THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 23, 1998

Margaret Campbell
Member
Board of Directors
AIDS Policy Center for Children,
Youth and Families

Dear Ms. Campbell:

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to participate in a White House discussion on women and HIV/AIDS. The meeting will be held on Thursday, June 25th, 1998 from 11 AM - 3 PM (EST), with arrival at 10:30 AM. (Lunch included).

Because of your proven leadership on many important issues, we believe you can galvanize others by raising awareness about the dramatic increases in HIV/AIDS among women. Invitees include a diverse group of leaders representing the HIV/AIDS community, prominent women's advocates, and national public health officials. Ms. Veronica Biggins, former director of White House Personnel, will facilitate the discussion.

We hope you are able to join us. Should you have any questions, please feel free to call Sarah Holewinski at (202) 395-1441.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Sandra L. Thurman", written over a horizontal line.

SANDRA L. THURMAN

Director
Office of National AIDS Policy

Sandra L. Thurman was appointed by the President on April 7, 1997 as the Director of the Office of National AIDS Policy at the White House.

For more than a decade, Ms. Thurman has been a leader and advocate for people with AIDS at the local, state, and federal levels.

Most recently, Ms. Thurman served as the Director of Citizen Exchanges at the United States Information Agency. From 1993 to 1996 Ms. Thurman was the Director of Advocacy Programs at The Task Force for Child Survival and Development at the Carter Center in Atlanta, Georgia. As Director, she focused on the global health concerns of children, including immunization and the eradication of polio.

From 1988 to 1993, Ms. Thurman, of Atlanta, Georgia, served as the Executive Director of AID Atlanta, a community-based nonprofit organization that provides health and support services to people living with HIV/AIDS and offers an array of HIV prevention programs. Under her leadership, AID Atlanta, the largest and oldest AIDS service organization in the south, tripled in size, and became a multimillion dollar, direct-service agency with 90 staff members and more than 1,000 volunteers.

Ms. Thurman was a Member of the Presidential Advisory Council on HIV/AIDS and of the Georgia State AIDS Task Force, the Fulton County HIV Planning Council, and the Executive Committee of Cities Advocating Emergency AIDS Relief (CAEAR). She has also served on the Board of Directors of the National Episcopal AIDS Coalition, AID Atlanta, Sisterlove, Inc., and the Atlanta AIDS Interfaith Network, among others. She is a recognized expert on AIDS issues and has provided testimony before the United States Senate, the White House Conference on HIV/AIDS, and the National Commission on AIDS.

Ms. Thurman earned a Bachelor's degree from Mercer University.

Dear Ms. Smith-Orr:

On behalf of ^{the} Vice-President and Mrs. Gore, I want to thank you for being part of the White House's commemoration of World AIDS Day 1997. I know that the Vice-President and Mrs. Gore were pleased to be able to participate in this important event.

It is essential that we continue to sound the alarm about HIV and America's young people. The World AIDS Day event was able to focus our efforts on this important part of our future.

I have enclosed a photograph from the meeting. You should be proud to have participated in such an important event.

Sincerely yours,

Sandra L. Thurman

DISCUSSION ON WOMEN AND HIV/AIDS

DATE: June 25, 1998
TIME: 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.
LOCATION: Indian Treaty Room
Old Executive Office Building

I PURPOSE

AIDS is increasingly a disease of women, particularly women of color. Each and every day, here in the United States, and across the globe, thousands of women are infected with HIV. This meeting will provide an opportunity for women leaders in private industry, philanthropy, advocacy, and government to begin a dialogue about how we integrate HIV/AIDS into the broader women's agenda.

DISCUSSION ON WOMEN AND HIV/AIDS

DATE: June 25, 1998
TIME: 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.
LOCATION: Indian Treaty Room
Old Executive Office Building

I. PURPOSE

AIDS is increasingly a disease of women, particularly women of color. Each and every day, here in the United States, and across the globe, thousands of women are infected with HIV. This meeting will provide an opportunity for women leaders in private industry, philanthropy, advocacy, and government to begin a dialogue about how we integrate HIV/AIDS into the broader women's agenda.

Hi Sarah-Phyllis Greenberger asked me to respond to your fax from March 19 requesting some names of people in the AIDS community focusing on women and AIDS.

Several people who attended the HHS/OWH women and AIDS meeting last week should also be included in your meeting. Call if you have any questions. Thank you.

Dear

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to participate in a White House discussion on women and HIV/AIDS. The meeting will be held on Thursday, June 25, 1998 from 11 AM- 3 PM (EST), with arrival at 10:30 AM. (Lunch Included).

Because of your proven leadership on many important issues, we believe you can galvanize others by raising awareness about the dramatic increases in HIV/AIDS among women. Invitees include a diverse group of leaders representing the HIV/AIDS community, prominent women's advocates, and national public health officials. Ms. Veronica Biggins, former director of White House Personnel, will facilitate the discussion.

We hope you are able to join us. Please complete the enclosed questionnaire and return to us as soon as possible (fax: 456-). Should you have any questions, please feel free to call us (202) 456- .

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Thurman
Director
Office of National AIDS Policy
