MEMORANDUM FOR THE OFFICE OF THE FIRST LADY

Date: May 23, 2000

Re: Request for short birthday recognition

This memo is to request a signed letter from the First Lady for the birthday of a very dear friend, Mr. Sean Kane [redacted] (b)(6) [001]

Though still a law student at George Washington University here in Washington, Mr. Kane has continued to greatly support this Administration and this office through student activities and national awareness campaigns. We are requesting a letter from Mrs. Clinton, in particular, because Mr. Kane has always considered the First Lady a role model for himself and the nation's youth. He continues to greatly admire her ability to work as an advocate for a variety of important social issues, while also running a highly successful Senate campaign.

We know that he would be absolutely delighted to receive a short birthday greeting. We also understand that this is late notice, and certainly do apologize for any inconvenience. Listed below is Mr. Kane's personal information. Though, if this letter is possible, we would love to come pick it up so that we might personally deliver it to him:

Sean Kane
1021 Arlington Blvd #325
Arlington, VA 22209

Please call Sarah Holewinski of my staff for any additional information you may require at (202) 395-1441. Thank you so much for your kind assistance in this request.
