Ms. Sandra L. Thurman
Director
Office of National AIDS Policy
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Thurman:

Thank you for sharing your time with me in our brief meeting following your address at the US Conference on AIDS in Denver. I feel fortunate to have had the opportunity to introduce myself and the new initiative in the fight against AIDS that ITC has recently undertaken: using CDC funds to develop a faith-based curriculum and training program for HIV and substance abuse prevention. Our president, Dr. Robert M. Franklin, sends his regards.

You invited me to visit with you the next time I am in Washington, which will be Friday, December 3, 1999, between 12noon and 5:00pm. I am interested in learning more about White House policy initiatives on AIDS and ways in which our efforts might be mutually supportive, particularly with regards to African American populations.

I am available to meet at your convenience. Please respond by phone, FAX or e-mail as to the most appropriate time. I look forward to sharing with you new faith-based strategies in the fight against HIV and AIDS.

Sincerely,

Monifa A. Jumanne, Ph.D.
Dean, Student and Community Life
