Dear Ms. Ryan,

Thank you so very much for graciously coordinating our 2nd Annual Superintendent's High Fliers Club Tour of the White House on June 4, 1996. The staff and students alike received a once-in-a-lifetime experience that will be shared with exuberance for years to come.

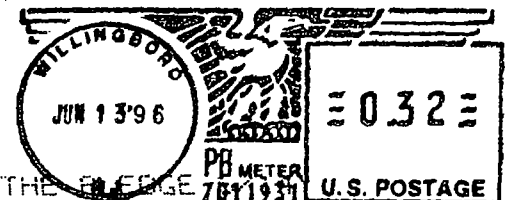

Thanks again, and I hope to see you next year.

Sincerely,

Dear Evan Ryan:

Accompanying this letter is an invitation to Mrs. Clinton to visit our new high school whenever it fits with her schedule. I understand through conversation with Carolyn Kelley of Moscow Mills, MO, that there is a possibility that Mrs. Clinton may be considering a trip to our area.

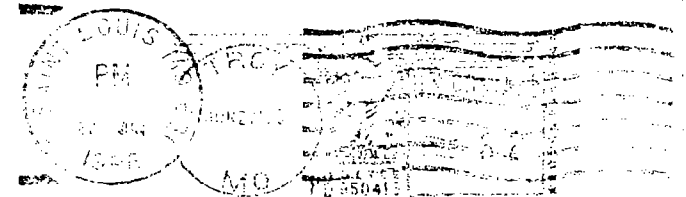

The original invitation to the Clintons was to the dedication and open house for Troy Buchanan High School on Saturday, August 10, 1996. Missouri Governor Mel Carnahan and other dignitaries will be present for the dedication ceremony at 1:00 PM.

We understand the difficulties in scheduling appearances by the President and the First Lady. However, we do hope Mrs. Clinton will be able to visit our new school at her convenience.

Yours truly,

Mrs. Barbara Arnold

Dear Madam First Lady:

I would like to take this opportunity to make a special request on behalf of several constituents from the 15th Congressional District of Pennsylvania.

Enclosed please find five copies of your book It Takes A Village. I would ask that you personally autograph the books at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your kind consideration in this regard. If you have any questions about this request, please do not hesitate to call Mr. Jim Wiltraut, my Director of Constituent Services, at (202) 225-6411.

Sincerely,

Paul McHale
Member of Congress
