JAY ROCKEFELLER (D-West Virginia) (Finance Medicare Subcommittee Chairman)

Senator Rockefeller views himself as being (and is) Bill Clinton's number one health care advocate. He was a tireless campaigner and defender of the Clinton health care plan and was a National Co-Chair of the Clinton campaign. Rockefeller is the current Chairman of the Finance Subcommittee on Medicare and Long Term Care. He also has chaired the Pepper Commission and the National Commission on Children.

In addition, Senator Rockefeller is the founder and Chairman of the Alliance for Health Reform, a nonpartisan organization dedicated to advance health care reform through education of public opinion leaders. Lastly, as you well know, his is now serving as the new Chairman of the Senate Veterans Committee.

Senator Rockefeller's health care priority is very simple: He desperately wants to see a comprehensive reform package enacted during the Clinton Presidency. Although he thinks the long-term outcome of such an achievement is politically attractive, he is primarily pushing this reform because he is sincerely committed to the need for reform. In this vein, he is not overly committed to any one particular approach although he has advocated an employer-based approach. He, therefore, can be counted on to support virtually anything the President ends up proposing, as long as it achieves universal access and cost containment.

Senator Rockefeller was very pleased with the Veterans' meeting last Thursday. He was concerned about the the AP story the day after, but from the beginning did not believe it was true.

As you know, he has requested a meeting with you to discuss substance and strategy. He very much wants this to occur this week. He feels he needs a substantive background briefing to be at his best in his role as cheerleader in the Congress and with the press. At that meeting, it is my understanding through Steve Ricchetti and his staff that he may extend an invitation to you and the President to go out to his house for dinner. If you wish to come, he will suggest you using his house and the event for whatever purpose you want: to have a quiet dinner out or to use it for a backdrop for a social occasion for appropriate guests interested in health reform.
