

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the William J. Clinton Presidential Library Staff.

Collection/Record Group: Clinton Presidential Records

Subgroup/Office of Origin: National AIDS Policy Office

Series/Staff Member: Kristine Gebbie

Subseries:

OA/ID Number: 3772

FolderID:

Folder Title:

Interview with Huntley Collins, 11/4/93

Stack:

S

Row:

66

Section:

5

Shelf:

5

Position:

3

DAY: Thursday
DATE: November 4, 1993
TIME: 8:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.
LOCATION: Wyndham Hotel and Franklin
Institute
EVENT: Interview with Huntley
Collins, Franklin Institute
symposium and lunch

PHOTOCOPY PRESERVATION

The Philadelphia Inquirer

400 North Broad Street
P.O. Box 8263
Philadelphia, PA 19101

Oct. 8, 1993

Dr. Lawrence —

I'd like to request an hour-long interview with Kristine Gebbie on Nov. 4 when she visits Philadelphia.

As a reporter who covers AIDS full-time for our paper, I'd like to explore a number of policy issues.

Ms. Gebbie may remember my by-line from The Oregonian, where I was a reporter for nine years during the 1970s.

Best,
Huntly Collins

Enclosure: resumé.

HUNTLY COLLINS

WORK ADDRESS: The Philadelphia Inquirer
400 N. Broad Street
Philadelphia, PA 19101
215-854-2779

HOME ADDRESS: 143 W. Durham Street
Philadelphia, PA 19119
215-248-3452

EDUCATION: M.A., Education, University of Missouri at Kansas City, 1971
B.S., Arts and Letters, Portland State University,
Portland, Ore. 1969
Gresham Union High School, Gresham, Ore., 1964

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- 1983 to present - Reporter, The Philadelphia Inquirer. Covered business, labor, higher education, AIDS and medical science. Currently rotate as Saturday night city editor responsible for Sunday edition.
- 1974 to 1983 - Reporter, The Oregonian. Covered general assignment, police, religion, county government, city government and education.
- Spring 1974 - Press secretary, gubernatorial campaign of Oregon State Sen. Betty Roberts.
- 1972 to 1974 - Reporter, The Oregon Times, monthly magazine of investigative reporting, Portland, Ore.
- 1971 to 1972 - High school English teacher, Loretto in Kansas City.
- 1969 to 1970 - Teaching Assistant in English, University of Missouri at Kansas City.
- 1967 to 1968 - Editor, The Vanguard, student newspaper at Portland State University.
- Summer 1966 & 1967 - Reporter, The Review, weekly newspaper in Lake Oswego, Ore.

AWARDS:

First place, breaking news, Education Writers Association, 1990.
For coverage of 29-day strike by faculty at Temple University.

Nieman Fellow, Harvard University, 1982-83. Studied labor economics and history.

Second place, Charles Stewart Mott Awards, 1981. For local magazine coverage of 10-year decline of experimental John Adams High School in Portland, Ore.

Huntly Collins

Page 2

Second Place, Charles Stewart Mott Awards, 1981. For breaking news coverage of firing and death of Portland school Superintendent Robert Blanchard.

Grand Award, National School Boards Association, 1981. For coverage of John Adams High School.

Communications awards, Oregon Education Association, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1981. For on-going education coverage.

Second place, news reporting, Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association, 1978. For school coverage.

First place, in-depth reporting, Sigma Delta Chi, Willamette Valley Chapter, 1979. For Portland school desegregation.

First place, in-depth reporting, Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association, 1979. For Portland school desegregation.

National media award, National Conference of Christians and Jews, 1979. For Portland school desegregation.

First place, Charles Stewart Mott Awards in educational journalism, 1979. For 14-part series on Portland school desegregation.

Ford Fellow in Educational Journalism, 1978. Conducted three-month study of education of gifted students around the country.

One of ten reporters selected by Rutgers University's Center for the American Woman and Politics to do year-long study of women candidates in the 1976 primary and general elections across the country. Contributor to book based on study: IN THE RUNNING - The New Woman Political Candidate (Tichnor & Fields, 1981)

Visiting fellow, Institute for Policy Studies, Washington, D.C., winter of 1974

Co-director of seminar on higher education under Carnegie Corporation grant to U.S. Student Press Association. Program operated out of the University of California at Berkeley, summer of 1968.

One of 20 college journalists chosen for summer-long study of higher education under Carnegie Corporation grant to U.S. Student Press Association. Program operated out of Sarah Lawrence College, summer of 1967.

MEMBER: National Lesbian & Gay Journalists Association.

New Directions

~~Natl AIDS Policy Coordinator~~
The hell is a reminder - future directions?

hold us accountable for the directions we've been pointed for years

Disease going new directions?
across nation
women
don't forget others
Research going new directions - young gay men
Treatment going new directions - acknowledging the breadth of research needed opening the process -
options/redirections getting better with our going wrong need more providers need health reform suggested by Ryan White

Prevention going new directions
???

reshaping the discussion - substance abuse sexuality & sexual behavior -

This exhibit - where it might go most view - truth telling = honest communication valuing life

Prison
Amoral ethical view -

Dealing with the AIDS Crisis:

NEW DIRECTIONS

Thursday, November 4, 1993
9:30 a.m.

Franklin Institute
20th & Benjamin Franklin Parkway
Stearns Auditorium
(use Winter Street entrance)

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
Kristine M. Gebbie
White House AIDS Coordinator

with:

Dr. John Bartlett
Chief, Division of Infectious Diseases
The Johns Hopkins Hospital and John Hopkins University School of Medicine

Ronald S. Johnson
Citywide Coordinator of AIDS Policy
Office of the Mayor, New York City

Frederick Kroger
Director, National AIDS Information and Education Program
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Sponsored by the Franklin Institute and the AIDS Activities Coordinating Office, Philadelphia Department of Public Health

The Franklin Institute
Science MuseumBenjamin Franklin Parkway
at 20th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103-1194Phone: 215.448.1200
FAX: 215.448.1235

DRAFT

October 12, 1993

Dr. John Bartlett
Chief
Division of Infectious Diseases
Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
Room 1159
Richard Starr Ross Research Building
720 Rutland Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21205

Dear Dr. Bartlett:

Thank you so very much for rearranging your schedule to participate in our symposium, "Dealing With the AIDS Crisis: New Directions." As you know, the symposium will be held at The Franklin Institute Science Museum on November 4 from 9:30 a.m. to noon as part of the formal opening of our CDC-funded exhibit, "What About AIDS?"

The symposium will be held in the Stearns Auditorium on the first floor of the Science Museum. The Franklin Institute is a short cab ride from the 30th Street train station. Instruct the cab driver to take you to the Winter Street entrance located on the Parkway side of the building. I will be there to meet you on November 4.

The program will begin with a welcome from Franklin Institute president Dr. James L. Powell. Dr. Roberta Cooks, the exhibit developer for "What About AIDS?" will give a brief description of the exhibit and introduce Richard Scott, director of the AIDS Activities Office of the Phila. Department of Health, the co-sponsor of this symposium.

Richard Scott will serve as moderator and introduce all speakers. We will begin the program with Fredrick Kroger, Director of the National AIDS Information and Education Program at the CDC who will talk about new educational initiatives being undertaken by the CDC.

Science Center & Fels Planetarium
Mendell Fures Center
Tulhoman Omnisense Theater
The Benjamin Franklin National Memorial

Next on the agenda will be Ronald Johnson, Citywide Coordinator of AIDS Policy, Office of the Mayor, City of New York. He will be talking about new directions in community service. We would like you to be our next speaker. We are interested in hearing how the medical community is dealing with the AIDS crisis, what new efforts are taking place, what more needs to be done. We would ask that you limit your remarks to no more than 20 minutes. Questions will be invited after all speakers have completed their talks.

White House AIDS coordinator Kristine Gebbie will be the final speaker, talking about federal AIDS policy.

Following the symposium, we invite you to tour the "What About AIDS?" exhibit and be our guest at a luncheon taking place in the Franklin Institute board room with Ms. Gebbie.

Please let me know if you will be able to attend the luncheon. I am happy to answer any questions you may have and can be reached at 215-448-1152.

Thanks again for your willingness to participate in this program. I look forward to meeting you on November 4.

Sincerely,

ZeeAnn Mason
Director of Communications

:me

C A L E N D A R

10/06/93 13:48

215 448 1235

FRANKLIN INST.

2/004

The Franklin Institute
Science MuseumBenjamin Franklin Parkway
at 20th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103-1194Phone: 215.448.1208
FAX: 215.448.1235

DRAFT

October 12, 1993

Mr. Ronald S. Johnson
Citywide Coordinator of AIDS Policy
Office of the Mayor
City of New York
New York, NY (RICHARD IS THIS CORRECT ADDRESS?)

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Thank you for agreeing to participate in our symposium, "Dealing With the AIDS Crisis: New Directions." As you know, the symposium will be held at The Franklin Institute Science Museum on November 4 from 9:30 a.m. to noon as part of the formal opening of our CDC-funded exhibit, "What About AIDS?"

The symposium will be held in the Stearns Auditorium on the first floor of the Science Museum. The Franklin Institute is a short cab ride from the 30th Street train station. Instruct the cab driver to take you to the Winter Street entrance located on the Parkway side of the building. Richard Scott will be there to meet you on November 4.

The program will begin with a welcome from Franklin Institute president Dr. James L. Powell. Dr. Roberta Cooks, the exhibit developer for "What About AIDS?" will give a brief description of the exhibit and introduce Richard Scott, director of the AIDS Activities Office of the Phila. Department of Health, the co-sponsor of this symposium.

Richard Scott will serve as moderator and introduce all speakers. We will begin the program with Fredrick Kroger, Director of the National AIDS Information and Education Program at the CDC who will talk about new educational initiatives being undertaken by the CDC.

215 448 1235
10/08/93 15:50

215 448 1235

FRANKLIN INST.

005

We would like you to be our next speaker. We are interested in your perspective as a key provider of community service initiatives--what's working, what more needs to be done, what new efforts are on the horizon. We would ask that you limit your remarks to no more than 20 minutes. Questions will be invited after all speakers have completed their talks.

Dr. John Bartlett, chief of immunology at Johns Hopkins University will follow your talk, addressing new trends in medical treatment. Kristine Gebbie will be the final speaker, talking about federal AIDS policy.

Following the symposium, we invite you to tour the "What About AIDS?" exhibit and be our guest at a luncheon taking place in the Franklin Institute board room with Ms. Gebbie.

Please let me know if you will be able to attend the luncheon. Feel free to call me at 215-448-1152 or Richard Scott with any questions you may have.

Thanks again for your willingness to participate in this program. I look forward to meeting you on November 4.

Sincerely,

ZeeAnn Mason
Director of Communications

:me

10/06/93 15:30 215 448 1235

FRANKLIN INST.

0000

The Franklin Institute
Science MuseumBenjamin Franklin Parkway
at 20th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103-1194Phone: 215.448.1208
FAX: 215.448.1235

DRAFT

October 12, 1993

Mr. Fredrick Kroger
Director of the National AIDS
Information and Education Program
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
1600 Clifton Road, NE
Mail Stop A24
Atlanta, Georgia 30333

Dear Mr. Kroger:

We are delighted you have agreed to participate in our symposium, "Dealing With the AIDS Crisis: New Directions." As you know, the symposium will be held at The Franklin Institute Science Museum on November 4 from 9:30 a.m. to noon as part of the formal opening of our CDC-funded exhibit, "What About AIDS?"

The symposium will be held in the Stearns Auditorium on the first floor of the Science Museum. The Franklin Institute is a short cab ride from the 30th Street train station. Instruct the cab driver to take you to the Winter Street entrance located on the Parkway side of the building. I will be there to meet you on November 4.

The program will begin with a welcome from Franklin Institute president Dr. James L. Powell. Dr. Roberta Cooks, the exhibit developer for "What About AIDS?" will give a brief description of the exhibit and introduce Richard Scott, director of the AIDS Activities Office of the Philadelphia Department of Health, the co-sponsors of this symposium.

Richard Scott will serve as moderator and introduce all speakers. We would like to begin the program with your presentation. Given that we are all assembled at The Franklin Institute thanks to the CDC funded exhibit, and that the exhibit is a prime example of new educational initiatives, it seemed to be a nice segway into your presentation on new CDC initiatives in education. We would ask that you limit your remarks to no more than 20 minutes. Questions will be invited after all speakers have completed their talks.

10/06/93 15:51

215 448 1235

FRANKLIN INST.

0007

Next on the agenda will be Ronald Johnson, Citywide Coordinator of AIDS Policy, Office of the Mayor, City of New York. He will be talking about new directions in community service. Dr. John Bartlett, chief of immunology at Johns Hopkins University will follow Mr. Johnson, talking about new trends in medical treatment. Kristine Gebbie will be the final speaker, talking about federal AIDS policy.

Following the symposium, we invite you to tour the "What About AIDS?" exhibit and be our guest at a luncheon taking place in the Franklin Institute board room with Ms. Gebbie.

Please let me know if you will be able to attend the luncheon. I am happy to answer any questions you may have and can be reached at 215-448-1152.

Thanks again for your willingness to participate in this program. I look forward to meeting you on November 4.

Sincerely,

ZeeAnn Mason
Director of Communications

me

LUNCH FOR KRISTINE GEBBIE, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1993

Proposed Location: Board Room, Franklin Institute

Suggested Guest List:

Linda Aiken PhD
Professor of Nursing
School of Nursing
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, PA 19104

Prominent health services researcher in nursing; currently conducting a research study with AHCPR support on outcomes of hospital-dedicated AIDS unit.

Richard Cohen, PhD
President
Philadelphia Health Management Corporation
260 South Broad Street, 20th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Health care research, service, and management agency; former HRSA AIDS Service Demonstration Program grantee, conducts research programs of street outreach to IVDUs; contractor for Title I MIS; administrative agency for Title I.

Louis DiJinio
1840 S. 15th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19145

Member of City's HIV consumer advisory board; participated in development of Franklin Institute exhibition.

Russell Fletcher
49 North Paxon Street
Philadelphia, PA 19139

Consumer and Planning Council member. (African American)

Sandra Fletcher (Mrs. Russell)
49 North Paxon Street
Philadelphia, PA 19139

Consumer and member of the Board of Directors of ActionAIDS. (African American)

Nick Ifft MD
Greater Philadelphia Health Action
Southeast Community Health Center
930 Washington Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19147

Community based primary care provider serving many people with HIV/AIDS; one of the first physicians in Philadelphia to treat people with AIDS.

Ernest Jones Esq.
Executive Director
Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition
119 North Broad Street
Philadelphia, PA 19107

Broad based umbrella organization serving minority communities; houses the AIDS Community Education Project; staffs Minority AIDS Coalition; administrative agency for Title I. (African American)

The Reverend James H. Littrell MDiv
Executive Director
The Philadelphia AIDS Consortium
260 South Broad Street, 6th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Chief executive of the AIDS Consortium, the Board of which serves as the Title I Planning Council and the Title II Planning Coalition; administers Title II contracts; conducts regional planning, public policy advocacy, housing, and other special regional programs.

Loretta MacLaughlin
Interim President
Delaware Valley Hospital Council
1315 Walnut Street
Philadelphia, PA 19107

Chief executive of coalition of regional hospitals.

Mark Segal
Publisher
Philadelphia Gay News
254 South 11th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19107

Prominent leader in the gay community; political activist.

Michael Spence MD
Hahnemann University Hospital
Broad and Vinc Streets
Philadelphia, PA 19107

Primary care provider with emphasis on women's health; active in treatment and clinical trials; developing a public health program at Hahnemann University.

Mark A. Turnbull
Chairman
Hospital and Higher Education Authority of Philadelphia
100 South Broad Street, Suite 1500
Land Title Building
Philadelphia, PA 19110

Board chair of financing authority with personal interest in AIDS; the Authority's Assistant Vice President is a member of the Planning Council and frequent committee participant.

Franklin Institute Representatives

James Powell PhD
President
Franklin Institute
Benjamin Franklin Parkway at 20th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103

Roberta Cook PhD
Zoe Ann Mason
Sandy Caser

City of Philadelphia Representatives

To be determined, depending on availability of Mayor Rendell

PROGRAMME

November 4, 1993

AIDS Symposium

Kristine Gebbie, White House Advisor on AIDS

The Franklin Institute
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Special Programme

The AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power

EVERY FIVE MINUTES, SOMEONE DIES OF AIDS.

To represent this fact, you will hear a bell every five minutes during this symposium. Don't forget that while you sit listening to Clinton's AIDS policy representative, people are still dying.

What is the President doing about AIDS? What is Congress doing about AIDS? Why is there no national leadership on the biggest health crisis of the century?

AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power Demands

November 4, 1993

Meeting with AIDS Czar Kristine Gebbie

- WE DEMAND that the $20 million appropriated by the Department of Defense for the gp160 study be used for a multi-product vaccine study under the director of Deborah Birx, MD!
- WE DEMAND Federal funding of vaccine research NOW!
- WE DEMAND increased Federal funding of all AIDS research!
- WE DEMAND more clinical trials of immune modulators!
- WE DEMAND faster trial designs for AIDS Clinical Trials Group studies!
- WE DEMAND full funding of the Ryan White CARE Act based on re-calculations of formula allocations that reflect increased AIDS case reporting using the 1993 case count!
- WE DEMAND drug addiction treatment on demand!
- WE DEMAND fast track studies of Ibogaine, a promising treatment for drug addiction!
- WE DEMAND Harm Reduction services for people with drug addictions, sex workers, and other high-risk groups!
- WE DEMAND Federal support of needle exchange programs!
- WE DEMAND Federal support of condom distribution in high schools, middle schools, and elementary schools!
- WE DEMAND Federal support for Cost Recovery where smaller pharmaceutical companies have been supplying life-giving drugs to patients in Phase II or III trials (e.g., Ampligen)!
- WE DEMAND a commitment to forbid any mandatory name-based reporting of T-cell counts and/or HIV status!
- WE DEMAND a commitment to study a nation-wide Unique Identifier Code for HIV positive Americans!
- WE DEMAND FEDERAL LEADERSHIP TO END THE AIDS CRISIS NOW!!!!