Dear Ms. Williams,

I am submitting my resume for any openings within the White House that I may qualify for. It would appear that I have an adequate background in politics and working in high profile offices. Please consider the following;

- B.A. History, University of Massachusetts, 1996
- Internship with Congressman John E. Baldacci
- Internship with Senator Edward M. Kennedy
- Internship with the U.S. Senate Sergeant-at-Arms
- Excellent background with computers & software
- Supervision experience
- Strong writing and oral communication skills
- A team player with good interpersonal abilities

I have grown up with the politics and I feel I have a strong grasp on the political process. I have a strong work ethic and a driving desire to succeed. I hope that we may have the chance to discuss this opportunity further.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Jason M. Pray

Dear Ma Williams,

I just thought that I would take this opportunity to congratulate you, and all the others involved, who helped to make the Clinton re-election possible. You have truly done a stupendous job with both the first lady and the President, helping to get their message of hope, growth and opportunity to the American people.

My first semester here at Davidson College in North Carolina has gone very well and I am now enjoying my Christmas vacation.

I am eager to learn more about you and I have two questions for you which I would appreciate if you could please answer with a letter to me. First, as Chief of Staff, do you have a problem with Cabinet members or Clinton friends going around you and directly to the President? Secondly, I hope someday to have a career in the political arena, and I was wondering if you might have any advice on how to prepare for such a career?

Recently, I came across the enclosed business card of yours, and I was wondering if you could please authentically sign it on the front, along with the enclosed index card. But if there is anything else you could please send me, such as an autographed photo, a signed business card, or a letter answering my previous questions, it would be greatly appreciated.

I have been an admirer of the Clintons for some time. I have been trying to get an authentically signed photo of them, but I do realize that they are extremely busy running our nation and usually don't have time for such frivolous requests. I was wondering if there might be any way that you could please help me to get an authentically signed photo from either the President or Mrs. Clinton inscribed to me? I would truly appreciate it very much.

Thanks again for your time. If, for some reason, you are unable to sign the enclosed card, I would appreciate if you could please return it to me unsigned, as I would hate to lose it.

Thank You Very Much + Best Wishes!

Sincerely Jason Reese
