Dear Mr. President,

I would like to take this time to thank you for your involvement in the recovery of JFK Jr., Carolyn and her sister. I know that the coast guard did what it usually does, but I still feel that with your in-put, they did a little bit more

I am only speaking for myself, and yet I suppose many others when I say that we lost a precious life this past week-end. I will never forget John-John as he saluted his fathers casket as it went by him. I wish I were in the po

Please ask the Kennedy family to reconsider.

[Message]

Dear Bill,

I want to express my strong support for YOUR decision to do everything possible for the JFK Jr. recovery mission. I am a 37, a Sr. Research Scientist working at S.C. Johnson Wax. My family are North-side Chicago, Irish Catholic Democrats. Because of my Irish heritage, the Kennedy family has always been a strong, positive influence in my life and in the lives of my father, mother, grandparents, aunts, uncles and many cousins all over the U.S., Canada and in County Mayo, Castlebar, Ireland.

John Jr. and I were nearly the same age and I feel that our lives have many parallels. Although I did not know him personally, one could just tell by sight - his handsome face, happy eyes and sincere smile - that he was a truly good person full of promise for the future. If John Jr. had ever ran for president he would have won, hands down.

I feel deeply saddened by this tradgedy, especially since it also ended the lives of two beautiful, talented women. The fact that these women were educated and had successful careers made them visible role models for younger women. What a tragic loss for our country to lose Carolyn and Lauren Besset.

Despite the grief you may hear from a heartless few, please know that there are many citizens who support your decision to send all ships, use all technology and search the sea until the victims were found. I would have expected nothing less for a member of the Kennedy family. You did the right thing.

God Bless John, Carolyn and Lauren.

Mary J. Conway
Sr. Research Scientist

May God give comfort to those who were touched by the lives of John, Carolyn, and Lauren. Not knowing to much about them, I have come to realize over the last few days that these were three very special people that were loved by many. Let us remember that they are all in heaven with all of their family and friends that have passed on. This is a new beginning for them. We will one day join them in heaven.

Mr President, With all due respect to the kennedy family, and the nation who loved them.

We have plane crashes all the time. if it were my neighbors, A small search would have taken place, then it would be over. Why was so much tax payer money spent to search and recover some one not in a position of power? it made no difference to the security of the nation. Why does the government go to such extremes?

How much did this effort cost?

Sincerely,
Bruce C Chynoweth

I have never even thought about sending a message to you before but after your speech today I knew I had to. When you answered the question about the extra the gov was doing to find JFK jr I must say I have never been more proud of a President in all my life.JFK Jr is america's son and we owe his family so much. I am just a working stiff so I know I will never meet his family or you but if you would let his family know that americans have a place in our heart for them it would mean a lot to me . I would just like to thank you again and tell you to always speak out for what you believe because most of americans want that.

Dear Mr.President,
In the evening news, I saw the comments you made to the press regarding JFK and the amount of government agencies used in the search.

Bravo! You were exactly correct in reminding the press, and anyone else who keeps asking that ridiculous question "would we do this for anyone else" that YOU are the President of the United States, and YOU made that decision, and if someone wants to discuss it, they can contact YOU.

I cannot say that I have always supported your actions. But I can tell you, it was nice to see the President back in office. The Kennedy family has given much to our nation....the least our nation could do was help them in this time of grief.

Thank you for making me proud to call you our President...again.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Westberg

Dear Mr. President:

I fully supported your decision to make available the Coast Guard and other military services in the now successful recovery of the remains of JFK JR. and his wife and sister-in-law.

The Kennedy's were and still are an important part of American History. JFK Jr's and his wife's and sister-in-laws passing were very tragic and they will be sorely missed. I thought JFK Jr. had great potential and would have made a fine public servant. Our country has suffered a great irreplaceable loss.

Your to be commended for your decisiveness regarding this loss and its events. Thank you for being a human being and our President at the same time.

I don't care what anybody else say's about you, I think your doing an outstanding job. I also think its too bad that you can't run for another term, I'd vote for you this time.

Take care and God bless you and your family.

Respectfully,
Richard W. Bachman

Why did the President make the statement that he was the FIRST to invite JFK JR back to the White House since he lived there? On Larry King's show this week Larry was replaying bits of the interview he did with John a few years ago in which John talked about the private dinner Mr Nixon had for his mother, he and Caroline at the White House.

Spinning again!

I am so happy that you authorized the continued search for JFK jr. You must know, as I assume you feel, the same pain as we all do, about his death. He was the pride of New Yorkers. I lived in New York for 17 years. but I have moved to Los Angeles 5 mos. ago. If I don't find a job soon, I will move back to the east coast.

We all loved John. You know that everone loved him. He was our son, our brother. He was the ultimate perfect man whom every woman wants to take his arm in hers.

I have been crying for 4 days now. I asked God, why did he take away those beautiful people? Maybe,

God took them away to warn the rest of us to be careful. Maybe, he took them away to save them from what is coming in the future. I am more paralyzed with grief more that I was at 13 when JFK was assasinated and again when Bobby was assasinated.

Thanks for letting the Coast Guard find their bodies. I suppose I will never love anyone from a distance as I loved John F. Kennedy, Jr.

How can this burial at sea even be a consideration? This family has always had a public duty since JFK was president..that duty was honored with tax dollars to find and retrieve our honored citizen from a dark, cold, lonely place - and for what?? To put him in a casket and throw it back in the ocean?? NO WAY!!! If the Kennedy family insists on this dishonorable and dispicable act then they should reimburse the government for whatever it cost for materials and labor, at current comporable civilian market rates I might add, to search and retrieve them from the ocean floor!!

This unimaginable idea dsgusts me!! I was in the Marine Corps for nine years and I swim in this ocean!! I will not have his body put back in this ocean!! The public now deserves and demands a proper burial - after all we a greiving too!!

I cringe at the idea of what the former President Kennedy and his wife Jacqueline would say to this hiddeous idea!! How the rest of the Kennedy family can even consider seperating he and his wife, and him from his father and mothers resting place? To reiderate, I spent nine years in the Marine Corps and I believe the only honorable thing to do here it to bury the couple with his family at Arlington National Cemetary!! I will never swim again in the ocean if they put him in the deep dark cold depths of our atlantic to become fish food!! Bury him with the respect his mother would DEMAND if she were still alive and this took place!! Diana PS Hillary, Please talk to your husband about this...I am certain that John Jr did not have a wish to be in the ocean, but near his mother and family...as we all would.

Dont die with your music still in you. Whatever it is...find it..and do it...if only for a little while...

God Bless..Diana

I strongly support your decision to give the Coast Guard extra time, but he was a private citizen and a Navy burial is NOT APPROPRIATE.

His charities do NOT justify this.

Don't do it.

[Message]

Mr. President: As presidents go, some people say the worst one could be is Richard M. Nixon. Well, what about stealing one of Mr. Nixon's humble accomplishments?

You claimed during your July 21st press conference that you were the first to bring JFK Jr back to the White House for a visit, and gave a glowing depiction. However, you know[& I know] that it was Mr. Nixon who first brought Jacqueline, Caroline, and John into the White House subsequent to Jack's death. Some 25 odd years before you ever had the opportunity. John even spoke of it during a "Hardball" program, hosted by Chris Matthews.

So why do you do these things, Mr. President. Are you really that neurotic? Are we really so stupid in your mind? It reminds me of civilians who claim to have been 'in-country' Vietnam Veterans when they never served a day in the military. It's sick! Admiration based on a lie is never more than a lie.

Why do you lie so much? It's not normal, or healthy.

Dear Mr. President:

The loss of JFK Jr. and his party is certainly something of great importance. People all over the world have been frozen in place with grief and uncertainty.

You were right to conduct an all out search to put this tragedy to rest.

The Kennedy family has paid the ultimate price for the sake of Freedom many times. This is the least a grateful nation (and world) can do. If your political enemies persist in claiming that the search is an inappropriate expense, let us (the grateful people of the world) pay for putting this horrible matter to rest. The voters of America will remember their greed on election day!

Thank you,

Mr. Clinton, demographically I am a professional with over $100,000 household income. Now that we have that clear, if it matters, and with you I suspect it does not, DAMN good call, AGAIN. Spending federal dollars to recover JFK Jr's body was something we all needed to heal our pain. That family has produced a president and a legacy that will add to our chronicals for better or for worse. That was a good call, and it took courage to take personal responsibility. Bill, I have always thought you were a great president, and this just reaffirms that!

I am deeply proud that our government can aid in the recovery of the bodies of JFK Jr., his wife and sister-in-law. Their family has done so much for America through the years, the cost now to aid them is nothing. I think WE should allow JFK Jr., to be buried adjoining his mother and father, so that American can truly have the opportunity to view and mourn that great family, together, as they could not be in life due to tragedy. As an American Citizen of an American Family, My family voices their support for this action. Again, Thank you for your aid. Gay Campbell

Dear Mr. President, You may have noticed that there are people, some of them in the media, who don't like anything you do, and their latest gripe seems to be the effort the Coast Guard put into searching for Kennedy's plane. I wouldn't know if the Coast Guard did anything more in the search for this plane than they would have for any other downed plane. However, if they did, it was the right thing to do. And if they did it on your orders, I'd like to thank you for making that decision. Kathy Womack

PS: I don't agree with your views on gun control and I sure wouldn't want to be married to you, but I think you've done a good job as President.

Dear Mr Clinton

My shipmates and I completely find it inappropriate to be spending federal funds on searching for three citizens for such a vast amount of time. We are all wondering if a search of this magnitude would be given to the average citizen. We all hold the opinion that it would never happen and that we are all held at a less value than three people that are more in the spotlight. How does JFK Jr.'s life compare to the rest of a society of hard working and honest citizens??? Although he has contributed greatly to our social well being, does that make him more valuable than someone going out everyday working as hard as he or she can to support his family?? We all find it impossible to hold only one person about many, and we all find it hard to believe that a search of this size would be given to someone of less social status than JFK Jr.

Sincerely,
Mr. Lin

NIGHT FLIGHT

A YOUNG BOY STOOD AND SALUTED AS A NATION WATCHED IN TEARS
HIS FATHER PASSED BEFORE HIM AND HIS MOTHER STOOD BEHIND.

SOME TIME LATER, HALFWAY GROWN HE DISCOVERED THE JOY OF THE SEA AND TOOK HIS CRAFT UPON HER

TO CATCH THE WIND AND SKIM THE SWELLS.

LATER STILL HIS MOTHER GONE HE TOOK A WIFE TO HIS SIDE AND THE NATION AGAIN MOURNED BUT JOYOUS TOO THAT HE HAD FOUND A BRIDE.

HE TOOK HIS LOVE UPON THE SEA TO SHARE HER WITH HIS OTHER
LOVE AND THE SEA, SHE ACCEPTED THIS AS IS HER FICKLE WANT.

BUT AGAIN HE TEMPTED FATE AND DISCOVERED YET ANOTHER LOVE TO SAIL THE WIND AND SKIM THE CLOUDS FAR ABOVE THE TIDE AND TIME.

AND ONCE AGAIN HE BROUGHT HIS WIFE TO SHARE WITH HIM ANOTHER
LOVE BUT THE SEA, THE JEALOUS SEA WOULD NOT LET HIM SAIL
ANOTHER CRAFT.

AND IN A RAGE CALLED UPON GRAVITY TO BRING HER LOVER DOWN.
SHE TOOK HIM ROUGHLY TO HER BREAST AND TOSSED HIM AS A SPITEFUL CHILD.

SHE SLAPPED HIM HARD AND DREW HIM DOWN AND BROKE HIS CRAFT
ASKEW. THEN IN HER SHAME SHE HID HIM IN HERSELF AND WOULD NOT LET HIM GO.

THE WORLD IT MISSED IT'S HERO'S SON AND SEARCHED FOR HIM IN VAIN THE SEA, FEELING REMORSE FOR WHAT SHE'D DONE THOUGHT TO HINT, WITH FLOTSAM WASHED UPON A LONELY BEACH.

THE WORLD BEGAN IN EARNEST NOW TO FIND THE FRAGILE CRAFT WITH SORROW HELD BEHIND IT'S TONGUE UNTIL THE SEARCHING WAS COMPLETE.

OH HOW CRUEL THE MISTRESS SEA WHO DREW FROM STARS AND CLOUDS
INTO THE BLANKETING MIST UPON HER BREAST THE FRAGILE CRAFT ASUNDER.

THE WORLD LAMENTED THE LOSS AND WONDERED WHY AGAIN THIS FAMILY REDUCED SO WOULD NEED THIS SUFFERING.

THE MAN HIMSELF, HIS WIFE AND KIN WERE AMONGST THE FEW WHO WISPERING UPON THE WIND WOULD SAY "BUT NOW WE'RE FREE."

NO MORE WORDLY WORRIES NO MORE WOE AND TEARS OUR OTHER LOVED ONES WHO PASSED BEFORE HOLD US AMONG THEM NOW.

WE FLY WITHOUT OUR CRAFT NOW. A FREER KIND OF FLIGHT THAN ANY MAN WHO IN HIS LIMITATIONS PRACTICES.

WE TOUCH THE MOON, CARESS THE STARS.

Dear Mr. President,

Though not a big fan of either you or the Kennedy's, I read an article, that has you stating that that you "defend your decision to pour so many federal resources into the search for the plane....they were consistent with what would have been done in any other case" I think you should rethink your statement. Though Kennedy might have been a well known person, and I am not, YOU would not of sent the Military in to search for me or my members that I had with me to search for me. It is no wonder I totally detest having you as a President. I am ex-military, and I don't believe that the Military would even care to go and search for me if I crashed in a plane at sea, though I served my country proudly, unlike you, I do not think that the hard working Tax Payer would sit there and pay to find me, just like I feel about trying to find JFK Jr. I am sorry about what happened, but he is just like me, puts his pants on just like me, he may have money, his Dad being President, but he is nothing more than a civilian.....like me.

I know you will not answer this, or have anyone answer this, maybe just a automatic reply Thanking me on writing you and that will be the only thing getting to me, but I think you need to re-think your statements before you decide to go ahead and say them.

Not in Mourning

President Clinton:

You can't even tell the truth on a small matter!!!! The first trip back to the White House for JFK JR and his sister was when President Nixon invited them back. God have you no shame!!! A little thing like this and you have to lie about it, your nose must be 6 feet long by now.

Sincerely,

Mae Blessing

Please respond. That is the first point I have to make. I have written once before and got NOTHING. Government "of the people, for the people, and by the people" (hehehe, not in that order, I don't think) should NEVER ignore.

On the subject of JFK Jr.....what a tragedy. It has caused much sadness in my personal life during the past few days. What a loss! What a wonderful and charismatic man. It deeply affects me, and your public words have been appropriate and eloquent.

I just NEED to be reassured that the "search and rescue", which later turned into "search and recovery" would have been just as massive for an ordinary citizen. Americans are the core (indeed...the LIFE) of this most awesome nation. Any person needs to be protected and, if possible saved, in the same way Mr. Kennedy was.

Celebrity status should have NO BEARING on anything, when an American life is at stake. I love my country, and hope that the love I feel is also felt by my government. Please understand that I write this knowing I would make the ultimate sacrifice, if necessary, to preserve and protect the people of this nation...

In closing, Mr. President, I want to make clear that I think you have done a good job in leading this country. I applaud you for that. Remember, however, that us ordinary people are not to be used as convenient photo ops...we ARE America. And expect to be treated as such.

Thank you for your leadership,

Christopher Perry, 19

Please use your influence to try to persuade the Kennedys not to bury JFK, Jr. at sea, but to have a normal burial where people can go to pay respects. This young man will not be forgotten. If he must be cremated, his remains can still be buried at a suitable place, not at sea.

Dear friends,

This e-mail covers two related subjects: my flight back home to Phoenix, Arizona from Lake Geneva, Wisconsin this last Saturday=97July 17th; and, JFK Jr.=92s last flight the previous evening. The purpose of this communication is to point out the deficiencies in the current FAA (Federal Aviation Administration) rules which contributed to this catastrophe, and to propose simple rule changes which will prevent similar deaths in the future if adopted.

On Saturday morning after bidding farewell to fellow AMUUSE campers at a Unitarian retreat at Lake, Geneva Wisconsin, Kathi Isaksen drove me to the East Troy Airport for my flight back to Phoenix-Deer Valley Airport. The clouds were low=97just 900 feet above the airport, and the tops of the clouds were at 12,000 feet. After filing a meticulously prepared IFR (instrument flight rules) flight plan, I received my clearance to take off. That clearance was to fly on a heading of 360 degrees until reaching the altitude of 3,000 feet, and then turn left to 270 degrees to the designated VOR and then as filed to Deer Valley at flight level 240 (24,000 feet).

It was clear for the first two minutes of the flight. Then followed twenty-two minutes of flying in a white-out wherein there was absolutely no outside reference to an horizon. Only the instruments aboard my aircraft told me right side up, and left turn from right.

Once over the top at 12,000 feet, the next one hour was spent climbing to 24,000 feet in crystal clear and smooth weather. The next five hours was uneventful and relaxing.

AND THEN CAME TUCUMCARI! Huge towering cumulous nimbus thunderclouds=

, with lightning all over the sky. With constant FAA warnings from the high altitude Albuquerque Center, and constant advisories as to exactly where to fly to avoid the thunderclouds, I was able to detour around the bad weather by adding another half hour to my flight time. The coordinated use of four attitude instruments, four navigation instruments, one strike-finder (electric detector for lightning), and two radios, provided the needed instrumentation.

Then came the difficult task of descending from flight level 240 to 11,000 feet before entering the Phoenix airspace. This necessitated going through a boiling sea of rising columns of white shafts of clouds. One moment I would be clear of the clouds at a 500 foot per minute descent at 160 knots airspeed, and the next moment I had to bring the aircraft to what is called "93 maneuvering speed" that speed at which a violent updraft or wind shear will not create structural fatigue on the wings of the plane. All this time, the plane would be violently pitched up or down and from side to side within a cloud wherein there was no outside hint of an horizon to be able to tell which side was up or which way the plane was banking. And by the way, when you are completely surrounded by total white within a cloud, and are forcefully thrown in one direction or another within the aircraft, your eardrums cannot determine equilibrium, and your brain cannot inform your inner ear as to proper orientation from normal stimuli (outside references).

Even though this flight involved a high degree of difficulty it still was within my personal criteria of safety: a)-a daytime flight in a single engine airplane; b)-the ability to glide to a safe landing site if the engine quit, with two GPSs (global positioning systems) providing all the necessary information regardless of cloud conditions; c)-an IFR flight plan on file with the FAA; d)-constant radio contact and control with FAA flight centers; e)-frequent weather checks with FSS (Flight Service Stations=

f)-two different sets of air maps physically set up so that they can be read regardless of turbulent weather; and g)-the determination to call it quits if my personal comfort level is pushed too far.

Put simply, I was totally focused on the task of safely flying Bonanza a 8MW (eight-mike-whiskey), and I was deeply concerned about my safety. On the plus side, I have a single engine/multi engine/glider commercial instrument rating, and have flown over two thousand hours, the great majority of which has been in IMC (instrument meteorological conditions).

And now for JFK Jr.s flight.

In the first instance, JFK was a brand new pilot with a licence for less than a year, and less than two hundred hours total time.

In the second instance, JFK did not hold an IFR rating. A VFR (visual flight rules) pilot is trained to a level of approximately 20% of an IFR rated pilot.

In the third instance, JFK did not file any flight plan whatsoever neither an IFR (which he would not have been qualified to file but which a flight instructor would have been so qualified to file if such a qualified individual had been added to the flight crew) or VFR flight plan.

In the fourth instance, JFK was not in radio contact with FAA flight centers for either communications or control.

In the fifty instance, JFK was not in radio contact with FSS stations for weather updates.

In the sixth instance, JFK was not within gliding distance of land if the engine stopped.

In the seventh instance, JFK was not over land wherein the lights of a city or of moving traffic could have provided him with some outside reference as to the horizon.

In the eighth instance, JFK was not able to use the stars/moon for an outside reference as to the horizon because the night was hazy and the sky was covered with high clouds.

In the ninth instance, JFK could not have effectively used air maps given everything else that commanded his attention due to the first eight instances. And even a three second diversion from watching the artificial horizon in the aircraft could result in total loss of control.

In the tenth instance, a VFR pilot with less than two hundred hours has no business flying a complex aircraft=97a)-over 200 horsepower (the Piper Saratoga had 300 hp); b)-retractable gear; and c)-a variable pitch prop.

What I think happened to JFK=92s plane was this: At the point of the flight when he lowered the landing gear the plane pitched up (this is common). At the time it pitched up, the plane banked to one side. JFK mistook the artificial horizon in the aircraft as indicating a bank in the other direction and tried to correct this misperceived bank. Within three seconds of this mistaken correction the aircraft entered into what is known as an unusual attitude=94 meaning it was substantially nose up and banking sharply to one side. From this unusual attitude to a stall-death-spiral is but a very few seconds, and given the skill level of a VFR pilot without any outside horizontal reference, there is virtually no change of regaining control over the airplane.

AND JFK=92s FLIGHT WAS LEGAL WITHIN FAA RULES!!!!!!

SOLUTION FOR AVOIDING FUTURE CATASTROPHES: VFR rated pilots should not be permitted to operate aircraft during night hours. At the very least: VFR rated pilots should not be permitted to operate aircraft over water or other non-lighted areas during night hours.

SUBJECT: Use of Naval Equipment to recover JFK Jr.'s Body

[Message]

Dearest President Clinton: I am grateful to you for your choice in allowing the use of Naval ships and equipment to recover the bodies of JFK Jr., his wife and sister-in-law. I have been blessed by this family due to their influence in my life since I was 2 years old. JFK Sr., because of his daughter, 8 months my junior, had me enthralled with politics - used to drive my parents nuts asking how & why about the presidency. JFK Jr. was born 2 months before my youngest brother. Having incredibly vivid memories throughout the years of the Kennedy family, their trials, tribulations and continuous drive for life, the dignity with which they have moved through it all, and the inspiration for which I have been blessed to watch them give in their lives, the gift of the use of some Naval equipment to recover the body of the one man who embodied all the good and hope with which his father empowered this nation of people is small in comparison to the solace it has begun to veil those of us who care and those to whom the man, his wife and sister-in-law belonged most dear! I am grateful. Blessed Be! Elizabeth Cole

I applaud your decision to extend the search for John, his wife, and sister-in-law. The Kennedy's have given more than their fair share to this country and this was necessary so we all can start the healing process. Like everyone else, I watched John grow up and thought maybe he might follow in his father's footsteps. I was deeply saddened by this tragedy and relieved when he was found.

Thank you Mr. President!

Clinton Recalls JFK Jr. Visit
Full Coverage
JFK Jr. Plane Crash

By SONYA ROSS Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - Feeling proud that he gave John F. Kennedy Jr. his final White House tour, President Clinton on Wednesday defended the decision to search the ocean at length for Kennedy's fallen airplane. "I thought it was the right thing to do," he said.

The president told reporters during a news conference that rescue and recovery efforts in the four days since Kennedy's plane went down "were consistent with what would have been done in any other case." He said Coast Guard officials told him they could locate the plane and its passengers if given more time, so he agreed.

"If anyone believes that was wrong, the Coast Guard is not at fault, I am," Clinton said. "It was because I thought it was the right thing to do under the circumstances."

Clinton said he also based his decision on the Kennedy family's role "in our national lives, and because of the enormous losses that they have sustained in our lifetimes."

The White House said Clinton and first lady Hillary Rodham Clinton would attend the Friday memorial services in New York for Kennedy and his wife, Carolyn Bessette Kennedy. She and her sister, Lauren Bessette, also were killed in the plane crash.

It was during Clinton's first term that Kennedy visited the White House for the first time since he had left it at age 3, shortly after President Kennedy's death. Clinton said that visit was in 1994, when Kennedy served on an advisory committee on schools.

Clinton took Kennedy to the Oval Office to show him the desk under which Kennedy had playfully crawled as a boy while his father worked.

"I'm not sure he wanted to come back to the White House before he did," Clinton said in a melancholy tone. "In light of everything that's happened, I'm glad he had a chance to come back here one last time. I'm grateful that happened."

After the 1994 visit, Kennedy returned to the White House in February 1998 as a guest at a state dinner for British Prime Minister Tony Blair. A month later, on March 5, 1998, Kennedy and his wife attended a screening for the HBO series on the Apollo space program, "From the Earth to the Moon."

When most of the guests had gone home, Clinton said he and the first lady offered Kennedy a personal tour of the White House residence, "which he had not seen since he was a tiny boy." Kennedy accepted.

There, Kennedy saw a collection of memorabilia about the father he barely knew, gathered by a president who admired that father from a distance. Later, Clinton said, the younger Kennedy sent a signed copy of his favorite photograph of his father, campaigning in Charlottesville, Va., in 1960.

"We had a very nice evening, and I sent him the pictures from it," Clinton said. "He and Carolyn, they were delightful young people. Hillary and I loved having them here."

Mrs. Clinton said in her latest newspaper column that Kennedy struck her as "elegant and eloquent" that night, speaking movingly about how the space program was his father's "proudest legacy."

During the tour, she said, Kennedy "had trouble sorting out what he remembered from what he had seen only in pictures." She said they showed him the room where he slept, the grounds where he played, and the garden named in honor of his mother, Jacqueline Kennedy.

Sen. Robert Byrd, D-W.Va., one of the few current senators who was in office during the elder Kennedy's presidency, reminisced about Kennedy's funeral and his now-deceased son.

"A small, serious, tousled-haired lad seemed, even at the tender age of 3, to know just the right thing to do," Byrd said in a speech on the Senate floor. "With a straight back and a smart, entirely proper military salute, John F. Kennedy Jr. expressed the grief of an entire nation with a dignity far beyond his years."

Byrd added: "The mind reels at the specter of yet another Kennedy, taken too soon, yet another unbearable sorrow for this family which has had so much sorrow to bear."

KENNEDY VISITED THE WHITE HOUSE ALONG WITH HIS MOTHER AND SISTER WHEN INVITED BY THE LATE PRESIDENT NIXON.

CHRIS MATTHEWS ON HARDBALL LAST NIGHT RAN A TAPE OF A DESCRIPTION OF THAT VISIT BY JOHN JR. IN HIS OWN WORDS.

CLINTON HAS A REAL PROBLEM TELLING THE TRUTH ABOUT ANYTHING. A VERY, VERY SICK PUPPY!

[Message]

Mr. President:

I have heard some grumbling reported through the news media that perhaps too much time, money and effort went into the search for the missing plane of JFK Jr. and the bodies of the passengers aboard. I would like to thank you for allowing the search to continue, and the recovery mission to be completed. As a 33 year old American, I don't have many first-hand memories of the Kennedy family, but I believe this family has given so much for our country that this mission was the right thing to do.

Thank you again.

Regards,
Katherine Peda Hester

Dear President Clinton,

I would have been terribly disappointed if the Coast Guard had been ordered to quit searching before they found and recovered the bodies of John F. Kennedy, Jr., Carolyn Kennedy, and Lauren Bessette. It is beyond belief anyone could disapprove of your decision to allow the search to continue until their goal was achieved. I just want you to know that as far as I am concerned you not only did the right thing, you did the only thing the majority of America would have found acceptable.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President,

I want to thank you for putting so much effort, through the navy and coast guard, in finding the remains of John, Carolyn and Lauren. The families have been through enough without having to deal with their loved ones not found.

You did the right thing.

Dear Mr.President

I concur with you wholeheartedly in your decision to extend the courtesy of an additional few days search to the Kennedy family, and although you acknowledged responsibility for this action publicly, I, as an American citizen, also share this responsibility, as I too, would have acted in precisely the same manner, given the authority to do so.

Thank you Mr. President

I FIND IT DISGUSTING THAT YOU ARE WASTING MY TAX DOLLARS TO FIND DEAD PEOPLE.
I'M SURE IT'S NOT CHEAP HAVING 10 NAVY SHIPS FRISKING THE OCEAN. I'M ALSO SURE YOU WOULDN'T BE DOING IT IF IT WAS MY BODY, OR ANY OF MY FAMILY MEMBERS IN THAT

SUBJECT: Who pays for JFK Jr. search?

[Message]

I was wondering who it is that pays for the extended search for JFK Jr. and the Bessettes? I hope it is not the tax payers, but I am afraid that that is probably the answer. It seems unfair to me to send so much taxpayer money on a search for people who are obviously dead. Not to mention sending a Navy ship, etc. Please don't think that I am insensitive about the Kennedy and Bessette losses. However, people die everyday and the majority of them have family and friends who will mourn their loss gravely. So what makes it right for the government to spend so much on just these three people? They were not civil servants or war heroes, just rich and famous. It is absurd to me that they should be so honored by the US government in their death.

SUBJECT: BURIAL OF JFK JR AT SEA

[Message]

WHY DID THE US NAVY BURY JFK JR AT SEA AND COST THE CITEZENS OF THE UNITED STATES ALL THE MONEY IT COST TO KEEP THAT SHIP ON THE LOCATION, NOT TO MENTION CARRYING THEM OUT TO THE SHIP IN COAST GUARD HELICOPTERS? SEVERAL YEARS AGO ACTOR JOHN CARRADINE REQUESTED TO BE CREAMATED AND HIS ASHES SCATTERED BETWEEN CALIFORNIA AND SANTA CATALINA ISLAND AND HIS CHILDREN WERE REFUSED PERMISSION. THEY HAD TO BREAK THE RULES AND SLIP OUT THERE TO GET THE JOB DONE.

JFK JR WAS NEVER IN THE SERVICE, BUT GETS A MILITARY BURIAL AT SEA. MY GRANDFATHER WAS A SOLDIER IN WWI, AND WE COULD NOT EVEN GET THE AIRFORCE BASE IN HIS HOMETOWN TO SEND A COLOR GUARD, NOR A TWENTY ONE GUN SALUTE. HE HAD ALWAYS TOLD US HE WANTED A MILITARY FUNERAL, BUT HE DID NOT RECIEVE ONE. I GUESS YOU HAVE TO BE A MULTI BILLIONAIRE FOR THAT, AND THEN THE GOVERNMENT WILL BEND OVER BACKWARDS FOR YOUR SENDOFF.

THAT STINKS TO HIGH HEAVEN.

YOURS

REGINALD SELMAN

Dear Mr. President

Just a note to say how well i thought u did during the trying time fo JFK, jr.'s trajic death. It was refreshing to see you take control and see it through to the end. I approve of how u used the coast guard also. i feel it would have been a travesty if all means available were not utilized to find Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy as well as Ms. Bessette.

GOOD JOB MR. PRESIDENT!!!!

respectfully, Bill Eardley

SUBJECT: JFK Jr. Search

[Message]

Dear Mr. President, I am writing in support of your decision to extend the search for JFK Jr.'s body as well as that of his wife and sister-in-law. It was a courageous and right decision. I am a bereaved parent. My son William died at the age of 19 in 1989. I was so racked with grief that I thought surely I would not survive this. There is nothing in this world that prepares a parent for the death of a child. It is truly an unspeakable grief. What you did for the Kennedy and Bessette families to aid them in this way was, to me, nothing short of heroic. God bless you for making that "right" decision.

The American people owe the Kennedy Family tremendous gratitude for the sacrifices they have been called upon by Providence to make while serving the people. The grace with which they carry themselves despite their unbearable losses, the courage with which they face their pain, and their ongoing service to our humanity not only in public service, but in the unrewarded and undisclosed charitable work for the desolate and despairing they have been doing, trained from childhood, not only called for but demanded that we, who appreciate selfless love, devotion and dedication, which they impart ongoing generation after generation, do one simple act of kindness to ensure that our Martyred President's son, John F. Kennedy, Jr., be found to go to his resting place and offer them the closure they needed.

Mr President, we not only support your decision to extend the two day-search, but praise your efforts, courage, and thank you for acting on our behalf in what we could not have been able to do expeditiously. As our Commander-in-Chief, you were bound morally to be by the Kennedy Family's side in spirit helping them bring John, Jr. to them to entrust them to God and His sea. May God bless you and all your ongoing efforts to keep us free and strong as a Nation; and, it must all begin at home.

Today is my birthday, but henceforth it shall be the day John-John came home because of you.

We, too, grieve along with the Kennedy Family and pray for God to impart His peace and love unto them, now that John, his wife, and sister have been put to rest. May God in His Divinity and Mercy help them in their most difficult moments, especially the Senator, who must again eulogize this beautiful child he nurtured, loved, and guided through manhood. The hardest thing about the loss of a young person, it has been said, is that it goes against nature.

But our reassurance is the knowledge that their faith, will carry them through, and they will go on with their memories, keeping John Kennedy, Jr., forever living in their hearts and in spirit.

Sincerely Yours,

BOB & GLORIA MAYO, POB 682, FAIR OAKS, CA 95628

SUBJECT: RECOVERY OF JFK JR & FAMILY'S REMAINS

[Message]

Mr. President - I just wanted to thank you for allowing the extraordinary efforts of all parties involved in recovering the remains of JFK Jr., his wife and sister-in-law. I thoroughly agreed with your Press Conference regarding these efforts and I applaud you for same. The Kennedy's have given much to this Country and certainly suffered much. I appreciate your thoughtfulness at this time and just want you to know that I stand behind you 100%.

I work in Lansing, MI, and tried to see your plane take off today (7/22) from work, but I missed it. What a bummer. I should have told the boss that I was going to see the President, and left work. (ha ha).

Again, thank you Mr. President for a job well done.

BASTARD AND BITCH YOU TWO ARE! Tax cut is still possible if you quit using medicare as a political ploy and if your estimates are truthful for the economy which I doubt are true. LSHMBB You can't even tell the truth about your visit with JFK Jr.. Seems to me I remember a real President Nixon having him in the white house. Geezs what a liar and a bore!

Mr. President,

I just wanted to take a minute to say that I, as a citizen of this great and wonderful country, want to express support and appreciation for your support and actions with the JFK Jr. tragedy.

Your decision to keep our Coast Guard involved was, at the very least, an obligation this country has to the Kennedy family. I sincerely hope any one that is or has sent you any negative comments revisits their own actions and never loses a loved one that has served this great country. Especially if that loved one was the President of the United States of America!

I think you receive too many notes from folks that only want to offer criticism and not enough when you should be told "thank you".

Thank you,
Kathy Conard

DEAR PRESIDENT CLINTON:

I WOULD LIKE TO SUPPORT YOUR DECISION IN SPENDING THE TIME AND MONEY REQUIRED TO FIND JFK JR, HIS WIFE AND SISTER IN LAW. IF IT HAD TAKEN YEARS TO FIND THEM I WOULD HAVE ALSO SUPPORTED YOUR DECISION. I REMEMBER THE KENNEDY FAMILY IN NEWPORT WHEN I WAS GROWING UP. THESE PEOPLE WHO HAVE EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER YOUR SPENDING GOVERNMENT FUNDS SHOULD GET UP OFF THEIR BUTTS AND GET A JOB AND QUIT THEIR MOANING AND GROANING. JFK GAVE UP HIS LIFE FOR THIS COUNTRY AND I FEEL WE AT LEAST OWE JFK JR. AND HIS FAMILY THIS MUCH. THE KENNEDY FAMILY GAVE MUCH MORE UP THAN A FEW BUCKS, JFK JR. GAVE UP HIS DAD AND HIS MOTHER A HUSBAND. I TRULY HOPE THE US GOVERNMENT PAYS FOR THE INVESTIGATION TO WHATEVER HAPPENED TO THE PLAN, NOT THAT IT IS THAT IMPORTANT NOW. THANKS FOR LISTENING. I FEEL BETTER NOW.

I am a dyed in the wool Republican and will always be.
However, I want to assure you that it would have been unthinkable to do anything less than the Coast Guard did in the search for John Kennedy's plane.

As a son of one of our fallen Presidents and as a member of a family that has given so much to the country, you could do no less.

I loathe you for using the United States Coast Guard and the United States Navy for your own personal gain. Would you have authorized the same type of missions if the victims were Republicans? I don't think so.
You are the worst President in the history of this country.

as handled

[Message]

I just wanted to express my gratitude for the way the President handled the JFK Jr. situation. It was a very tough situation to deal with. The President handled it in the way that I believe was most appropriate for the situation. I know that many people will probably see things in a different light, and it is well known that you can't make everyone happy 100% of the time.

I know that you probably receive e-mails where people and groups are telling you how things should be done or that the President and/or his staff did not act appropriately, let me assure you that this is not one of those e-mails. I am grateful that the situation was handled the way it was handled and I just wanted to share my appreciation.

Sincerely,

Erik Thompson

I first want to say it is a tragedy to lose such a young and productive person. However, my family has also suffered tragedy akin to that of the Kennedys. I do not agree that our tax dollars should be spent in providing funeral services.

My family has lost 8 people since 1986, ages from 14 thru 80, and mind you only 1 was old. All the rest were young. I dont recall receiving checks from the government to cover any of their final cost.

Please don't spend my tax dollars in this fashion again.

Dear President Clinton,

I fully support your decision to extend the search for John Kennedy Jr., his wife and her sister beyond the normal time frame. The enormous amount of service the Kennedy family has given to our country more than justifies your decision. My heart goes out to the Kennedy and Bessette families for their tremendous loss. The sorrow I feel having lived through the assassinations of JFK and his brother Robert is only relived at this latest sad episode. To have allowed the families to spend, perhaps, a lifetime wondering about the fate of these 3 young people would be unreasonable. Thank you for having the courage to make the decision you did.

Sincerely,
Mary Kaye Lee

I agree with your authorization of the use of extraordinary measures to find the downed planes and the bodies. Aside from all the other reasons, if the government had not done so, I am sure that some sleazy organization like the National Enquirer would have. Can you image how they would have used their photos.

Good call on this one.

[Message]

I disagree with you saying that no expense should be spared in searching for the bodies b/c of the role of the Kennedys in American history. Yes, he was the son of a president but there are others who lose loved ones at sea and I don't see you running out there to do all you can to help them be found. What have you done for the family of that young man murdered in San Francisco by homophobes?

Many of us think that the Kennedys are an embarrassment. Two brothers having an affair with one woman, another Kennedy getting drunk, wrecking his car and leaving a victim inside to drown, then waiting 8 hours to sober up before calling the police. How about the Kennedy having an affair with a teenaged babysitter? Or the alleged rapist? Or even JFK Jr's own mother? She married a millionaire for his money, not because she loved him and we call that "classy"? This family is just as dysfunctional as others, and I suspect actually worse cos no one in my family's been caught sleeping with minors, or getting away with a DUI murder or any of the other stupid things that Kennedys do that makes people want to lament the supposed "curse" that has befallen them.

So please don't try and act like all Americans are enamored with them and consider them our royal family. I disagree with you fawning all over them and don't appreciate you using tax dollars- including mine- for a hopeless cause. A fisherman who'd served valiantly in Vietnam would be more worthy of such a search if he'd disappeared at sea but I know you wouldn't be on the TV saying you spared no expense for him.

Just an opinion, but it's mine.

Dear Mr. President

I want to send you a brief note of thanks for authorizing the continued search and assistance from the Coast Guard and the U.S. Navy in the search & locating of JFK Jr., his wife and sister-in-law.

I saw on TV last evening your comments to the press and how you took personal accountability for the authorization and your reasons for doing so. I commend and salute your compassion, judgement, and actions on the matter. True Leaders take Accountability for themselves and others. We need more of that in our government, our businesses, our society, and our families.

Thank you again.

Warm Regards,

Dear President Clinton:

I am sending this to you also because I am not sure if Sen. Kennedy will get his e-mail before tomorrow's services. I have read on AOL that you will be attending the services for JFK Jr. and his wife and I really wish for this poem to be given to each family member and if possible along with an Angel Face Rose Bush to plant in their remembrance. I don't know if there is a place in the budget to do this, but I feel it is only part of what America can do for such a family! I thank you and surely hope that you get this in time to take with you! God Bless you and please, keep up the great work I am always on your side for what you have done for America! Give you and Hillary a big hug from me and my family!

Sen. Edward Kennedy

Copy of message text follows:

Dear Sen. Kennedy;

My heart goes out to each and every one of the family members during this time of grief! I know that all of America is hurt by this tragic accident, and I also know that no words can help with the pain that each and every one of you feel. I too have lost a child to a devastating death at a very young age. I received a poem from my church family during my services for my boy that truly helped. With this poem I send to you, I ask that each family member, both Kennedy and Bessette - Freeman, receive a copy and please have a rose bush purchased to represent the three loved ones we have lost. The rose bush to buy to plant in remembrance of such brilliant people would be the Angel Face Rose, for it is the most fragrant rose there is, not to mention absolutely beautiful!

And here is the poem that I wish you could have printed for each and every one of you! May God bless you always, and I pray for an end to the sorrow this family keeps enduring!

The Rose Beyond the Wall

by A.L. Frink

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding it's sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through with there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride,
It followed the light through the crevice length,
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view,
Were found the same as they were before,
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing it's fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve,
And make our courage faint or fall?
Nay, let us faith and hope receive,
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of your,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forevermore.

God Bless you Sen. Kennedy, and each and every family member, my arms are around you all and my prayers are there too!

Sincerely,

Danae Kirchgatter

Mr. President,

I just wanted to express my whole hearted support of your decisions regarding the recovery and burial of our 35th presidents' son. It is hard to explain most of this country's feeling for him, but he was more to us than a presidents son. Thank you for honoring him and his family.

SUBJECT: JFK jr funeral service

[Message]

Dear President Clinton,

I am very upset that my taxpayer dollars have been spent on providing a private service to a private citizen. I believe the Kennedy family deserve to be able to dispose of the ashes of JFK jr and his wife in any way they see fit. I do not believe that as a private citizen who was neither serving in a US government post or had ever served in the US military, JFK jr had any claim to a private funeral at extreme government expense. I believe that the Kennedy's can afford to pay the government back for the cost of the funeral service and the security measures.

It bothers me when any citizen of means is granted access to federal resources that would be denied to ALL other private citizens. One of the founding principles of our government is equal access for ALL citizens to government services.

The justification that you gave for providing the EXTRAORDINARY access to taxpayer supported services would require the government to provide this kind of access to any sons or daughters of elected officials, members of the military, etc. killed in the line of duty. Please explain the OBVIOUS attempt to establish a hierarchy of access to government services based on an OLIGARCHIC right. We live in a democracy, not a country ruled by a few priveleged people as you seem to now believe.

[Message]

I would like to start by telling you that I am a fairly liberal democrat before you read what I have to say. I do not begrudge the extra time and tax-payer monies that were spent to locate the bodies of the deceased. As an American citizen I understand that in many instances it is who you know in the political arena that affords you "extras". It would; however, be nice to know that the same effort would be extended to all of the American public. What I would like to know is who is paying the cost for the burial of JFK Jr., his wife and sister-in-law. I know that a naval ship was brought in for the burial at sea. I am under the impression that the American public is paying for this and it concerns me. If we are going to pay for burials shouldn't we pay for them of our lower and middle working class, retired persons and vetrans, not for people who could well afford any type of extravagance?

I know that JFK, Jr. was a friend and also the son of an former President but he was, after all, "John Q. Public". I am sure that I am not the only one with these questions and an explanation from you would be greatly appreciated.

I am glad that the bodies were recovered and that the Kennedy and Bessett families will be able to have closure. I can only imagine the ordeal that they have gone through - any death is traumatic.

Thank you for your time and I look forward to a response.

Dear Bill,

Hello, My name is Kevin Ray Fritts. I am a design engineer for Honda motor co. in Marysville, OH.

I am writing you in response to you allocating funds to the search for the bodies of JFK jr., his wife and wife's sister. Bill, I think it was wrong of you to spend American tax payer dollars for the search. I don't want to come across as uncompassionate for human life or for the Kennedy family. I am not that. I think they do deserve to have their loved ones recovered. I do think that if we spend money to recover their bodies, it's only fair that the coast guard be sent to find a family member of mine.
Abraham Lincoln once said "all men are created equal." The search contradicted this great man's words.

Sincerely,

Kevin Fritts

Watching the televised remarks you made for JFK Jr. yesterday,
I noticed you said that John hadn't been back to the White House since his father was president.

Actually, as has probably been pointed out to you, John visited the White House while Nixon was in office. This was revealed on Chris Matthews's replay of the interview with John.

I want to know how much the search for the bodies of JFK Jr.cost and his wife cost the taxpayers and who will be paying for it? I believe that the Kennedy family has much more money than I do and can afford to pick up the tab.
Transporting his family around on Naval vessels and a burial at sea. Quit

Mr. President,
Former President JFK has given the ultimate price in serving this country. I strongly support your role in making sure every civil and military resource was there for his son JFK Jr.

President JFK and his former wife Jackie would be very proud that you made sure their son had a proper burial.

It made me feel good when people/media questioned you, and you took full responsibility for the Coast Guard's and Navy's roll. Your words were spoken like a true leader.

Thank you and God bless,

Robert LiveOak

Dear Sir, I understand people are passing blame for extening the recovery of the bodies. I am sad to see this happen if we as a people can spend money to make sure the people of your wars get home after all these years then why not in this case? I feel that if there family was placed in the same problems would they not want a total recovery? I am a retired firefighter and have done many of these types of operations sir. And it always made me feel better to be able to close the book for the family Thank you for your time

I FEEL VERY SORRY THAT JFK JR LOST HIS LIFE AND TWO OTHER LIVES BECAUSE OF HIS POOR JUDGEMENT. HOWEVER, HE WAS NOTHING MORE THAN AN ORDINARY CITIZEN. HE NEVER HELD OFFICE, AND WAS NEVER IN THE MILITARY. I AM DISGUSTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS GOTTEN SO ARROGANT THAT THEY DO NOT CARE HOW THEY SPEND THE TAXPAYERS MONEY. THE TAXPAYERS MONEY THAT WAS SPENT ON THE SEARCH AND RECOVERY AND THE FUNERAL WAS BLATANT AND ILLEGAL USE OF TAXPAYERS MONEY. I WOULD LIKE TO SEE AN ACCOUNTING OF JUST HOW MUCH MONEY WAS ILLEGALLY SPENT. I THINK THAT WILL ALL OF THEIR ILL-GOTTEN WEALTH THAT KENNEDY FAMILY SHOULD BE SENT A BILL FOR THE EXPENSES INCURRED. THIS IS SHAMEFUL.

This death is a terrible loss--as all are.

I strongly oppose the military funeral provided for this civilian. Especially given the fact that funds are not available for much more modest memorials for those who not only served, but were actually injured in combat. It is a slap in their collective faces.

Please do not support this type of favoritism. This type of "me first" attitude is what is wrong with our country.

[Message]

According to news on the MSN.COM site, you have indicated that it was you and the Coast Guard that are to blame for approving the use of Navy and Coast Guard ships to both search and then to bury JFK Jr. and his wife.

Since you never served in the Armed Services, you cannot possibly understand why this is an insult to all veterans. My Father was a 21 year Navy veteran, serving in two wars, with distinction. I had two uncles who served during WWII with one being confined to a Japanese prison camp as a prisoner of war. In fact, I have had relatives in every war back to the revolutionary war. I have had several cousins to serve in all 4 services. I am an ex-Marine. I am glad that my Father has been gone from this earth before this happened. He would have been insulted that such services were provided to a person who had never served his country in the Armed Services.

Sir, you were wrong to provide such services, even at the request of the Kennedy family. They may have had two sons to have died in service to their country as well as another earlier son in the war but JFK's son did not deserve to receive such an honor. I have nothing against the young man nor the two young ladies. It was a tragic thing to happen. But to treat him with such an honor, even with the Burial Honors that is provided veterans, was simply wrong. You have cheapened every honorable veteran who has gone before, is serving now and will serve in the future.

Incidentally, there is a veteran who is terminally ill from cancer in our community by the name of Joe Knowles. Mr. Joe has been a individual who has given directly of himself in serving hundreds of people in our community of Headland, AL and the surrounding area. It is a shame that when he passes on, that no national proclamations of his good work will be sounded. Instead, only those of us who were honored to know him and who he helped during his lifetime, will be there to honor him at his graveside. A man who has directly helped more people than I would suspect JFK Jr. even came into contact during his short life.

To put one American above so many others is terribly, terribly wrong. You should be ashamed of the insult that you have layed on the shoulders of men and women who provided the very freedom under which you have acted so irresponsibly.

[Message]

As an ardent advocate of the rights of all Americans, I am completely appalled at the expenditure of hard working tax paying souls that have had to endure the again burden of paying for political patronization. While the Kennedy's have undoubtable endured personal tragedy, why is it the responsibility of the federal government to allocate assets and dollars for a local, state emergency. I was of the opinion that the federal government conducted asset allocation evaluations to engage federal property, manpower etc. in the case of emergent conditions. Where was FEMA? I just cant believe that the Navy, NOAA, NTSB, Coast Guard, FAA, DOT, DOD, FBI, Department of the Treasury, would be involved if I personally crashed my plane. What a disgusting display of political bedwetting!!!!

I'm concerned and miffed by the amount of attention and use of expensive resources that have been expended in finding and burying JFK Jr. Granted his father was a former President of the United States who died in the service of his country. However, JFK Jr was not a politician, military member, or in any other way that I can see deserving of the attention paid on the part of the government and military. Having spent sixteen years in the service of my country (Navy) and having conducted numerous burial at sea services I see a great difference between those that I performed and the attention paid to JFK Jr. We were routinely asked to intern to the deep persons who spent 20-30 years in the service of their country. Ship schedules being what they are required the families of these departed service members to wait 3-6 weeks for a ship to conduct the ceremony. Additionally, never did we allow family members to get underway as part of the memorial service. We generally video taped the proceeding and provided the family with a copy along with the traditional letter, flag and ships chart.

The deaths of JFK Jr, his wife and her sister are indeed tragic and media noteworthy. I foresee that barring any unexplained mechanical problem, the result of this tragedy will be a pilot who assumed he was better qualified and prepared than he truly was. I expect that his ego got three people unnecessarily killed.

I pay a great deal of money in taxes and resent having my tax dollars spent this way.

I appreciate and firmly support your decision to expend federal [our] resources in the search for the airplane and bodies upon the occasion of the recent national tragedy involving John F. Kennedy, Jr. I further totally support your willingness to have the Coast Guard and the Navy assist in the scattering of the ashes. Few, if any, families have freely given this country as much as the Kennedy's have. It is well that we have done our best to repay them in some small measure. Thank you very much for your wise and sensitive decisions regarding these matters. They represent my feelings exactly. The nation could do no less.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you for allowing the search for JFK jr and his wife and her sister to go to completion. I have been hearing reporters ask stupid questions about the extent of the search, and how much money it was costing. I have also heard some real ignorance about others who claim to have lost a loved one much in the same manner and they complained that they were not afforded the same "respect." I was watching the story unfold and finally when the word came that all three bodies were found my wife and I both said thank you God, and thank you Bill Clinton. The fact remains that this was the least our country could do for the Kennedys. They have been serving us for quite a long time. They deserved to see the search end successfully. Once again, I say thank you for seeing this through Mr. President.

Hi! My name is Chris and I'm about to go into high school. I have always just wondered what it was like to be the President! How has it changed your daily life since you've been in the White House? I think your decision with the whole JFK Jr. incident was the right thing to do. Everyone around here is very upset about JFK Jr. and his wife and sister-in-law dying. That poor family has lost so many to tragic accidents! Oh! I was also wondering what your thoughts on Y2K were? Well, I just thought this would be a really cool thing to try! Thanks for your time!

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: My father's Burial at Sea????

[Message]

Hello,

I am concerned about the expedited services that were afforded to John F Kennedy, Jr., his wife and his wife's sister. I understand that his father was President of this country. However, John F Kennedy, Jr. never served his country. I know that his life was hard as the son of a President. I appreciate the fact that the remains were found.
I appreciate the fact that he was afforded a burial at sea.
What I don't appreciate is the fact that a special trip by a Navy vessel was made at the taxpayers' expense. I could probably take this better if John F Kennedy Jr had served his country.

I could also take this better if my father's cremains weren't sitting at Mayport Naval Station in Jacksonville Florida awaiting a trip to be buried at sea. My father served in the Navy and the Air Force. He retired after over 20 years of service including 1 war and 1 "conflict". My mother was told that it would take approximately 2 months for him to be put on a ship and that she would be notified by letter after the burial was performed to let her know where and when the burial took place. At the time the cremains were given to the Navy, she was told they didn't know when or what ship would be taking him. Family was not allowed. In his immediate family, two of his children served in the Navy, one of which retired, and one of his children married a Navy member. Why is this family not allowed to be present for the burial at sea? Why are the cremains of a war veteran sitting in a box waiting for a ship to take him to sea? My father died in April. It is now July and he still hasn't been buried. Why? I understand that under routine circumstances that this is the procedure.

I understand that JFK Jr was famous. I understand who his father was. My father wasn't famous. His father wasn't President. But he served his country. He doesn't deserve to sit in a box. I don't think that you would want that for your father.

I would like to know the answers to these questions.

Concerned Citizen and daughter of a man not rich enough to warrant a special trip by a Naval Vessel but good enough to serve his country forgotten in a box at Mayport,

Nancy Gemmill

Dear President Clinton
I would like if you could past this on to the Kennedy and Bassett families.

This poem has come to mean a great deal to me after the death of my father. I has given me great comfort.

Being one of many that can remember where I was when President Kennedy was killed and have watch his children grown and became the people they are.

Pease be with the families of both of the families.

God saw he was getting weak And a cure was not to be. So, he put his arm around him And he whispered "Come with me" With tearful eyes we watched him suffering and saw him fading away. Although we loved him dearly, We couldn't make him stay, A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands are at rest. God broke our hearts to prove "He Only Takes The Best."

SUBJECT: Search For JFK

[Message]

I find it discouraging that the resources used to find JFK are not available to any tax paying citizen. Granted JFK JR. was a unique individual and his family are icons in U.S. History, but in JFK's own words. He sought out the public, to live the life of an average citizen. He was of no extraordinary stature provided to those in government and philanthropy. His accomplishments in life, good in nature, will not stand in U.S. History. Yet he was afforded military stature and grace reserved for a limited few.

I read an article today chronicling the limited attempts the government made in other plane crashes of U.S. citizens and it's become painfully apparent that there are two sets of standards for the affluent and the average citizen. President Clinton's extreme measures to recover the bodies only fosters the segregation of classes. I am secure in my belief that the Kennedy family could have financed this extreme rescue mission on their own. Perhaps this opinion will help in bridging the gap of classes and races that has been promised by the President.

Thank you,

Thomas Vaughan

I wanted to write and say thank you for the extra effort and resource you put into find the body of JFK Jr, his wife and sister-in-law. I beleive as you stated that the effort was worth due to all of the work that the Kennedy Family has done for this country. It is a real tragedy what happened and I beleive you helped ease the pain of the families involved but helping them bring closier to a sad time in their life.

Dear Mr. President;

I like most Americans are saddened by the death of those three people as I am sure the Kennedy and Bessett family are saddened by the deaths. But I am appalled that my tax money was spent on this everyday US citizen. Yes he was a Kennedy but he never served in government or the military. I want to know who is going to reimburse the citizens of this country for this expense?

I don't want to hear that his family has served the public. That is fine and those that serve should get all that is due them, not only in Federal service but local as well. John did not serve. I can only assume that since I have been a citizen for all my 44 years that I too am entitled to the same services? My family came from Italy worked hard and served this country in WWII. My uncle was a POW and he never got this type of service.

I understand that you authorized the extended search as well as military involvement. A question to you Mr. President if my nephew was flying his plane and went down at sea would you authorize the same to recover his body? I think not, and yet he is just as much a citizen as JFK jr. was.

I don't understand, and I will send this letter to all the press and politicians that will take the time to read it. I demand an answer and I want to know when the citizens of this great land can expect reimbursement from the Kennedy Family who as I understand it made the request for these extraordinary measures.

Thank You
Richard Dellarciprete

While we are sorry that J. Kennedy and his wife and sister-in-law were lost in an airplane crash we do not feel that it was appropriate to use public money, taxed from those who have little to give, to fund any of the search and rescue efforts. This would have been an appropriate time for yourself, or others, to give privately to such an effort. In the future we would appreciate your using public funds more in accord with the constitution which does not allow taxes to be used for such purposes. Thank you.

SUBJECT: Burial at Sea of JFK Jr

[Message]

As a retired Air Force veteran, I am appalled by your decision to permit the burial at sea of JFK Jr., his wife, and sister-in-law. This is a ceremony that should be used only in the most serious cases of military burial. None of these people ever served their country in any official capacity. I realize that the Kennedy family has had more than their share of grieving and mourning, but so have many of us.

Dare I ask, If one of my sons was to die in a similar manner as JFK Jr., would I be able to have him buried at sea? After all, I served my country long and faithfully.

Sincerely,
Orville L. Schinke

SUBJECT: Thank you for the OK on finding JFK jr, wife and sister.

[Message]

Dear President Clinton, I want to express my thanks to you for giving the Coast Guard and other government agencies extra time to find the bodies of John F. Kennedy, his wife and his sister-in-law. I do not care how much it cost. I am a 49 year old teacher of kindergarten in a public school and I too grew up watching John Jr. and his family. I was praying that he was somewhere safe. But my prayers were answered when the bodies were found for burial. That leaves no questions on conspiracies to develop. Yes, I hear the news and some "cold-hearted" people differ with you about the money spent and how "ordinary people" would not get the same treatment. Even though John wanted an ordinary life--he wasn't ordinary. Thank you again.

SUBJECT: JFK Jr. Search at the taxpayer's expense

[Message]

Dear Mr. President,

Although it was a grave tragedy on how JFK Jr. died, I don't believe it was appropriate to spend the massive amount of money on the search for his plane and on the funeral. It was a waste of money to send the dozens of rescue ships and persons to Martha's Vineyards in looking for his plane. You could have saved the money to help the homeless, give money for scholarships to students, decrease taxes, or help other social problems. Furthermore, extra money was wasted on the funeral. Why was a destroyer necessary to participate in that? Thank you for your time and good luck to you

Sincerely,
Chris Palun

To President Clinton, I am shocked to hear that people are upset about the involvement of the government to locate JFK Jr.'s plane and its passengers. He was the son of the 35th President. He was loved by millions of people who didn't even know him. He was a source of many tabloid headlines. This man was an American icon. I can't believe that people are more interested in knowing who he was dating or why they broke up and get angry because government agencies are trying to find his lifeless body. I feel that my tax dollars were well spent for this operation. I never met the man, but I sure do miss him. We will never know what could have been. Thank you for your time.

Respectfully submitted,
Thomas F. Jeffress

Although I mostly agree that his body had to be recovered to prevent people from locating and using this tragedy for their benefit I totally disagree with the U. S. military involvement. He is not authorize at all for any type of military involvement and certainly not his wife or her sister. I will remember this when a member of my family dies that has performed great community service. You do not have a clue what military tradition and benefits are. JFK Jr. would not be authorized burial at Arlington either. When a veteran dies nowadays he is not automatically authorized an honor guard at his burial and yet you did this to one who has no military service at all. I expect you to issue an executive order authorizing an honor at all veterans burials regardless of circumstances.

Teach Me That Salute One More Time- -JFK Jr.

I saw her coming towards me, as I entered Heaven's gate,
And in that famous whisper heard, "Hello John, where's your mate?"
She'll be along with Lauren, they're inseparable you know,
And though she loves me dearly, it's that "Sister Thing" that shows.
She deplored the famous person that our marriage made her be,

So Mother will you shield her like you used to do for me.

You were Mother and First Lady, Father's Soul- mate all in one,
Yet in our Secret Service World, we were "Kids" you made it fun.
You'll find our family all around, mixed in with all the rest,
We need no Secret Service here, we are the Master's guests.

Your sister's all alone now John, she needed you so much,
But God will stand beside her, give her life a special touch.
The world still ponders how we stood, these tragedies so long,
It's because God gives the greatest load, to the children who are strong.

Your father thought for certain, his mantle you would wear,
Because his blood flowed through your veins, his dreams you'd bring to bear.
We could see it all unfolding, it was a perfect plan,
But somehow that was not to be, those earthly plans of man.
You stood so tall above the rest, but never once looked down,
But rather walked beside them. where life and love abound.

The nation mourns your passing, John, it's hard for them to see,
Why you were taken from them, they ask how can this be?
You were their Prince of Camelot, you were surely next in line,
Their plans for you were waiting, on the drawing board of time.
The world is saddened over you, their grief shows once again,
They mourn not only what you were, but what you could have been.

I pray that you'll remember, as the days fade into years,
How I loved my life on Earth with you, our life, our laughs, our tears.
Please take good care of Caroline, give her space and let her be
The person that she chooses, will you please do that for me?
For I'm not there to shield her and protect her from the harms
That often come to Sisters, if they don't have brother's arms.

And Mother will you teach me, that salute just one more time,
For I see the Master coming and the honor is all mine!

The world stood still in silence, that day so long ago,
As a little boy saluted, the casket moving slow.
Once again the world stands still, as the casket's moving slow,
We now salute that same small boy and scream in silence, No!
No! we want you here where you belong, your work down here's not done,
No! We have too many plans for you, your life has just begun.

[Message]

Dear President Clinton, I am never bashful to tell you when I disagree with, so must tell you when I think you have done an honorable thing for this great nation. There has been a lot of complaining about the special action for JFK Jr., but I feel very strongly that family has dedicated their lives to this country. I am on the opposite end of the spectrum politically with the Kennedy's but they have dedicated every ounce of their being to this country. They should be given special recognition. Thank you President Clinton. I firmly agree with your decision. Pat Rueppel from NH

Thank You so very much for everything you did to honor JFK Jr. and recover the wreckage.

I think he was hit by wind sheer -

(and could have done nothing more to save them all.)

I have been watching the news of the terrible tragedy of J.F.K. Jr., his wife & sister in-law. I also watched the President when he was addressing the public the other evening. It really troubled me when the President said he would take the blame for allowing the Coast Guard to continue the search for the bodies & aircraft of the Kennedy's. I support you 100% in your decision. With all the conflict & tragedies in the world, it just amazes me that people can still find fault with the act of human kindness. I have never before wrote to any kind of Government agency or office before, until now. God bless you and thankyou for having a heart filled with kindness and compassion. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Carol White

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you for extending government resources to locate the remains of JFK, Jr., his wife and sister-in-law. This was a tragic loss. Recovering the remains was not only important to the families, but also to the nation. Thank you again.

I am writing to praise you for the humane way you ok'd the search to go on for John Kennedy and his wife and sister in law. How anyone could ever complain about your doing that is beyond me. No it would not have been done for most of us but then most of us do not have the blood, sweat and tears in this free country than the Kennedy family does. John didn't have a dad because he was President of our United States. Surely that was a way our country could pay him back for that loss. Also an uncle was assassinated because he tried to make the United States better and our Beloved Ted Kennedy has grown older trying to get a health care package passed. That family has done more for this country than any other family as a whole and I am so proud of you for sticking to your guns for the family to have the peace in knowing what happened to their loved ones. I give you a lot of credit for saying Blame me. Well shame on the rest of whoever did not want you to ok that project any further. You have made me very proud to be an American and I'll stand with you anytime.... God Bless you Mr. President. YOU have a heart. Best Wishes to you and your family. I feel terrible that we have people in our government who think we don't owe the Kennedy's. We sure do !!!!!!!

SUBJECT: Spending Tax Payer Money on Private Citizens

[Message]

Who said there is not a priveledged class in the USA. I cannot believe that the money and effort spent by US taxpayers at your direction would have been spent for any of us "common folk". It seems to me that spending the money to send a USN Destroyer and USCG Cutters to support funeral ceremonies for JFK Jr is a misappropriation of US Taxpayer money. Let's face it thousands of young men and women risk their lives for our country and would never get that treatment. The only reason for it is the Kennedy Family are your political friends. YOU ARE A PHONY! A LIAR! and the sooner your term is up the better for the USA!

Dear President Clinton:

Thank you for your considerable efforts on behalf of those who understand the contributions and sacrifices the Kennedy family have made to this country. The sincerity of the public reaction spoke to this understanding, despite what the Kennedy haters say.

It was the right thing to do.

Very truly yours,
Patricia A. Reardon

Dear Mr. President,

Although I am not much into politics, I do know when someone does something right or wrong, they should get what they deserve. You have taken a lot of "lumps" for things you have done personally, and few pats on the back for the good you have done. I am not a critic, a politician, or one to judge.....However, I really felt compelled to write to the President of the United States for the first time in my life. I have considered doing so before particularly where health care for children are concerned (I am a 34 year old, low-middle income MOM)...but I am writing concerning your judgement used with extending the search for Mr. Kennedy and his family.

YOU were right on target!!!! The entire nation, not just his family or the Bessett family were in mourning. I was not a major Kennedy fan, but really looked up to JFK Jr, as he appeared to be a real down to earth, caring human being. Thank you for considering the nation and not just two families grief. My heart goes out to them all and I give you a big standing ovation on a job well done!!!

Thank you for your time.
God Bless you and yours,

Sincerely,

President Clinton:

I will like to know what JFK JR. reactions was when he visit the White House in 1994. I wonder did he remember anything when he walk into the rooms where he and his Father was at. I didn't know that until now when I read it in a article this week. I would have thought he had been in it after it when his Father past or his Uncle Edward took in there since is the Senator. I would like to know that.

Sincerely,

Kelly Baker

I think that an appropriate topic for this subject would be how the rich and famous in this country do get special treatment by the government as evidenced by the search for JFK jr..

I find it rather curious that when it suits the government, the cost of some things include the pay of the people involved. In this case, however, it was "They did not draw any extra dollars and would have been paid anyway." Does the government think we are stupid and will buy this?

I am not in mourning for someone I did not know. How could I possibly feel anything for someone I never met. I am in mourning for the tax dollars wasted. They were not out of the water for even 24 hours and then put right back. This makes sense?

I am not heartless, and I feel sorry for the family. Can they say the same thing when my brother lost his 32 year old wife?

Money, political connections and fame will get more services from our government than the people that actually pay for them will ever get.

I'm appalled that JFK Jr. was given a military send off. He was not in the military. He was a citizen of the United States of America who had notoriety. Considering his history of shunning publicity, he probably would have disapproved of such an act!

This is another example of wasting taxpayers money, not to mention the military budget. This is just another politically motivated expenditure that shouldn't have occurred. No wonder trust for "politicians" continues to decline. I mean all politicians. Democrats and Republicans.

SUBJECT: John F. Kennedy Jr., and Wife, Carolyn and sister, Lauren - deaths

[Message]

Dear President Clinton and Family:

I feel compelled to write this letter to you and your family regarding the recent loss of JFK Jr., his wife Caroyln and sister-in-law, Lauren.

I have been following the news coverage from Fox News since the first story of the Piper missing in route to Martha's Vineyard on Friday evening, July 16th, 1999. The headlines that followed that most important and uneasy piece of news was only a small portion of what was to transpire until the recovery of the bodies on July, 21st, 1999.

All of America and the World have embraced this man that tried to lead a life of privacy as much as possilbe considering his status. John F. Kennedy Jr., was the son of a man that forever changed the world, though I was not born at that time, I have always had a fondness for the Kennedy's. A respect for the tragedies that had befallen upon them and the happier moments that the news was able to share with all of us.

Today I sat and watched the grieving faces of Senator Ted Kennedy and his two sons as they set out to identify the body of Mr. JFK Jr., and my heart felt heavy for I know how it feels to lose the ones you love the most. I truly believe that God has his plans for us all. The roads that we choose to take are sometimes not the paths God has given us and so we must forge forward and respect the choices that some make. There truly are no right or wrong decisions under certain circumstances and I feel that JFK Jr. thought he was making a sound decision when taking his Piper up the fatal night that ended his life as well as two other wonderful people.

How do you make sense of this yourself? Showing compassion does not seem to be enough for any family during times of despair and tragedy, especially towards the Kennedy family.

Growing up, I did my own personal research on the Kennedy's always fascinated by their lives, good, bad or indifferent. When you are a child, nothing seems to harm or to threaten the very existence of life. How innocent we all really are. Taking for granted the good grace that the lord has bestowed upon us and forgetting to thank God for another day of hope and prosperity for a brighter tomorrow.

Mr. President, I am a catholic who prays to God in my own way. He has given to me the meaning of life, love and family, even though I am not close with mine. There are times when you realize that you cannot change the way others may think or interpret.

Many claim to have known JFK Jr., just because they lived amongst him. I too lived and worked in New York City, that does not make me any closer to the Mayor than it does to those who may have briefly known this wonderfully eloquent young man. He tried to live his life without shunning the press. He had a particular station in this world and wanted to go down a different path than that of his late father. We will never know if he would have pursued a political career. That is not relevant at this point in time. What is relevant is the simple fact that he lived. He married a woman who did not come from royalty or politics. Someone who admired him, or so it seemed. They loved each other, genuinely. How many people in this world can honestly say that? To love and give of yourself willingly and with selfless motives? even the most wealthy still try to find a deeper purpose for life but what is missed is the fact that waking up each morning and greeting the day as if it were your first, that is the meaning for our existence.

Three young, energetic and private people lost their lives to whatever the failure was that caused the tragedy to unfold before America and the World. The important fact is that they will be remembered in every way possible. People may keep the memory of the three in their hearts, minds or by material items, however it is done, their memories will go on.

The relationship you and your family have made with the Kennedy's over the years is without doubt a most heart warming one. To embrace in moments of triumph and defeat with true friends is the foundation of life long friendships. I am sure your communication and condolence goes far beyond words of expression to the Kennedy family.

In writing this letter to you, if you are to even read this, has given me the satisfaction that if only in it's smallest fragment I have helped in making you believe that you are a part of a nation that cares, admires and loves those that have assisted up in becoming a strong and vital part of this world. Then I am satisfied.

How wonderful the world would be if we never had to encounter a loss, how sad the world would be if we never had to encounter a loss. There is always room for error in all of us. Humanity is built on error and makes room for the correction as the years forge forward and new generations replace the old.

Mr. President, my thought and prayers go out to you the Kennedy's and the Bessette's. May God shed his light upon those that have lost their way.

Sincerely,

Dawn M. Lowe

We are all saddened by the tragic deaths in the Kennedy household this month. I have as one of my earliest memories sitting in front of the television in 1963 with my mother and watching the aftermath of the JFK assassination. Since that time, as a young civil rights activist in 1968, I was destroyed by the death of Bobby. You and I are near the same age, and I am sure we have some of the same memories.

Enough about my background, and on to my comment. You really screwed up by using government resources to bury JFK Jr. Those of us who admired the service of the elder Kennedys do not necessarily believe, as in the British monarchy, that reverence and devotion are passed on through blood lines. We in America have ancestors who fought to eliminate a monarchy, and your actions legitimize the concept of an American monarchy. I feel that this was an error in judgement. To be consistent, every child of every American killed during duty to the country deserves the same treatment. Americans, or at least I, believe that we should be rewarded for our contributions, not our parents. Mason Gerety, Ph.D.

Dear Mr President,

By watching the news, it is apparent that you took some heat for authorizing extended resources for the search for JFK Jr and his wife. I agree with you that this was a must. The Kennedys are an important part our history and an important part of our nation today. I just thought you should know that others do agree with your position in this tragic matter.

Mr. President,

I would like to thank you for EVERYTHING that was done for John. I remember watching him grow up. Now and then we would be lucky enough to catch a glimpse of him with his mother and sister after his Father was killed.

He grew into a beautiful human being, and a Person that we were proud to know about. He did wonderful things for a lot of people, and he is sadly missed by all of us.

He embraced the ocean like his Father with the love and respect that his family taught him to do. It was only fitting to have the ocean embrace Him back, along with the love of his life Carolyn..

I can't help to think, that He has taken His Wife Home to meet His Mom and Dad. And that Camelot, has once again come into His Heart.

Thank You,

May God Bless you and Yours,

JoAnne L. Byers

I appreciate and commend the use of all US assets to search for and find Mr and Mrs. Kennedy and Ms Bessette. The suffering and grief of the families and the country could never have been resolved without answering the questions surrounding their accident. The use of the destroyer for the burial at sea was the only way the families could mourn their losses without a media circus. Whatever the cost was it was worth it!

I have not always been proud of your personnel decisions, but the humanity you showed in this situation was refreshing. Thank you for the courage to make this decision for sake of the Bessette's, Kennedy's and the country. Your actions for the country in the last 6 months have made me proud to have voted for you in the past.

Dear Mr. President: I see alot of justification going on in the news for why government agencies and armed forces were involved in the search, recovery, funeral (so to speak) of JFK Jr. I don't believe the justification is necessary. I feel everything that was done by these and other agencies is warrented under the circumstances...being he was the only son of a slain president. Oh, God what a loss...here was a beautiful man who could have been and done anything he wanted...I had so hoped he'd become President one day. I know he'd been a great one! And I'm not even a democrat...tho I probably should be! Thank you...cheryl holmes

[Message]

I support any government/military assistance in the search and recovery efforts enlisted in the JFK Jr. air tragedy. There are important, far-reaching issues far outweighing immediate, short-sighted economic considerations. This tragic situation has been made all the more difficult by cold-hearted partisans attempting to make a political/economic issue out of the loss of three lives. I would hope that as a nation we would gratefully grant the family of any former president, especially one cut down in service to his country, services and consideration befitting our continued respect. John F. Kennedy Jr. holds a special place in our country's history and our hearts. The nation cannot begin to heal from its grief over his passing unless we feel all has been done to help his family and to help bring him to a sanctified resting place. We owe him this final dignity.

Tonight (Thursday) MSNBC repeated a scurrilous claim that Mrs. Clinton may have killed JFK Jr. because he may have run for the Senate seat in New York.
Please don't let them get away with that.

[Message]

I have worked all my life and struggled, i have had many joys and blessing. One of the best things in my life were my parents. I buried my father almost five years ago, he had a modest funeral. He was a hard worker and good person and a wonderful father. He contributed to this country in more ways then any one of the kennedys. He was poor and was not famous but he was our prince. My mother passed away last december, i had to fly her body to New York and bury her there where my father is buried. I was fortunate to have people that trusted me and respected my mother and buried her without any money exchanging hands at the time. My mother was loved by so many people. She helped everyone she could, she was poor, she lived on her social security but always managed to give her children something. she contributed to this country in more ways then any kennedy has. I can not afford to pay for my mothers funeral and now i am being sued for the money. I can't blame the funeral home they have a right to their money. I have just started a new job, my husband just started a new job, we are trying to make ends meet. I am so upset to see the kennedy's have this wonderful funeral for this boy who was just another citizen of this country, not yet worthy of much of a contribution to this country and yet he is awarded a free funeral, paid for with my money. These people are rich, they don't deserve this, i want my share, i want you to pay for my mothers funeral. It cost $5,000, i want her funeral paid. When you write me i will give you the address of the funeral home.

SUBJECT: Extensive use of government resources and assets for search and recovery

[Message]

Dear Mr.President,

Your very compassionate directive expanding and extending the operation of the several US Government Agencies involved in the search and recovery of the John Kennedy, Jr. plane and the bodies of it's three crash victims, should be the norm and not the exception, reserved just for family members of Democratic political associates.

As a decorated veteran, and having been shot down in combat on several occasions, I can absolutely identify with the emotions of friends and families for those who are missing and feared dead. As a civilian commercial pilot who has traveled the same route as the JFK, Jr. flight to the same destination on hundreds of occasions, I have great empathy for the situation JFK Jr. found himself in, and for his fear as he discovered that he was lacking the skills and ability to successfully deal with it.

Unfortunately this same situation and the powerful emotions of missing friends and relatives from lost and feared crashed aircraft over water, occurs hundreds of times each year. Incidents involving losses over water make the search technically and logistically difficult and very often end without discovery. Only Federal Government Agencies and the military posses the skills and equipment to conduct these searches as was demonstrated by your directive.

Having now demonstrated that Presidential involvement and the deployment of significant Federal Government resources from numerous agencies makes the difference in locating lost civilian aircraft, I would request on behalf of all the tens of millions of Americans that have friends and families that fly in civilian aircraft, that you as the President, enact an Executive Order that authorizes all the same Federal Agencies involved in the JFK Jr. accident to expend at least the same degree of time and resources on all future civilian private plane accidents occuring over water.

In execution of such an Executive Order these agancies should be authorized to fully recover the added costs of these search and recovery operations from a budget category funded with some of the projected budget surplus.

Respectfully submitted,

William J. McKenna, Jr.

President Clinton:

Honorable President Clinton,

I would first like to thank you in taking a stance to the press's scrutiny regarding how much money we spent to recover the bodies of JFK Jr. his wife and sisterinlaw. Personally I think the press need to look at their non-stop coverage and how much it is costing them.

I share with the nation at the loss of such a wonderful man and hope that I too can keep his dream alive in my classroom.

My students contacted me via e-mail and were wondering how we would go about and receive funds to build a memorial for John Kennedy Jr. My classes have been very involved in their community and feel it is a worthwhile project for many generations to know more about this great man. Any input would be greatly appreciated. I thank you for your time and genuine concern for the Kennedy's loss. You spoke for our nation and I for one thank you.

Sincerely, Irene Filakouris, Teacher at the Louis Armstrong Middle School, East Elmhurst, New York 11369.

Sincerely,

Irene Filakouris
