Back Cover

The proceeds of the Fall Dinner will benefit the Empire State Pride Agenda, New York's statewide, non-partisan lesbian and gay political advocacy organization. The Pride Agenda's mission is to end discrimination and prejudice on the basis of sexual orientation. To accomplish its mission, the organization lobbies state and local officials, works to elect supportive candidates to public office, organizes the community, and educates the public. The Pride Agenda has offices in New York City, Albany, Buffalo, and Rochester. Additional field organizers are stationed in Ithaca, Long Island, and Westchester County.

The proceeds of the Dinner Auction will benefit the Empire State Pride Agenda Foundation, the non-partisan education and advocacy arm of the Empire State Pride Agenda. The Foundation trains new community leaders, educates policymakers, researches challenges facing the community, and analyzes the impact of proposed public policy and legislation. In addition, the Foundation coordinates the activities of the statewide Lesbian and Gay Health and Human Services Network.
