THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1994

Dear Paul:

I want to thank you for supporting the Crime Bill rule. Your courageous vote is indicative of your commitment to fighting crime and improving the welfare and safety of all our citizens.

As you know, crime is a critical concern for all Americans and they are looking to Washington for action. The American people want to feel safe in their homes, and they want an end to the violence that has paralyzed so many communities across our nation. Passage of the Crime Bill will restore hope and security to our communities.

I thank you again for your support and look forward to working with you when Congress once again considers this crucial legislation.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

THE WHITE HOUSE .

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1994

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I want to thank you for supporting the Crime Bill rule. Your courageous vote is indicative of your commitment to fighting crime and improving the welfare and safety of all our citizens.

As you know, crime is a critical concern for all Americans and they are looking to Washington for action. The American people want to feel safe in their homes, and they want an end to the violence that has paralyzed so many communities across our nation. Passage of the Crime Bill will restore hope and security to our communities.

I thank you again for your support and look forward to working with you when Congress once again considers this crucial legislation.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,
