Dear Ms. Thurman:

Thank you for your recent letter applauding LCDR Brad Austin for his invaluable contributions made during his detail to the Office of National AIDS Policy (ONAP). We too are proud that a SAMHSA agency representative provided valuable expertise on substance abuse treatment, mental health and HIV prevention. While we recognize the service LCDR Austin has provided to your office, he must resume his work with the Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, and we cannot support his attendance at this year's World AIDS Conference in Geneva, Switzerland.

In our commitment to continue to provide staff support to ONAP, we are pleased to have identified another individual, CDR Ilze L. Ruditis, LCSW, who will replace LCDR Austin. CDR Ruditis will be available to start this detail assignment on June 1 and will remain until September 30. A copy of CDR Ruditis' resume is enclosed for your review. We are confident that CDR Ruditis will be able to provide you with valuable professional support.

We look forward to continuing to work with you.

Sincerely yours,

Nelba Chavez, Ph. D.

Dear David,

Thank you for allowing LCDR Brad Austin to work with us at the Office of National AIDS Policy. I am certainly hopeful that his expertise will help us to a better job of responding to the issues of substance abuse and HIV/AIDS.

I understand that you and Todd will be meeting later this week. No doubt you will come up with some additional ways that we can work more closely together.

Please let me know if there is anything we can do to help you in your work.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Thurman:

This letter is to acknowledge that LCDR Brad Austin will serve a detail to the Intergovernmental Task Force on AIDS beginning December 16. While on this four month detail, LCDR Austin will report to Mr. Todd Summers, Deputy Director of the Office of National AIDS Policy (ONAP). I have selected LCDR Austin because of his expertise with both HIV/AIDS and substance abuse treatment issues. While working in your office, he will:

- help coordinate a more effective response to collaborative efforts between the fields of substance abuse treatment, mental health, and HIV prevention efforts;
- provide expertise to The White House and ONAP on substance abuse treatment issues; and
- continue collaboration efforts between SAMHSA, CDC and NIH on issues concerning the intersection of HIV, substance abuse and gay and bisexual males.

LCDR Austin is well suited to provide expertise to your office and I am confident his service will be of great benefit.

Re:: Detail of LCDR Brad Austin to the Interdepartmental Task Force on AIDS

I am writing to confirm the selection of LCDR Brad Austin to the Interdepartmental Task Force on AIDS. This detail shall begin on December 15, 1997 and last for four months. While serving under the direction of Mr. Todd Summers, Deputy Director of the Office of National AIDS Policy (ONAP), LCDR Austin shall concentrate on the following areas:

- help coordinate a more effective response to collaborative efforts between the fields of substance abuse treatment, mental health, and HIV prevention efforts
- provide expertise to The White House and ONAP on substance abuse treatment issues, and
- continue collaboration efforts between SAMHSA, CDC and NIH on issues concerning the intersection of HIV, Substance Abuse, and Gay and Bi-sexual males.

LCDR Austin's commitment and contribution to the HIV and Substance Abuse field is well established. We are looking forward to working with him.

Sandy Thurman
Director
