

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the William J. Clinton Presidential Library Staff.

Collection/Record Group: Clinton Presidential Records
Subgroup/Office of Origin: National AIDS Policy Office
Series/Staff Member: Sandra Thurman
Subseries:

OA/ID Number: 40014
FolderID:

Folder Title:
Random Letters [Folder 2] [2]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
S	66	5	11	3

Withdrawal/Redaction Sheet

Clinton Library

DOCUMENT NO. AND TYPE	SUBJECT/TITLE	DATE	RESTRICTION
--------------------------	---------------	------	-------------

001. fax	Arunsiri Phothong to Cheryl Bauerle re: Invitation [Personally Identifiable Information] [partial] (1 page)	11/16/2000	b(6)
----------	---	------------	------

COLLECTION:

Clinton Presidential Records
National AIDS Policy Office
Sandra Thurman
OA/Box Number: 40014

FOLDER TITLE:

Random Letters [Folder 2] [2]

2018-0764-F

jm2022

RESTRICTION CODES

Presidential Records Act - [44 U.S.C. 2204(a)]

- P1 National Security Classified Information [(a)(1) of the PRA]
- P2 Relating to the appointment to Federal office [(a)(2) of the PRA]
- P3 Release would violate a Federal statute [(a)(3) of the PRA]
- P4 Release would disclose trade secrets or confidential commercial or financial information [(a)(4) of the PRA]
- P5 Release would disclose confidential advice between the President and his advisors, or between such advisors [(a)(5) of the PRA]
- P6 Release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy [(a)(6) of the PRA]

C. Closed in accordance with restrictions contained in donor's deed of gift.

PRM. Personal record misfile defined in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2201(3).

RR. Document will be reviewed upon request.

Freedom of Information Act - [5 U.S.C. 552(b)]

- b(1) National security classified information [(b)(1) of the FOIA]
- b(2) Release would disclose internal personnel rules and practices of an agency [(b)(2) of the FOIA]
- b(3) Release would violate a Federal statute [(b)(3) of the FOIA]
- b(4) Release would disclose trade secrets or confidential or financial information [(b)(4) of the FOIA]
- b(6) Release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy [(b)(6) of the FOIA]
- b(7) Release would disclose information compiled for law enforcement purposes [(b)(7) of the FOIA]
- b(8) Release would disclose information concerning the regulation of financial institutions [(b)(8) of the FOIA]
- b(9) Release would disclose geological or geophysical information concerning wells [(b)(9) of the FOIA]

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

The Reverend Gideon Byamugisha
Uganda Namierembe Diocese
Box 14297
Kampala-Balintuma Road
Adjacent UPMB Building
Mengo, Kampala
Uganda

Dear Reverend Byamugisha:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman

Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

Withdrawal/Redaction Marker

Clinton Library

DOCUMENT NO. AND TYPE	SUBJECT/TITLE	DATE	RESTRICTION
001. fax	Arunsiri Phothong to Cheryl Bauerle re: Invitation [Personally Identifiable Information] [partial] (1 page)	11/16/2000	b(6)

COLLECTION:

Clinton Presidential Records
National AIDS Policy Office
Sandra Thurman
OA/Box Number: 40014

FOLDER TITLE:

Random Letters [Folder 2] [2]

2018-0764-F
jm2022

RESTRICTION CODES

Presidential Records Act - [44 U.S.C. 2204(a)]

- P1 National Security Classified Information [(a)(1) of the PRA]
- P2 Relating to the appointment to Federal office [(a)(2) of the PRA]
- P3 Release would violate a Federal statute [(a)(3) of the PRA]
- P4 Release would disclose trade secrets or confidential commercial or financial information [(a)(4) of the PRA]
- P5 Release would disclose confidential advice between the President and his advisors, or between such advisors [(a)(5) of the PRA]
- P6 Release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy [(a)(6) of the PRA]

C. Closed in accordance with restrictions contained in donor's deed of gift.

PRM. Personal record misfile defined in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2201(3).

RR. Document will be reviewed upon request.

Freedom of Information Act - [5 U.S.C. 552(b)]

- b(1) National security classified information [(b)(1) of the FOIA]
- b(2) Release would disclose internal personnel rules and practices of an agency [(b)(2) of the FOIA]
- b(3) Release would violate a Federal statute [(b)(3) of the FOIA]
- b(4) Release would disclose trade secrets or confidential or financial information [(b)(4) of the FOIA]
- b(6) Release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy [(b)(6) of the FOIA]
- b(7) Release would disclose information compiled for law enforcement purposes [(b)(7) of the FOIA]
- b(8) Release would disclose information concerning the regulation of financial institutions [(b)(8) of the FOIA]
- b(9) Release would disclose geological or geophysical information concerning wells [(b)(9) of the FOIA]

FAMILY HEALTH INTERNATIONAL
Asia Regional Office

Arwan Building, 8th Floor
1339 Pracharat-1 Road
Bangkok, Bangkok 10800

Fax: (662) 587-4758
Tel: (662) 587-4750
Email: arunsiri@fhibkk.org

FAX TRANSMISSION

TO: Name Ms. Cheryl Bauerle
Location: Office of National AIDS Policy
Fax: 0011 202 456 2439
FROM: Arunsiri Phothong/Program Officer

DATE: Nov. 16, 2000 Total of Pages: 1
(including this page)

Cc: Caroline Connolly, Chanta Chak, Jason Heffner by e-mail

URGENT

Dear Ms. Bauerle,

Thank you very much for your prompt reply in sending me the invitation letter for Pra Thanawat.

However, I'd like your assistance again in issuing another invitation letter with similar content for Mr. Pasakorn Intoo - Marn who will accompany Pra Thanawat as an interpreter. Mr. Intoo - Marn needs to present the letter to the US Embassy in Bangkok for his visa application.

To provide you more information about Mr. Intoo - Marn and please review if this information is relevant to be addressed in the letter, Mr. Intoo - Marn used to work and now a volunteer staff for the Northnet Foundation, an NGO doing HIV/AIDS work in Chiang Mai. He has experienced in HIV/AIDS work in the north of Thailand for many years and is familiar with Pra Thanawat's project in the community. Mr. Intoo - Marn earned a Master of Arts from the University of New South Wales, Australia in 1995. Also, Mr. Intoo - Marn is holding a Thai passport number (b)(6) [001]

Please kindly send the invitation letter for Mr. Intoo - Marn directly to me by fax at 662 587- 4758. I will help coordinate with him.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thank you again for your prompt response and your kind support is greatly appreciated.

Best regards,

Arunsiri Phothong
Program Officer, FHI/ARO

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Pra Thanawat Techa Bunyo
Abbot
Huarin Temple
Tungsatoke Sub-District
Sunpatong District
Chiang Mai
Thailand

The Venerable Pra Thanawat Techa Bunyo:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

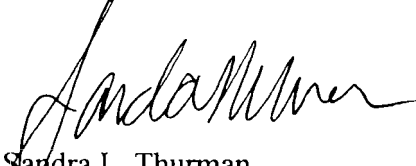

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Mme. Adama Maiga
Vice President
SIDAMA
Union Nationale des Femmes Musulmanes du Mali
Rue 230 Porte 37
Quartier – Mali
Bamako, Mali

Dear Mme Maiga:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

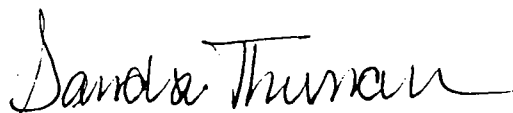

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman

Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Captain Ian Campbell
The Salvation Army
International Headquarters
101 Queen Victoria St
London EC4P 4EP
United Kingdom

Dear Captain Campbell:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

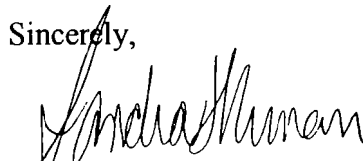

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Sister Joan English
Nazareth House
P.O. Box 12116
Cape Town, 8010
South Africa

Dear Sister Joan:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

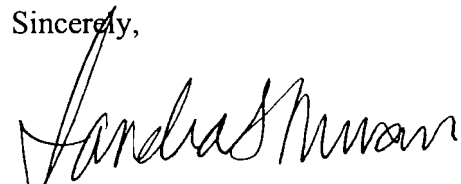

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

His Eminence Sunday Mbang
President
Christian Association of Nigeria
Wesley House
21/22 Marina
P.O. Box 2011, Marina
Lagos, Nigeria

Dear Eminence:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

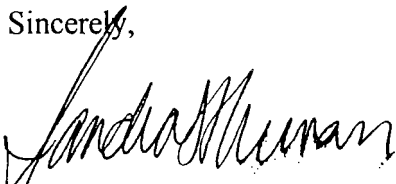

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Alhaji Muhammadu Maccido
President
Supreme Council for Islamic Affairs
The Sultanate
Sokoto, Sokoto State, Nigeria

Dear Mr. Maccido:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

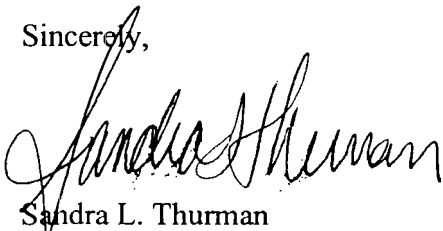

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Shiekh Hemed Bin Jumaa Bin Hemed
c/o National Muslim Council of Tanzania
P.O. Box 21422
Dar es Salaam
Tanzania

Dear Shiekh Bin Hemed:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

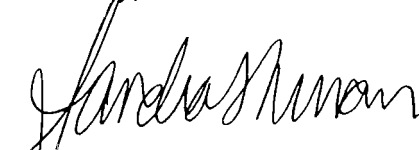

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON
November 15, 2000

His Holiness Abune Paulos
Patriarch
Ethiopian Orthodox Church
Ethiopia

Your Holiness:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Sandra L. Thurman", written over a horizontal line.

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON
November 15, 2000

Mr. Jean Sossaminou
Permanent Secretary of the President
Benin Association for Traditional Religion
BP: 71 Se in Mono
Benin

Dear Mr. Sossaminou:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

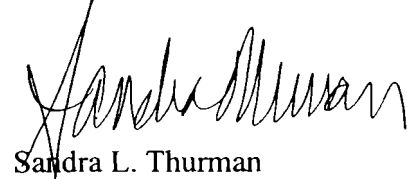

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

His Supreme Holiness Patriarch Buor Kry
Wat Botoum
Sangkat Chatomuk
Khann Duan Penh
Phnom Penh
Cambodia

Your Supreme Holiness:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON
November 15, 2000

Monsignor Theodore Adrien Sarr
Senegal

Dear Monsignor Sarr:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

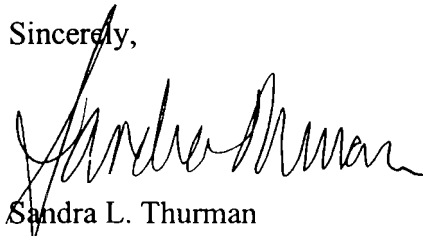

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON
November 15, 2000

Mrs. Bridget Syamalevwe
United Nations Appointee in the Ministry of Education
Ministry of Education Headquarters
Box 50093
Lusaka
Zambia

Dear Mrs. Syamalevwe:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

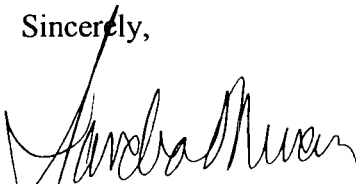

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Pasteur Ramino Paul Abraham
FJKM Amparibe Famonjena
21, Lalana Andriambelomasina
101 Antananarivo
Madagascar

Dear Pasteur Abraham:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

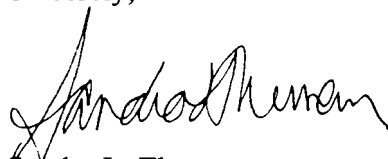

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman

Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Imam Cisse Djiguiba
Vice President
National Islamic Council
22 B.P. 663, Abidjan 22
Cote D'Ivoire

Dear Imam Djiguiba:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

El Hadj Ibrahima Sory Fadiga
Minister of Islamic Affairs
Guinea

Dear Minister Fadiga:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

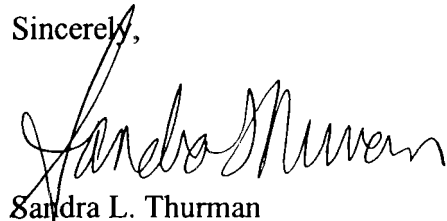

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman

Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Shiekh Abdurahman Hussein
Chairman
The Ethiopian Supreme Islamic Council
Ethiopia

Dear Shiekh Hussein:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

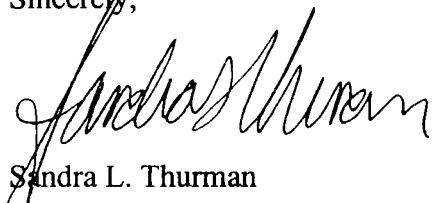

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON
November 15, 2000

The Reverend Zephania Kameeta
Deputy Speaker
The National Assembly of Namibia
Namibia

Dear Reverend Kameeta:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

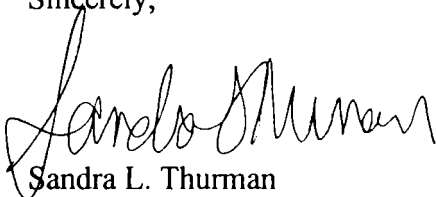

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

November 15, 2000

Linda Cutts
Green Gulch Farm Zen Center
1601 Shoreline Highway
Sausalito, CA 94965

Dear Ms. Cutts:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

The Most Reverend Emmanuel Kolini
Archbishop of the Province of Rwanda

His Eminence Archbishop Kolini:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

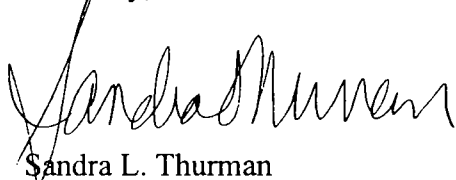

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Sandra L. Thurman". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Sandra" being more prominent.

Sandra L. Thurman

Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Bishop D. Dinis Solomao Sengulane
Avenida do Rio Tembe No. 299
Maputo, Mozambique

Your Excellency:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Sheik Ibraimo
Avenida 25 de Setembro No. 1211
Maputo, Mozambique

Dear Sheik Ibraimo:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

The Most Reverend Ngonkulu
Ndungane
Archbishop
Diocese of Capetown
16 Bishops court Drive
Claremont 7700
South Africa

His Eminence Archbishop Ngonkulu:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

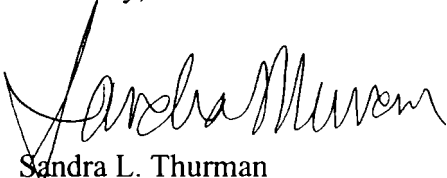

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 15, 2000

Polycarp Cardinal Pengo
P.O. Box 167
Dar es Salaam
Tanzania

Dear Mr. Pengo:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming. Jason Heffner of USAID will contact you directly to confirm your availability and whether or not you will require support for your travel or lodging expenses, or you may call him at 202-219-0483. If you have questions about the Summit, please contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at 202-456-2959 or Warren Buckingham of USAID at 202-219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, and
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Reverend Canon Ted Karpf
Episcopal Diocese of Washington
Episcopal Church House
Mount St. Alban
Washington, DC 20016

Dear Canon Karpf:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

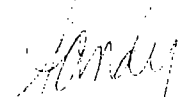

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Reverend Paul Beeman
President, PFLAG
National Board of Directors
4929 Cooper Point Road NW
Olympia, WA 98502

Dear Reverend Beeman:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

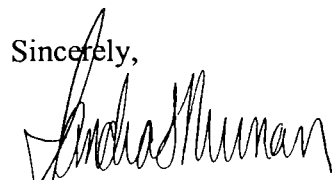

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Mrs. Coretta Scott King
Founder
The King Center
449 Auburn Avenue
Atlanta, GA 30312

Dear Mrs. King:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

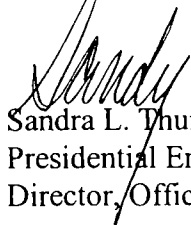

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Sister Ann Duggan
AIDS Coordinator
Catholic Relief Services
209 West Fayette Street
Baltimore, MD 21201

Dear Sister Ann:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Marian McClure
Director Worldwide Ministries Division
Presbyterian Church, USA
100 Witherspoon Street
Louisville, KY 40202

Dear Ms. McClure:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Reverend William Shaw
White Rock Baptist Church
5240 Chestnut St.
Philadelphia, PA 19139-3488

Dear Reverend Shaw:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Right Reverend John Ricard
Bishop of Pensacola and Chairman, Catholic Relief Services
11 North B Street
Pensacola, FL 32522

Your Excellency:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

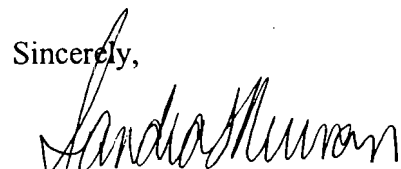

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Altagracia Perez, S.T.M.
Church of Saint Phillip the Evangelist
2800 Stanford Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90011

Dear Reverend Perez:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Mr. Iqbal Noor Ali
Chief Executive Officer
Aga Khan Foundation USA
1901 L Street NW Suite 700
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Mr. Ali:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

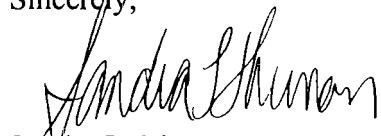

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Bishop Felton E. May
Superintendent
Washington Baltimore Conference
United Methodist Church
9720 Patuxent Woods Drive, Suite 100
Columbia, MD 21046

Dear Bishop May:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

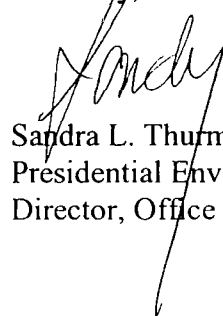

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Right Reverend H. George Allen
Presiding Bishop
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
8765 W. Higgins Road
Chicago, IL 60631

Dear Bishop Allen:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Reverend Richard Cizik
National Association for Evangelicals
Office for Governmental Affairs
1001 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite 522
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Reverend Cizik:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

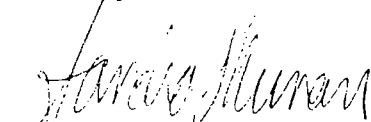

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Michael Nyenhuis
President and CEO
Medical Assistance Programs International
P.O. Box 215000
Brunswick, GA 31521-5000

Dear Mr. Nyenhuis:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

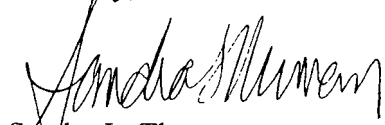

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Paul Derstine
President
Interchurch Medical Assistance
College Avenue Box 429
New Windsor, MD 21776

Dear Mr. Derstine:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

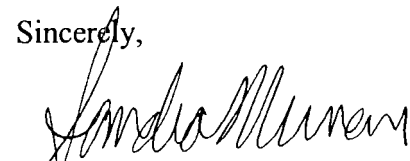

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Richard Stearns
President
World Vision United States
34834 Weyerhaeuser Way South
Federal Way, WA 98001

Dear Mr. Stearns:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Reverend Franklin Graham
Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board
Samaritan's Purse
801 Bamboo Road
Boone, NC 28607

Dear Reverend Graham:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Jesse Milan, Jr., Esq.
Vice President, ASI and Deputy Director
CDC National Prevention Information Center
Metroplaza One
8400 Colesville Road, Suite 200
Silver Spring, MD 20910

Dear Mr. Milan:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

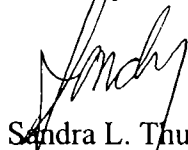

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Pernessa C. Seele
Chief Executive Officer
The Balm in Gilead, Inc
130 West 42nd Street, Suite 1300
New York, NY 10036

Dear Ms. Seele:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Reverend Robert Vitello
U.S. Catholic Conference
Catholic Campaign for Human Development
3211 4th Street, NE
Washington, D.C. 20017

Dear Reverend Vitello:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

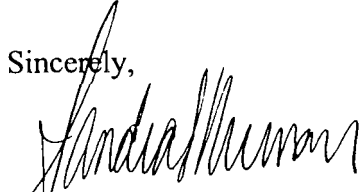

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON
November 16, 2000

Ralph Watts
President
Adventist Development and Relief Agency
12501 Old Columbia Pike
Silver Spring, MD 20904

Dear Mr. Watts:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

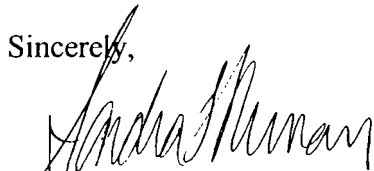

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

The Rev. Randolph Nugent
General Secretary
General Board of Global Ministries, United Methodist Church
475 Riverside Drive, Room 350
New York, NY 10115-0111

Dear Reverend Nugent:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 16, 2000

Rabbi Joseph Edelheit
Temple Israel
2324 Emerson Avenue, South
Minneapolis, MN 55405

Dear Rabbi Edelheit:

It is once again that time of year when we prepare to come together on December 1, World AIDS Day, as a global community united in the spirit of healing and the promise of triumph in our shared struggle against AIDS. This first World AIDS Day of the new millennium is particularly poignant, marking both a time for reflection on how far we have come together and for recommitting ourselves in hope and faith for the journey that still lies ahead.

This year, I would like to invite you to join us here at the White House on November 30th and December 1st for a special gathering that will highlight the role of communities of faith in our fight against AIDS. Your participation will greatly enrich our discussions as we explore ways to bridge the gap between policy, faith, and action.

This summit is being supported by the US Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), who intend to produce and widely disseminate materials that reflect the results of our work and broaden the call to people and communities of faith to respond energetically and compassionately to the AIDS crisis.

A draft agenda of this important gathering is forthcoming, and we will be in touch with you soon regarding your availability. Should you have any questions about the Summit, please feel free to contact Cheryl Bauerle in my office at (202) 456-2959, or Warren Buckingham of USAID at (202) 219-0468.

I do hope that your schedule will permit you to join with me on this very special occasion.

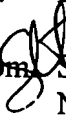

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation, &
Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

Date: January 11, 2000

To: Lisa Klein, Associate Counsel to the President

From:  Sandra L. Thurman, Presidential Envoy for AIDS Cooperation and Director, Office of National AIDS Policy

RE: Interrogatories in United States V. Philip Morris, ET AL., CV 99-2496 (GK)

The Office of National AIDS Policy is pleased to respond to the interrogatories included in the above referenced case.

Question 1:

The following individuals were asked to respond to this request as it related to their duties at the Office of National AIDS Policy:

1. Sandra L. Thurman, Director
2. Eric Goosby, Deputy Director
3. Cheryl Bauerle, Associate Director
4. Matthew Murguia, Associate Director for Policy
5. Mary May, Agency Representative
6. Daniel Montoya, Agency Representative
7. Todd Summers, former Deputy Director
8. May Kennedy, Ph.D., former Agency Representative
9. Paul Gaist, former Agency Representative

All Other Questions: This issue of tobacco use by youth does not fall under the purview of this office. Thus, the answer to all remaining questions is either no, not applicable or none.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 5, 2001

TO: DISTRIBUTION LIST

FROM: BETH NOLAN
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

RE: INTERROGATORIES IN UNITED STATES V. PHILIP MORRIS, ET AL.,
CV 99-2496 (GK)

In connection with the Administration's civil lawsuit against members of the tobacco industry, the Executive Office of the President has been asked to provide the Department of Justice with written answers to the attached set of defendants' interrogatories. We seek your assistance in preparing the EOP's response.

Accordingly, please review the attached interrogatories and determine whether any individuals within your office are aware of responsive information. Because certain questions may touch upon events earlier in this Administration, it may be necessary for your office to contact former employees to ascertain the most accurate information. A written response from each office should then be provided to the White House Counsel's Office. In reviewing the interrogatories, please note that you do not need to address questions 2, 4 and 29 - 35 as those will be answered by the Department of Justice without our input. We have written "skip" next to those questions. In addition, although all of the remaining questions need to be reviewed, we have been advised that questions 1, 3, 21, 22, 23 and 27 are the most likely to pertain to offices within the EOP. We have put an asterisk next to those questions, so that you may direct your attention to them first.

Because we need to provide the EOP's written response to the Justice Department on or before January 19, 2001, we ask that the written responses for each office be completed and forwarded to Associate Counsel to the President Lisa Klem in EEOB room 482 by January 12, 2001. Please do not hesitate to call Ms. Klem with questions. She may be reached at x 6-7804. We appreciate your assistance during this busy time.

Distribution List:

Nancy Hernreich, Assistant to the President and Director of Oval Office Operations
John Podesta, Chief of Staff to the President
Robert Rosen, Director of White House Office of Advance
Thurgood Marshall, Jr., Assistant to the President and Cabinet Secretary
Loretta Ucelli, Assistant to the President and Director of Communications
Roger Ballentine, Deputy Assistant to the President for Environmental Initiatives
Melanne Verveer, Assistant to the President and Chief of Staff to the First Lady
Mickey Ibarra, Assistant to the President and Director of Intergovernmental Affairs
Charles Brain, Assistant to the President and Director of Legislative Affairs
Mark Lindsay, Assistant to the President for Management and Administration
Ellen Lovell, Deputy Assistant to the President and Advisor to the First Lady for the Millenium Program
Minyon Moore, Assistant to the President and Director of Political Affairs
Bob Nash, Assistant to the President and Director of Presidential Personnel
Ben Johnson, Assistant to the President and Director of the President's Initiative for One America
Jake Siewert, Assistant to the President and Press Secretary
Christine Stanek, Special Assistant to the President and Chief of Staff, Public Liason
Stephanie Streett, Assistant to the President and Director of Presidential Scheduling
Kenneth H. MacKay, Jr., Assistant to the President and Special Envoy for the Americas
Staff Secretary
Lisel Loy, Assistant to the President and Staff Secretary
Delia Cohen, Special Assistant to the President and Director of Correspondence and Presidential Messages
Timothy Saunders, Executive Clerk
Terry Good, Director, Office of Records Management
Lisa Brown, Counsel to the Vice President
Audrey Choi, Chief of Staff, Council of Economic Advisers
Dinah Bear, General Counsel, Council on Environmental Quality
Mary DeRosa, Special Assistant to the President and Legal Advisor, National Security Council
Michael Bartosz, General Counsel, Office of Administration
David Shull, Deputy General Counsel, Office of National Drug Control Policy
Bruce Reed, Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy and Director of the Domestic Policy Council
Christina Ho, Associate Director for Domestic Policy, Domestic Policy Council
Holly Gwin, Chief of Staff and General Counsel, Office of Science and Technology Policy
Frank Fountain, Assistant Director and Counsel, President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board
Bruce Overton, Associate General Counsel, United States Trade Representative
Gary Walters, Chief Usher, Executive Residence Usher's Office
Sandra Thurman, Director, National AIDS Policy

Gene Sperling, Assistant to the President for Economic Policy and Director of the National Economic Council

Richard Samans, Special Assistant to the President for International Economic Policy

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)
	)
Plaintiff,	)	Civil Action No. 99-CV-2496 (GK)
	)
vs.	)
	)	Next Scheduled Court Appearance: None
PHILIP MORRIS, INCORPORATED,	)
et. al.	)
	)
Defendants.	)

JOINT DEFENDANTS' FIRST SET OF CONTINUING INTERROGATORIES TO PLAINTIFF

Pursuant to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Order #39 of the Court, Joint Defendants¹ submit the following interrogatories to be answered by Plaintiff separately and fully in writing under oath within sixty (60) days of the date of service. The original of the answers is to be served on defendants' attorneys at the offices of Kirkland & Ellis, 655 Fifteenth Street N.W., Suite 1200, Washington D.C. 20005.

I. INSTRUCTIONS

1. These interrogatories are continuing so as to require supplemental responses in accordance with Rule 26(e).
2. If you object to any part of an interrogatory, answer all parts of the interrogatory to which you do not object, and as to each part to which you do object, set forth the basis for the objection.

¹ Joint Defendants are Philip Morris Incorporated, R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation (individually and as successor by merger to The American Tobacco Company), Lorillard Tobacco Company, Philip Morris Companies Inc., The Council for Tobacco Research, The Tobacco Institute, and British American Tobacco (Investments), Ltd.

3. If any of your responses refer to the allegations of Plaintiff's Complaint, specify each and every paragraph of said Complaint you contend is responsive.

4. Unless otherwise indicated, the time frame applicable to these requests is January 1, 1950 to September 22, 1999.

5. If you do not answer a request for information because you claim the information requested is privileged, as to each such request, state the privilege claimed, set forth the basis for your claim of privilege, and the general subject matter of the information for which the privilege is claimed. For any claim of governmental privilege, state the privilege claimed, the relevant agency, and the person within that agency who has reviewed the information and authorized the assertion of the governmental privilege claimed.

6. For any interrogatory identifying a particular federal government agency, the reference to that agency encompasses all subagencies, authorities, committees, commissions, offices, bureaus, services, administrations, councils, task forces, foundations, libraries, institutes, organizations, academies, schools, colleges, universities and boards which are part of that agency and any predecessors for that agency for the time period specified.

7. These interrogatories should be read in the most inclusive manner possible. Accordingly, (a) the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular whenever necessary to bring within the scope of these interrogatories information that might otherwise be outside their scope; (b) "and" as well as "or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of these interrogatories, information and documents that might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope; (c) "each" shall be construed to include the word "every" and "every" shall be construed to include the word "each";

(d) "any" shall be construed to include the word "all" and "all" shall be construed to include the word "any"; and (e) "include" or "including" means including but not limited to and should not be read to limit the scope of any particular request, but merely as illustrative of some information that would be responsive.

II. DEFINITIONS

For purposes of these interrogatories, including the sections designated "definitions" and "instructions," the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

1. "Addictive," "addiction," "addicted," "addictiveness," "dependence," "habituating," "less hazardous cigarette," "manipulation" of nicotine and "manipulate nicotine" mean whatever the Plaintiff intended them to mean in the Complaint and in Plaintiff's response to Defendants' Interrogatory Number 4 contained herein.
2. "Communication" means the transmittal of information by any means of transmission, including face-to-face conversation, mail, overnight delivery, Internet, telephone, or facsimile.
3. "Complaint" refers to the "Complaint for Damages and Injunctive Relief and Declaratory Relief" and "Appendix to Complaint" filed by the United States against the Joint Defendants on September 22, 1999.
4. "Date" means the exact day, month, and year, if ascertainable, or if not, the best approximation thereof, including relationship to other events.
5. "Describe" seeks disclosure of each and every fact, circumstance, condition, and thing known to you about the subject of the interrogatory containing "describe" and full identification and description of the source(s) of such facts, circumstances, conditions, and things, including but not limited to, identification of each person having personal knowledge of such facts, circumstances, conditions, or things, and identification of each document containing information relating to such facts, circumstances, conditions or things.

6. "Document" includes, but is not limited to, any written, printed, typed, recorded, videotaped, filmed, punched, transcribed, taped or other graphic matter of any kind or nature held or produced or reproduced, whether sent or received, including the original, drafts, copies and non-identical copies bearing notations or marks not found on the original, and includes, but is not limited to, all correspondence, records, drawings, calculations, memoranda, reports, financial statements, telegrams, cables, contracts, tabulations, studies, analyses, evaluations, work appointments books, diaries, comparisons, questionnaires, surveys, charts, graphs, books, pamphlets, booklets, articles, magazines, newspapers, microfilm, microfiche, photographs, tapes or other recordings, punched cards, magnetic tapes, discs, printouts, computer generated reports and printouts, other data compilations from which information can be obtained, and includes all such documents that are in your possession, custody or control, or to which you otherwise have access.

7. "Employee" means any person formerly, currently or temporarily employed, retained, contracted or consulted with in any capacity, by the United States. Where the term "employee" is used in conjunction with a specific agency only, substitute that agency for the United States in the definition above.

8. "Health effects" or "health risks" of smoking or tobacco consumption means all diseases, illnesses, injuries and conditions, including "addiction," that the Plaintiff contends are causally linked to smoking.

9. "Government program" refers to a plan, system or project under which an action may be taken toward a goal, including any informal or formal policy with an objective, which was conducted, sponsored or funded, in whole or in part, by or on behalf of the United States.

10. "Government research or studies" means any study, research project, program, survey, review, evaluation or other information gathering means conducted, sponsored or funded, in whole or in part, by or on behalf of the United States.

11. "Identify" means:

(a) When used in reference to a communication means to identify, in the manner described below, each document by which it was communicated or, if an oral communication, to state: (i) the identity and title of the person who made the communication; (ii) the identity and title of each person to whom the communication was made; (iii) the identity and title of each person who was in the presence of any person either making or receiving the communication at the time it was made or received; (iv) the date the communication was made, the place where it was made, and the place where it was received; (v) the substance of what each person identified in connection with the communication said; and (vi) the identity of each document referring or relating to the communication.

(b) When used in reference to a document, state: (i) the name and title of the person(s) who prepared it; (ii) the name and title of the person(s) who signed it or over whose name it issued; (iii) the name of the title of each person to whom it was addressed or distributed; (iv) its nature and substance with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (v) its date; (vi) each of its identifying numbers, titles and designations; and (vii) its physical location and the identity of its custodian or custodians.

(c) When used in reference to conduct or course of action, including referring to a statement of each act, event, transaction, occasion, incident, or matter that is part of the course of action or conduct, state: (i) the date, time and place that it occurred; (ii) the identity of each person participating and the capacity, title or job description of such person; (iii) the subject matter; and (iv) identify any notes, minutes, memoranda or other documents evidencing or describing the course of conduct.

(d) When used in reference to an employee, individual or natural person, state: (i) the full name; (ii) present residence address and telephone number, or, if unknown, the last known residence address and telephone number, and the last known date the person resided there; (iii) present employer, business address, telephone number and job title, or, if unknown, the last known business address and telephone number, and the last known date the person was employed there; (iv) employer, address, telephone number and job title at the time of the event, transaction, or occurrence to which the interrogatory relates; and (v) a summary of his or her knowledge or involvement with respect to the subject matter of the interrogatory.

(e) When used in reference to government research or studies, state: (i) the subject matter of the research or full name or title of the study; (ii) the period of time during which the research was conducted or the date of the study; (iii) principal authors or researchers involved (including the entities that they were affiliated with at the time of the research or study); (iv) the agency or agencies that conducted, funded or sponsored, in whole or in part, the research or study, or the entity that conducted the research or study on the behalf of the United States; (v) a summary of the conclusions or outcome; (vi) if the research results or conclusions of the study were made available to the public and, if so, the date each was made available to the public, and

(vii) the total amount of expenditures by the United States on such research or study.

(f) When used in reference to a government program, state: (i) the name or title of the program (including any popular name); (ii) a description of its purpose, function, goals and/or objectives; (iii) the start and end dates of the program; (iv) the agency or agencies that conducted, funded or sponsored, in whole or in part, the program or the entity that conducted the program on the behalf of the United States; (v) the identity of the employees or natural persons directing, managing or overseeing the program; and (vi) identify any documents evaluating the program's performance.

12. The phrase "meaningfully involved" when used in relation to an employee or natural person means that such person produced, drafted, evaluated, reviewed, had substantive input on, was responsible for, substantively participated in, gathered information on, performed research on, consulted on the topic of, sought to develop or helped formulate policy on the subject matter of the interrogatory.

13. "MSA" or "The Master Settlement Agreement" refers to and includes the agreement between various tobacco companies and the States Attorneys General entitled "Master Settlement Agreement" signed on November 23, 1998, and all amendments thereto, and the settlement agreements between various tobacco companies and the States of Florida, Minnesota, Mississippi, and Texas.

14. "Person" or "individual" or "recipient" includes natural persons, sole proprietorships, corporations, firms, partnerships, unincorporated associations, trusts, government agencies, departments, authorities, commissions, offices, bureaus, services, administrations, councils, task forces, foundations, libraries, institutes, organizations, committees, academies, schools, colleges, universities and boards of the government of the United States of America, all corporations owned in whole or in part by the government of the United States of America, and any other legal entity.

15. "Plaintiff" refers to the United States as defined in definition number 20 below.

16. "Position" refers to any expression of a viewpoint, opinion, commentary or belief, expressed formally or informally, internally or externally, orally or in writing, by the United States or any employee of the United States with substantive knowledge and/or responsibility for the subject matter of the interrogatory.

17. "Public," "publicly available," or "available to the public" means information that has been made available to the public by publication, broadcast, placement in a library or other facility readily open to the public, placement on the Internet or a publicly accessible website, or otherwise readily available to the public. Communications, documents, information or materials available only through a Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request are not included in this definition.

18. "Relating to" any subject means anything that concerns, constitutes, contains, embodies, reflects, memorializes, identifies, states, evidences, refers to, deals with, discusses or is pertinent to that subject.

19. "Tobacco consumption" refers to the consumption of any tobacco product, including cigarette smoking, and "tobacco products" refers to any product containing tobacco, including cigarettes.

20. "United States" refers to the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Branches of the government of the United States of America, including all departments, agencies, authorities, commissions, offices, bureaus, services, administrations, councils, task forces, foundations, libraries, institutes, organizations, committees, academies, schools, colleges, universities and boards of the government of the United States of America and all corporations owned in whole or in part by the government of the United States of America.

21. The terms "youth" and "minors" refer to a minor child less than 18 years old.

III. INTERROGATORIES

* 1. Identify each person who supplied information used in answering these interrogatories and responding to "Joint Defendants' Preliminary Requests To The United States" dated August 15, 2000 and attached as Exhibit A to Order #14, Seventh Case Management Order ("Defendants' Preliminary Document Requests") or "Joint Defendants' Comprehensive Document Requests To Plaintiff The United States Of America Pursuant To Paragraph 4A of Order #14, Seventh Case Management Order" dated August 22, 2000 ("Defendants' Comprehensive Document Requests"). As to each such person, state the information that person supplied.

SKIP 2. For each allegedly unlawful act or course of conduct referenced in the Complaint, identify all facts relating to the allegedly unlawful act or course of conduct (including any facts which tend to disprove such allegations), identify each person with knowledge of such facts, and identify each document and communication that demonstrates the existence of such facts.

* 3. Identify each person with responsibilities related to Plaintiff's compliance with document retention and preservation requirements of any kind, including, but not limited to, ↓ requirements imposed by statute, regulation or other directive, and, as to each such person, state all facts regarding that person's responsibilities.

SKIP

4. Define the following terms as used in the Complaint: "addictive," "addiction," "addicted," "addictiveness," "dependence," "habituating," "less hazardous cigarette," "manipulation" of nicotine, and "manipulate nicotine."
5. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in the development, implementation, evaluation or communication of the United States' position relating to the development and/or promotion of "less hazardous cigarettes" (as defined in Plaintiff's response to Defendant's Interrogatory Number 4).
6. Identify all government research or studies and government programs relating to "less hazardous cigarettes" (as defined in Plaintiff's response to Defendant's Interrogatory Number 4).
7. Identify all communications and all government research or studies relating to Liggett's "XA" and/or "Palladium" cigarette, R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's Premier and Eclipse cigarettes, and Philip Morris' Next and Accord cigarettes.
8. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in any evaluation of Liggett's "XA" and/or "Palladium" cigarette, R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's Premier and Eclipse cigarettes, and Philip Morris' Next and Accord cigarettes.
9. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in the formation, function and/or termination of the National Cancer Institute's ("NCI") Lung Cancer Task Force, Smoking and Health Program, Tobacco Working Group, and Less Hazardous Cigarette Program.

10. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in the formation, implementation and/or execution of the government's policy of Smoke-Free 2000.

11. With respect to the allegations in the Complaint relating to a "less hazardous cigarette," describe every "less hazardous cigarette" that the Plaintiff alleges the defendants could have designed and manufactured, specifying in the response why each such cigarette design would have been "less hazardous," the date such design first became both technologically and commercially feasible and what health or safety claims you believe defendants could have or should have made for such products that would be consistent with federal law.

12. For the years 1950 to the present, describe the Plaintiff's position with respect to any health effects of low "tar" cigarettes, including any changes in that position over time, identify all government research or studies relating to such position, and identify employees meaningfully involved with such position or change in position.

13. Identify all government research or studies relating to any differences between the "tar" and nicotine yield generated by the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") method and the amounts of "tar" and nicotine inhaled by human smokers, including government research or studies relating to "compensatory smoking" (as that term is used in the Complaint) and any blocking of ventilation holes by human smokers.

14. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in any evaluation (including any proposed modification) of the FTC method of measuring "tar" and nicotine levels in cigarettes.

15. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in the development of the government's position relating to the alleged addictive properties or effects of tobacco products and/or nicotine, including the Surgeon General's change in position between 1964 and 1988 regarding the addictiveness of cigarettes and/or nicotine.

16. Identify any public announcement, press release, or other public statements made by employees of the United States encouraging or recommending smokers to switch to or to consider smoking low "tar"/nicotine or filtered cigarettes or discussing the relative safety of low "tar"/nicotine or filtered cigarettes.

17. Identify all government research or studies relating to the "manipulation" (as defined in Plaintiff's response to Defendant's Interrogatory Number 4), alteration, modification, reduction, increase, or enhancement of nicotine levels in tobacco or tobacco products, including natural tobacco plant or natural tobacco alternatives (e.g. Y-1 tobacco, Nicotiana Rustica, and Macon Expanded tobacco), tobacco plant or tobacco alterations or modifications (e.g. breeding, protoplast fusion, genetic manipulation to alter nicotine structure, and genetic engineering), processing or blending alternatives or modifications (e.g. burley blend levels, casing sugar levels, acid reduction, pH modification, ammonia use, fortifying reconstituted tobacco and absorption/delivery methods), or nicotine alternatives or modifications (e.g. nicotine analogs).

18. Identify any research or other material facts relating to the alleged addictive properties or effects of tobacco products or nicotine that the Plaintiff claims the Defendants allegedly suppressed or concealed, state the date on which the Plaintiff became aware of such alleged suppression or concealment, state what different action the Plaintiff would have taken had it been aware of the information allegedly suppressed or concealed, and state the date on which such action would have been taken.

19. Describe each manner or technique which you allege one or more defendant(s) utilized to "manipulate" nicotine (as defined in Plaintiff's response to Defendant's Interrogatory Number 4). For each manner or technique, state the brand name of cigarette that allegedly was subject to such "manipulation" and the dates during which such alleged "manipulation" occurred.

20. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in any research on the actual or potential effects on tobacco consumption of cigarette advertising, marketing or promotion, including the 1987 Report of the Council of Economic Advisors and the sources of information used in the preparation of that Report.

* 21. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in policies and programs relating to smoking by minors, including the reasons why minors start smoking and any effects of cigarette advertising, marketing or promotion on the initiation of smoking by minors, that were not made available to the public.

* 22. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in the development, implementation, oversight or evaluation of youth anti-smoking efforts and any programs relating thereto, including any programs sponsored by Defendants.

* 23. Identify all employees meaningfully involved in oversight, monitoring or evaluation of Defendants' tobacco advertising, marketing or promotional activities and/or practices, including any alleged instances of advertising, marketing or promoting cigarettes to minors.

24. Identify each case, lawsuit or other judicial, administrative or legislative proceeding in which the United States or any witness(es) called by or endorsed by the United States expressed a position on whether smoking caused or will cause injury or death to any person or number of persons or whether any person or number of persons are "addicted," "habituated" or "dependent" (as those terms defined in response to interrogatory number 4) to/on smoking. For each such case, lawsuit or other judicial, administrative or legislative proceeding, identify the docket number and venue or other information sufficient to locate the trial or proceeding record, the nature of the proceeding, the outcome or disposition of the proceeding, the name and other identifying information as to the person who expressed a position, and the substance of the position, evidence or opinion.

25. Describe the Plaintiff's knowledge of the pathogenesis of any disease which the Plaintiff claims is caused by cigarette smoking, including each step or stage in the progression from exposure to cigarette smoke to the development of the disease, any genetic factors that are known to be involved in the disease process, and any stage or step in the process which is unknown or uncertain, including changes in Plaintiff's knowledge from 1950 to the present.

26. Identify all government research or studies involving the exposure of animals to cigarette smoke in any form and which were terminated prior to completion or were completed but not made available to the public.

* 27. Identify all employees at the Executive Office of the President ("EOP"), FTC, Health & Human Services ("HHS"), the Department of Justice ("DOJ") or any other component of the United States meaningfully involved in any evaluation, review or construction of any actual or potential legislative or litigation resolution of claims relating to activities or alleged liabilities of any defendant for health care expenditures allegedly associated with smoking, including the MSA and the 1997 proposed resolution of the Attorneys General lawsuits involving the States Attorneys General, the tobacco companies and the United States Government.

28. Identify each communication between or among any employees of the United States, or any other person, relating to the circumstances under which Joseph A. Califano resigned from his position as Secretary of HHS, and Dr. Gio Gori was terminated as Director of the "Less Hazardous Cigarette Program," and identify those employees of the United States most knowledgeable about the circumstances surrounding each event.

SKIP

29. The Complaint lists the following seven subtopics: (1) "False Statements About Smoking and Disease," (2) "The Myth of Independent Research," (3) "Misrepresentations about Nicotine's Addictiveness and Manipulation of Nicotine Delivery," (4) "Deceptive Marketing to Exploit Smokers' Desire for Less Hazardous Products," (5) "Targeting the Youth Market," (6) "Defendants' Concerted Plan Not To Make Cigarettes Less Hazardous" and (7) "The Present and Continuing Threat." For each predicate act alleged in the Complaint, state to which subtopic or sub-topics listed above, if any, that predicate act relates.

SKIP

30. Identify each document, communication or statement, and describe in detail each fact, upon which you rely in support of the allegation in the Complaint that defendants' activities pose a "present and continuing threat" of alleged violations of RICO, including the allegations in ¶ 118 of the Complaint that the Defendants continue to suppress and conceal information in their possession concerning addiction and the addictiveness of nicotine, and the allegation in ¶ 122 of the Complaint that "[d]espite the injunctive relief obtained by the states, [D]efendants continue to market their products in many of the same ways they had before the settlement, and continue to keep secret research and other documents that would provide the public and regulators with a fuller understanding of the health effects of cigarettes, particularly the addictiveness of nicotine.

In particular, the results of Defendants' research overseas for the last few decades have not been made public."

SKIP

31. Describe in detail the alleged scheme(s) and artifice(s) to defraud and obtain money or property alleged in Counts III and IV of the Complaint, including the specific money or property that was the object of each alleged predicate act of mail or wire fraud, the purpose of such scheme or artifice, how and when it was formed, all persons whom Plaintiff alleges to have devised or intended to devise the scheme, and the specific manner in which any alleged predicate act furthered the alleged schemes to defraud and/or to obtain money or property.

SKIP

32. For each predicate act of racketeering alleged in the Complaint, identify the fact misrepresented or concealed in connection with that predicate act, and describe how and why a reasonable person would attach importance to the misrepresented or concealed fact in determining a choice of action that is the subject of the alleged scheme or artifice to defraud.

SKIP

33. With respect to Plaintiff's claim for disgorgement, describe how Plaintiff or any other person relied on the allegedly wrongful conduct and describe how that reliance caused the Plaintiff, or any person, to transfer money or property to any defendant in such a way as to become "ill-gotten gains" or "proceeds derived from" a violation of RICO.

SKIP

34. With respect to Plaintiff's claim for disgorgement, describe in detail "all proceeds derived from any violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1962" as alleged in the Complaint including, but not limited to, identification of what constitutes "proceeds" for each defendant on an annual basis, the years for which disgorgement of proceeds will be sought and the basis for such determination, the portion of these proceeds for which Plaintiff intends to seek disgorgement, the specific activities disgorgement will prevent and how disgorgement will prevent those activities, and the basis, procedure, method or model by which Plaintiff intends to prove the amount of proceeds subject to disgorgement.

SKP

35. As to any alleged act of racketeering not set forth in the Appendix to the Complaint, identify and describe any racketeering act that you allege to be part of the pattern of racketeering activity alleged in the Complaint.