Memorandum

To: John Currola, Press Office, Kristine Gebbie, RN

From: ^{P2} Pat Lakatta, Editor, The Nursing Spectrum

Subject: Interview questions for October 13, 1993 1:15 pm meeting

1. As a registered nurse and healthcare leader, you have been appointed to the nationally prominent position, AIDS Coordinator. Would you discuss your professional growth and development from your initial nursing position to the present, including your major role as a spokesperson for healthcare reform?
2. How will your appointment as Aids Coordinator impact national health policy and future direction? State policies? Changes to existing universal precautions?
3. Will nursing roles be augmented as a result of a focused AIDS policy?
4. Clinically and statistically, has the AIDS profile changed or remained the same?
5. What current research activities offer promising outcomes?
6. How will the healthcare reform proposal affect AIDS patients and families? Care and reimbursement? Insurability? New settings for care?
