Dear Patti:

It was truly an honor and a privilege meeting with Ann Stock last Wednesday. I appreciate very much her kind hospitality. At Ann's request, I am writing to extend an invitation for Mrs. Clinton to address nearly 1,200 children's hospital administrators and staff, TV news people from throughout North America, many of the nation's corporate leaders, and stars of the stage, screen, and music industries as the keynote speaker of the 1994 Children's Miracle Network Annual Convention.

Children's Miracle Network (CMN) is a non-profit organization dedicated to generating funds and awareness programs for hospitals serving children. More than 160 hospitals and 185 stations are affiliated with CMN throughout North America.

While in Little Rock, Mrs. Clinton was graciously supportive of Children's Hospital of Arkansas, our CMN affiliate there. She served on the hospital board and on the board of CMN's largest corporate sponsor--WAL-MART. She also supported the annual Children's Miracle Network Telethon, which CMN produces to benefit children treated at each of our hospitals. She served as the Telethon Chairperson and co-hosted the show for several years. She knows the uniqueness of our organization, that one hundred percent of the money raised from the telethon in each local market stays in that community to benefit the participating CMN hospital.

Program

CMN hospitals help more than five million children each year, regardless of their family's ability to pay for treatment. Children suffering from birth defects, AIDS, muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy, or other traumas are supported every day at these hospitals by CMN funds. In ten years, the telethon has raised more than one half billion dollars, with $106 million from 1992 efforts alone.

Once each year, we gather our hospital and television station associates together for our annual convention. Corporate friends like WAL-MART, Hershey Chocolate, and RE/MAX Realtors, as well as CMN board members and telethon celebrities also join together to renew commitments and plan for the future of our children.

The 1994 convention will be held April 20-22 at the Marriott Hotel in Anaheim, California. Specifically, Mrs. Clinton would speak for approximately 20-30 minutes on the morning of Thursday, April 21 in a session beginning at 8:00 a.m. and concluding by 10:00 a.m. We would be honored to have Mrs. Clinton share with us her concerns for, and plans to improve the lifestyle of America's children. This is a subject in which all those attending will share equal interest.

I will follow up with you to assess the First Lady's availability.

By the way, Ann is trying to arrange a video taped message from President and Mrs. Clinton for use in opening the 1993 telethon. Broadcast "live" from Disneyland, this year's show will be June 5 and 6, 1993. I look forward to working with you on both these matters.

Kindest personal regards,

Dear Patti:

Here are the names of six individuals we have chosen from our group to ask questions of Mrs. Clinton. I have provided a short biography of each and, as you requested, topics they propose she address. Not all of these topics will be covered. We have only allowed for one question per person and may not even be able to accomplish that, based on our conversation this morning. On the other hand, we have scheduled 45 minutes live satellite time if Mrs. Clinton would be willing to address all six questions.

Our expectation is for the First Lady to take 15 minutes addressing the group, touching on her past involvement with CMN in Little Rock, then sharing her concerns for, and plans to improve the lifestyle of, America's children. We expect some 800 - 1000 people to attend. There will be a mixture of children's hospital administrators and staff, TV and radio news people from throughout North America, and many of the nation's corporate leaders. You may refer to Joseph Lake's letter of May 7, 1993 (copy attached) for further information about CMN.

We need confirmation from you as to whether we can do a one-way feed with IFB (phone line) talk-back for Mrs. Clinton to hear the questions, and also whether she would be willing to go to Keystone Communications' studio (400 North Capitol NW, suite 177) for the broadcast. These two things combined would save CMN approximately $10,000 in costs and would be greatly appreciated. You can reach me tomorrow prior to 9:00 a.m. Eastern at my home (801) 571-2530, or at the Anaheim Marriott Hotel Marquis Room I (714) 750-8000 tomorrow afternoon.

PRESS RELEASE*For Immediate Release.

A coordinated City and suburban effort to help students of the violence-plagued Robert Taylor Homes attend college will be announced at a press conference Thursday, April 21, at 9:00 a.m. at the Grand Boulevard Clinic, 37 West 47th Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A scholarship fund established by the Network of Services to the Families of Robert Taylor Homes, a non-profit organization of 17 private and public agencies, will award 11 scholarships to residents of the housing complex at a May 12 fundraiser at The Arts Club of Chicago, 109 East Ontario from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

The fund, which recently received a $10,000 donation from Joseph Shapiro, a prominent Chicago art patron, has expanded its efforts to obtain public contributions.

"This is an excellent way in which suburban residents can help bright young people find positive alternatives to violence by expanded educational opportunities," said Hazel Barclay, Director of the Network of Services to the Families of Robert Taylor Homes.

The Robert Taylor Homes has been the subject of national media coverage due to the CHA's efforts, enjoined by the federal court, to rid the complex of drug dealing and violence.

Those interested in contributing to this fund may make checks payable to the KB/RTH Scholarship Fund, c/o Network of Services, 37 West 47th Street, Chicago, Illinois 60609.

Edwin Eisendrath, Regional Administrator of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, will speak at the May 12 event.

A photo opportunity will be available at the press conference.
