Public Health Nursing has a rich and diverse history in Massachusetts. Join us, as we celebrate the past and the present, and project into the future. Hear Kristine Gebbie, President Clinton's newly appointed AIDS Czar and a public health nurse, and Ruth Knollmueller, one of public health nursing's foremost advocates, talk about our profession. Enjoy a collage of presentations and conversations with retired and active public health nursing leaders, and prose and poetry that will expand your knowledge of public health nursing.
