5th National Conference
Engaging Communities: A New Agenda for the Nation's Health
April 3rd - 11:15 AM
Washington Ballroom, Westin Hotel

11:00 AM Car pick-up, 736 JP en route 2350 M Street, NW (Westin Hotel)

NAWHO staff will most likely greet you in lobby. If not....

Enter lobby. Use elevators to the right. Go down to the meeting level (should be one floor down). Head straight down the hall - the Washington Ballroom will be on your left.

Conference Purpose

- ◆ Build the scientific and public policy knowledge of Asian American advocates towards becoming more persuasive and effective leaders for their communities;
- ◆ How do reproductive health issues in Asian countries affect Asian Americans, particularly over the generations?
- ◆ How can grassroots health advocates become more active?
- ◆ Intersections between US foreign policy and reproductive health;
- ◆ Presentations will focus on -- key health concerns impacting Asian Americans, effective public policy advocacy strategies, and media and communication skills;

Audience

Approximately 100 participants.

Grass-roots advocates for health. Most will be familiar with HIV/AIDS issues, but only on the very most local-community level. The international focus will be new to them. Providers, physicians, public health and medical students, etc.

Plenary Session

"Global Advocacy: Foreign Policy & Reproductive Health"

Moderator: Mary Chung, President & CEO, NAWHO

Sandy Thurman

10 - 15 minutes

- ◆ Thanks for focusing on this vitally important issue;
- ◆ Global overview - devastating international impact;
- ◆ Particularly tragic in Asian countries: India/South-East Asia
As goes Africa...the next hot spot;
- ◆ Reproductive health issues associated: women & children increasingly impacted (stats), women's human rights and aggravating issues (poverty, stigma, etc.), mother-to-child transmission, sex trafficking;
- ◆ Current Administration policies, initiatives
Upcoming focus on India: trip, report, enhanced budget, Cong commitment/focus;
- ◆ We need your help, your commitment - building partnerships, rally for the long haul.

Corey Richards

Vice President of Public Policy, Alan Guttmacher Institute

- ◆ 15 minutes
- ◆ International family planning

[NOTE: The AG Institute advocates for the reproductive choices of women and men domestically/internationally. They seek to inform individual decision-making, encourage the science and public debate, promote the formation of public and private-sector programs/policies. Develops and disseminates information in the US and internationally.]

Question & Answer A 20-ish minute question and answer session will follow after you and Mr. Richards have both presented.

Dear Ms. Thurman:

Thank you for agreeing to speak in the plenary session, "Global Advocacy: Foreign Policy and Reproductive Health," on Monday, April 3, 2000 from 11:15am to 12:30pm in the Washington Ballroom of the Westin Hotel. The Westin Hotel is located at:

2350 M Street, NW
Washington, DC 20037
PHONE: (202) 429-0100 • FAX: (202) 429-9759

Your participation is an important part of NAWHO's fifth national conference, Engaging Communities: A New Agenda for the Nation's Health, which is taking place over four days – April 2nd to the 5th – in Washington, DC. NAWHO's conference builds the scientific and public policy knowledge of Asian American advocates towards becoming more persuasive and effective leaders for their communities. We are pleased to have a number of inspiring and knowledgeable speakers such as yourself, who will present on a variety of topics including key health concerns impacting Asian Americans, effective public policy advocacy strategies, and media and communication skills. As discussed, we would like you to provide a 15 to 20-minute presentation about current issues and initiatives regarding U.S. foreign policy on AIDS, particularly in Asian countries.

Please fax back the enclosed form to NAWHO at 202.331.4791, to indicate any background materials that you would like to offer our participants. Also, please send a maximum one-page bio to be included in NAWHO's conference binder.

Again, thank you for agreeing to join us in this important event. If you have any questions or concerns, please call Afton Hirohama, Director of Communications and Development, at 202.331.4790. I look forward to seeing you in April.

Sincerely,

Mary Chung
