Mr. President:

As Director of the Institute for Balkan Affairs, and on behalf of all Serbian Americans, I respectfully request an immediate meeting with you and your staff to discuss the situation in Yugoslavia. We feel that the bombing campaign is against the interests of all people in the region, Serbs and Kosovo-Albanians alike.

With the situation getting worse every day the bombing continues, you must realize that it is an immoral and indefensible policy to persist in this aggression. Please take responsibility for your part in what is happening there -- you cannot blame only one person.

We would like to discuss ways to end this growing crisis, and ways Serbian-Americans can assist in reaching a peaceful solution and return of refugees.

We see that you are willing to meet with Albanian-Americans. Show us, and to the world, that you are not against the Serbian people, as you have so often stated, and grant our request for a meeting.

Respectfully yours,

Danielle Sremac
