the American Academy in Rome.

1981 - 1984 Capelin & Landreth, Public Relations
New York, New York

Founding partner of a public relations and publicity firm devoted exclusively to the design profession. Clients included firms with staffs of 20-500 architects, planners, landscape architects, engineers or real estate developers with offices in various cities throughout the United States and abroad.

1980-1981 Ann Swain Landreth, Public Relations
New York, New York

Public relations consulting for architects, landscape architects and the Aga Khan Foundation's architectural awards program. In addition, at the time, I set up and organized a series of three taped tours for the Picasso exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art in behalf of Acoustiguide, Inc.

1974 - 1980 Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, Architects and Engineers
Director, New Business Development, Public Relations and Publicity
New York, New York

Created and supervised a department of five which coordinated all aspects of publicity and promotion for the New York, Boston, and Denver offices of one of the largest design firms in the United States.

1973 - 1974 I.M. Pei & Partners, Architects
New York, New York

Established a public relations department that coordinated all proposal material for the partnership and designed their first firm brochure.

ANN LANDRETH CUNDPage Two*1970 - 1973

Sasaki, Dawson, DeMay Associates, Architects, Landscape Architects and Planners
Director of Public Relations
Watertown, Massachusetts

Developed a public relations department for this prominent firm. The concept of public relations was, at the time, a novel, unexplored area within the design field.

1968 - 1970

Fogg Art Museum, Harvard University
Assistant Registrar
Cambridge, Massachusetts

As part of a two-member department, oversaw cataloguing and daily maintenance of the Harvard art collection; coordinated the transfer of objects from one institution to another or within the Museum for exhibition and conservation; designed and set up a number of small exhibitions for the Fine Arts Department; and did research for professors and students.

SUSAN P. THOMASES

Susan P. Thomases joined Willkie Farr & Gallagher as an associate in 1979, and was named partner in the Firm in 1982. She practices with the Corporate Finance and Government Relations Departments. Ms. Thomases also managed the firm as Administrative Partner from 1982 to 1991.

She completed her undergraduate education in European History at Connecticut College in 1964 and received a Masters Degree in European History from Columbia University in 1966. She received her J.D. from Columbia University School of Law in 1977.

Prior to entering the practice of law, Ms. Thomases held numerous consulting positions. She was employed by institutions as diverse as the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs, federal and state agencies, private health providers and community action agencies. From 1969 to 1974, she was a Vice President of Boone, Young & Associates, a minority owned consulting firm. Her assignments involved management, financial and research problems in the fields of child development, health care financing, and transportation. She taught European History on a part-time basis at Connecticut College from 1969 to 1973.

Ms. Thomases has extensive political experience at the state and national levels, beginning as Deputy Campaign Manager for McCarthy for President in Oregon in 1968. She served as National Scheduling Coordinator for Vice President Mondale in the 1976 Carter-Mondale campaign, Senior Campaign Adviser for Byrne for Governor (New Jersey) in 1973 and 1977, and Campaign Manager for Bill Bradley for Senate (New Jersey) in 1978. During 1992, Ms. Thomases was Strategic Scheduler for the Clinton for President Campaign, the Clinton-Gore campaign and President-Elect Clinton's transition.

Ms. Thomases is a member of the Boards of Directors of the Children's Defense Fund and The White House Historical Association. She is a Trustee of the American Place Theater in New York and was formerly a Commissioner of the New Jersey Public Broadcasting Authority. She serves on the Committee to Enhance Professional Opportunities for Minorities and is Vice Chair of the Task Force on Women in the Profession of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York and on the Board of Visitors of Columbia University School of Law.

Ms. Thomases is married to William B. Bettridge. They have two children.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 2, 1993

MEMORANDUM

TO: MARGARET A. WILLIAMS, CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE FIRST LADY

FROM: REX W. SCOUTEN, CURATOR

SUBJECT: Resumes of Janice Johnson and John Richardson

Janice Johnson has had considerable fund raising experience. She would be a good choice for the White House Endowment Fund Board.

John Richardson's resume fails to list "non-legal" experiences. I do not think that he would feel comfortable serving on the Committee for the Preservation of the White House. Regardless of his previous activities, he could make a contribution on the White House Endowment Fund Board.

MEMORANDUM

June 20, 1994

TO: Rex Scouten
FROM: Anne Bartley ^{AB}
RE: New Members on the Committee for the Preservation of the White House

Janice Johnson and John Richardson have just been cleared as members of the Committee on the Preservation of the White House. Their press releases have been distributed and they are waiting to receive a call from the appropriate person to begin their involvement with the committee. I assume you are that person, but if not, please let me know who should contact them. Since this has been in the "personnel process" for a while, I would greatly appreciate your attention to this matter as soon as possible.

Janice Johnson: 202-298-8404 (home)
John Richardson: 202-508-4501 (work)
202-244-0516 (home)

If I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to call me at X62398.
