ADDRESS: The Lansburgh Building at 420 Seventh St., NW, Apt. 1002
(home of Nancy Kirshner-Rodriguez), Ph.# 202/783-0122 (H)

Nancy's home is in the Lansburgh Building located on Seventh Street, NW, off Massachusetts or Pennsylvania Avenues depending on which direction you are coming from. The closest cross street is "F", and nearby landmarks include the MCI Center and the restaurant Jaleo. (Please see attached maps which provide both general directions as well as specific directions from the reception location, the Women's National Democratic Club at 1526 New Hampshire Ave., NW, to Nancy's home. Parking is available on either the street, or in one of the nearby parking garages.)

(Metro): Take the Red Line to the Gallery Place/Chinatown stop. Exit at "F and 7th Streets", cross "F" Street and walk a few steps down Seventh Street until you see The Lansburgh Bldg. (#420) on the right-hand side of the street.

Program Schedule: The dinner party will begin at 7:30pm immediately following the reception. Shortly after 8:00pm, guests and speakers will have been served dinner and drinks, and we will be ready to begin the speaker introductions, speaker presentations and Q & A that will follow. (Please note that we are mindful and appreciative of your time, and will do our best to move the evening along in a timely fashion.)

Dear Ms. Thurman,

Thank you so much for agreeing to speak at the Women in the Administration dinner party for the Women's Information Network's (WIN) Tenth Annual Women Opening Doors for Women event on Thursday evening, June 3, 1999. Because of your energy, enthusiasm and support, the event is sure to be a tremendous success.

The evening will begin with a reception at the Women's National Democratic Club beginning at 5:30pm. Hazel O'Leary, former Secretary of Energy, will give the keynote address. Dinner parties will immediately follow the reception, beginning at 7:30pm and running until approximately 9:30pm. Our dinner party will be hosted by your colleagues Nancy Kirshner-Rodriguez and Robin Leeds. We will meet in Nancy's home which is located downtown near the MCI Center at 420 Seventh Street, NW in the Lansburgh Bldg. (Details, directions and contact phone numbers will be faxed to you in the coming days.)

The dinner parties are designed to bring together women of varied experiences interested in a particular career field, allow for discussions of your field, what it is like to be a woman in the field, as well as the steps you have taken to achieve your success. Your colleagues joining you on the panel include Maria Echaveste, Melissa Skolfield, Audrey Tayse Haynes, Ann Walker Marchant, and Janet Murguia. I would ask that you be prepared to speak for five minutes or so on aspects of your field you find most challenging and interesting, and/or the path your career has taken to arrive at where you are today. After each of the featured speakers has had her turn, we will open up the discussion to a Q & A format.

I would like to request that you send me a bio for inclusion in the dinner party packets, and so that I may prepare for introductions the evening of the dinner party. You may send this either by e-mail, mariam@twbg.com, or fax, 202/667-0902. Also, you or Cheryl can call me with any questions at either my workplace, 202/884-7330, or my home, 202/232-5070.

Again, I am so delighted that you have agreed to join us. Thank you in advance for your participation, and I look forward to meeting you on June 3rd.

Dear Ms. Thurman,

The Women's Information Network (WIN) will host our Tenth Annual Women Opening Doors for Women event on Thursday evening, June 3, 1999. Because you were highly recommended, we would be most honored if you would join us to speak on a panel with several of your colleagues at the Women in the Administration dinner party.

As Washington's premiere Democratic organization for pro-choice women, WIN is dedicated to providing networking opportunities to young professional women in the area. Named by Washingtonian magazine as "one of the best networking events," Women Opening Doors for Women brings together Washington's most prominent women to mentor WIN members at 22 career-oriented parties.

The evening will begin with a reception at the Women's National Democratic Club beginning at 5:30pm, and will be followed by simultaneous dinner parties to be held in the homes of Washington women. The Women in the Administration dinner party will be hosted by your colleagues Nancy Kirshner-Rodriguez and Robin Leeds. Most women attending the event are on the threshold of their careers. Though their reasons for attending are varied, many come with similar questions. They are interested in the challenges women face in the workplace, and are curious to learn how to balance the demands of a career and a family. Most importantly, they want to discover how role models like you have achieved success.

I appreciate that the demands on your time are great, but I also know how much your participation will mean to our both our membership and event attendees. I plan to follow up with you by telephone the week of April 20th to gauge your interest. Please call me with any questions at either my workplace, 202/884-7330, or my home, 202/232-5070.

Again, I hope that you will be able to join us on June 3rd. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Maria Montenegro

About WIN

The Women's Information Network (WIN) is Washington's premier professional, political and social network dedicated to empowering women, with a tradition of pro-choice, Democratic support. Founded on the idea that women can help women climb the ladder of success, WIN has grown to a membership of nearly 1,000 young, professional women.

WIN provides members with a comprehensive job bank, monthly newsletter and numerous educational events and networking opportunities each month. WIN members are today's Women of Achievement and tomorrow's leaders.

WIN is incorporated as a political non-profit, or 501(c)4 organization.

Why You Should Join

Your membership in WIN tells the world that you are a pro-choice, Democratic individual who supports the empowerment of all women. WIN members can choose from a schedule of networking events and leadership meetings which take place almost every night of the week! Members receive all of the following:

The WIN Job Bank

Many employers list with WIN before advertising elsewhere. All the major D.C. job-hunting publications are available to members at the Job Bank.

The WINning Slate

WIN's monthly newsletter keeps members up-to-date on WIN events and news. The Slate also includes news from Democratic and women's organizations in the area.

Networking Opportunities

More than 20 career-specific networks within WIN host monthly events. WIN members use the networks to meet and discuss issues related to specific career fields or interest areas.

Leadership Opportunities

Get started right away: chair a committee or network, manage an event, or share your expertise with WIN members!

Major Events

Women Opening Doors for Women—Every summer WIN hosts Women Opening Doors for Women, our premier annual event. The evening begins with a festive reception on Capitol Hill, followed by over 20 informal dinner parties. WODW offers young women the opportunity to meet and learn from Women of Achievement in a variety of fields. The intimate gatherings provide an ideal forum for sharing ideas about careers, politics and the strides women are making in their professional and personal lives.

Washingtonian Magazine calls WODW "one of Washington's best networking events." It's a can't-miss opportunity!

Young Women of Achievement Awards—This one-of-a-kind event, held in the winter, honors women under 35 with outstanding career and community accomplishments. Washington's most distinguished women leaders present the awards.

Sarah -

It was so nice to speak with you yesterday. I can't tell you how much I appreciate your assistance and enthusiasm!

As I was telling you, several people have told me that your boss is an excellent candidate for the "Women Opening Doors for Women" event. I have included all of the information that I have thus far in the attached letter, and of course am happy to field Mr. Thurman's questions at 202/884-7330.

On behalf of WIN, we would be delighted if Mr. Thurman could join us the evening of June 3rd. I will call you this afternoon to confirm receipt of this fax.

Thanks again Sarah!
