You may already be aware that I've changed jobs. I'm now the Executive Director of the Labor-Management Council of Greater Kansas City. I started the job in October but held both this and my previous position at Rockhurst until they were able to replace me in Public Relations and Marketing, which of course took longer than we planned. I finally got down to one job by Dec. 23 and am starting to catch up with things.

Though I have a new employer, I didn't have to move my office far. The LMC is affiliated with Rockhurst and my office is on campus.

Personally things are going great. My new job is somewhat similar to Mary's job as executive vice president of the Hotel-Motel Association of Greater KC, so we have our own at-home peer group.

I've enclosed my card with new phone numbers, etc. (email address is the same) so you don't have an excuse not to call/write/email. Home info is still the same.

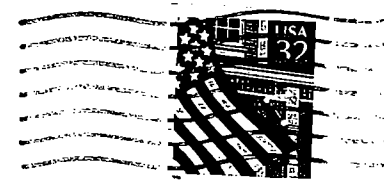

Hope you had a great holidays!

Congratulations on winning a new term, Day is there and as always, please let me know if any way we can be of help
