Dear Ms. Thurman:

On behalf of the 42nd Senior Seminar, I want to thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to meet with us November 8th at the White House. Your presentation underscored the scope and seriousness of the problems we face - as a nation and a member of the international community - as a result of the HIV/AIDS epidemic. Your determination and commitment in leading U.S. efforts to meet the many challenges inherent in this crisis impressed us all. You have our admiration and our best wishes in your important task.

With warm regards, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Sandy:

Thank you so much for agreeing to meet with my leadership class and speak to us on the very important issue of HIV/AIDS. I wanted my classmates to get a better understanding of this important health issue and its devastating affects on every single aspect of society. There is no one, in my view, better able to convey the seriousness on this issue than you. Your passion and commitment are the things that I admire the most. They translates to the people you are talking to and convey, along with the devastating statistics, just how critical it is for the world community to combat this disease.

Attached is the course mission statement for the Senior Seminar and participant roster. The 30 participants in the program have been selected as the next wave of senior executives by their government agencies for the 21st Century. Dean and Associate Dean, Ambassador Brazeal and Mr. Wells also will accompany the group. The key goals of the course are to ensure that we, as future leaders, better understand the values that shape our country and expand our knowledge of key policy issues, such as HIV/AIDS.

Ben Johnson is organizing a briefing for the group on several issues on November 8 from 10:30 - 12:30pm in the Roosevelt Room. Mickey Ibarra has agreed to participate, and we would like to know if you are available during that timeframe to also brief the group. Ben would begin followed by Mickey, and you, if you are available. I truly appreciate your time and consideration to do this.

Sincerely,

CURRICULUM CONCEPT

MISSION OF THE SENIOR SEMINAR

The mission of the Seminar is to ensure that its participants:

- Enhance their leadership and executive skills in preparation for top-level assignments abroad and in the United States;
- Know and reflect the values and ideas which shape our country, broadening their comprehension of current domestic issues and the institutions that protect and influence the nation's agenda;
- Understand how domestic priorities and values influence the shaping of a viable foreign policy and national security policy;
- Develop an appreciation of the role of the different foreign affairs agencies, the Congress and state and local entities, seeking to improve overall cooperation and coordination.
