

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the William J. Clinton Presidential Library Staff.

Collection/Record Group: Clinton Presidential Records
Subgroup/Office of Origin: Records Management - SUBJECT FILE
Series/Staff Member: Subject Files
Subseries:

OA/ID Number: 23270
Scan ID: 188980 [Minimum Wage]
Document Number:

Folder Title:
HE

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
S	84	6	10	1

NE

188980
HE

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Bruce:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to reach a final compromise on meaningful welfare reform. Though it was a tough decision, I believe we did the right thing. And with your help, we've given America's poor a second chance that offers hope, honors responsibility and rewards work. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

Mr. Bruce Reed
Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy Planning

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Susan:

I just want to say how much Hilary and I appreciate all your hard work on health care reform. As a result of your efforts, we've achieved a long overdue victory for countless Americans and their families -- you should take great pride in the passage of the Kennedy-Kassebaum Health Insurance bill.

We thank you for your fine work and for the service you have rendered to the American people.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton".

Ms. Susan Brophy
Deputy Assistant to the President
for Legislative Affairs

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Janet:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to increase the minimum wage for millions of Americans. We fought the good fight in opposition to those who sought to weaken the bill and achieved a great victory on behalf working families. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton".

Ms. Janet Murguia
Deputy Assistant to the President
for Legislative Affairs

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Barbara:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to increase the minimum wage for millions of Americans. We fought the good fight in opposition to those who sought to weaken the bill and achieved a great victory on behalf working families. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton".

Ms. Barbara Chow
Special Assistant to the President
Office of Legislative Affairs

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Linda:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to increase the minimum wage for millions of Americans. We fought the good fight in opposition to those who sought to weaken the bill and achieved a great victory on behalf working families. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton".

Ms. Linda Robertson
Assistant Secretary for Legislative Affairs and Public Liaison
Department of Treasury

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Susan:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to reach a final compromise on meaningful welfare reform. Though it was a tough decision, I believe we did the right thing. And with your help, we've given America's poor a second chance that offers hope, honors responsibility and rewards work. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton", written in dark ink.

Ms. Susan Brophy
Deputy Assistant to the President
for Legislative Affairs

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Rahm:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to reach a final compromise on meaningful welfare reform. Though it was a tough decision, I believe we did the right thing. And with your help, we've given America's poor a second chance that offers hope, honors responsibility and rewards work. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton".

Mr. Rahm Emanuel
Assistant to the President and Director of Special Projects

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Janet:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to reach a final compromise on meaningful welfare reform. Though it was a tough decision, I believe we did the right thing. And with your help, we've given America's poor a second chance that offers hope, honors responsibility and rewards work. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton", written in dark ink.

Ms. Janet Murguia
Deputy Assistant to the President
for Legislative Affairs

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Ken:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to reach a final compromise on meaningful welfare reform. Though it was a tough decision, I believe we did the right thing. And with your help, we've given America's poor a second chance that offers hope, honors responsibility and rewards work. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton".

Mr. Ken Apfel
Associate Director for Human Resources
Office of Management and Budget

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Rich:

Thanks for all your hard work and counsel during our efforts to reach a final compromise on meaningful welfare reform. Though it was a tough decision, I believe we did the right thing. And with your help, we've given America's poor a second chance that offers hope, honors responsibility and rewards work. You can take pride in a job well done.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bill Clinton".

Mr. Rich Tarplin
Acting Assistant Secretary for Legislation
Department of Health and Human Services

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Vic:

Thank you for your thoughtful note on McClellan. I agree that the prospects for success there are strong. My Administration will continue to monitor the situation closely and I look forward to continuing our work together to make McClellan, Inc. a reality.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be "Bill Clinton", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Vic Fazio
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Dianne:

Thank you for your thoughtful note regarding the problem of youth violence. I appreciate your ongoing support of my Administration's efforts to make our streets safer for our children and applaud your leadership in our struggle to make neighborhoods free of violent crime.

I look forward to continuing our work together and appreciate your wise counsel.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Bill Clinton". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Bill" and last name "Clinton" clearly distinguishable.

The Honorable Dianne Feinstein
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 23, 1996

Dear Representative Castle:

Thank you for your leadership in securing passage of H.R. 3734, the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

This bill represents a real step forward for our country, and provides us with an historic opportunity to make welfare what it was meant to be -- a second chance, not a way of life. Please accept the enclosed signing pen and red line copy of the bill as a token of my appreciation.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Michael N. Castle
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515