Dear Ms. Yager,

Thank you for all the courtesies you and your office provided me in being a part of President Clinton's trip to Moscow and Kiev to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of V.E. Day. It was certainly one of the most memorable experiences of my life.

One small request. If there are pictures from the trip, may I receive copies. Thanks again.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM TO MARK GEARAN, DOUG SOSNIK, SUSAN BROPHY, AND STEVE HILTON

FROM: MARILYN YAGER

RE: IOWAN JOHN CHRYSTAL AND THE RUSSIA DELEGATION

Iowa farmer John Chrystal has requested, as has Senator Harkin on his behalf, to join the President for the Russia trip. As you all know, Chrystal is no ordinary farmer, nor is he an ordinary Democrat.

I have attached his resume to refresh your memories, but the most important items come under his international leadership where he has summarizes the unique diplomacy roles he has played between agriculture and Russia.

I feel strongly that we should include Chrystal in this trip and it would provide great followup stories in the Iowa press just two weeks after the rural conference. However, it is my understanding the the only individuals joining the delegation are veterans.

Any assistance any of you could give to help move this request along would be greatly appreciated.
