Dear Ms. Gebbie:

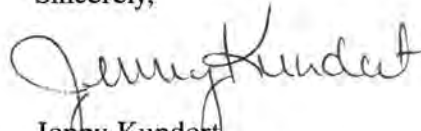

In follow-up to earlier correspondence you received from Mayo Center for Nursing, I am pleased to share with you our "Quest for Quality '93" conference brochure. The planning committee is very excited about this year's program and is looking forward to your participation in September.

Please complete the registration form found in the back of the brochure and return it to us as soon as possible. As one of our faculty members, you are invited to attend any of the sessions or activities on the day of your presentation for free. If you choose to attend other days of the program as a participant, please include your registration fee of $125 per day. Be sure to indicate which concurrent sessions you plan to attend. Space is limited; your early response is appreciated.

If you have any questions regarding your presentation or the conference, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at 1-800-545-0357 or (507) 266-7033.

Date: September 22, 1993
To: Eric or Debra
From: Shannon Smith
Minnesota News Network

Here are the questions:

1. How will the President's health plan affect AIDS policy in the nation and in Minnesota?
2. In Minnesota, what would you say is the most difficult factor in relation to the AIDS crisis? For example: what needs to change most?
3. How will the latest series of health reforms affect the nursing profession? In Minnesota, in the nation?
4. Will universal coverage mean no patients with the AIDS virus can be turned away from any type of treatment?

Dear Ms. Gebbie:

We are so pleased that you will be speaking in Rochester, MN at the Quest for Quality '93 conference. Plans for the conference are proceeding nicely. We currently have 460 people registered with two weeks until the conference, so we are very hopeful that we will exceed 500 people.

I wanted to inform you that information about the conference and your presentation has been released to the press. Based upon your recent appointment and the topic for presentation, I am quite sure the press will be present to hear you. They may wish to speak with you before or after your presentation. Do you have any concerns about this?

If this is a problem, please let me know as soon as possible. You can reach me at (507) 284-0499.

Best of luck in your travels "home" to Minnesota. I look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely,

Anne G. Jones, MSN, RN
