Dear Kristine,

I don't often emit loud vocalizations when alone in the house, but on Friday I let out a whoop of delight when I heard on national television the announcement of your government appointment. Congratulations! Indeed it sounds like an awkward position politically, but if anyone has the background and personal integrity to handle this, it's you. Your forthright approach is just what this crisis needs.

I'm thrilled that this opportunity and recognition has come to you, and heartened to know that such a critical issue as AIDS has you as chief advocate. If there's anything we here at St. Olaf can do to assist you in your work, please let me know. Whether it's moral support, names of Oles in the medical profession or working in Washington, or faculty to carry out research, please feel free to call on us to help.

Sincerely,

Dear Kristine:

Thank you most sincerely for agreeing to come to St. Olaf College on November 10, 1993, to speak to both the professional and campus committees.

Due to the short time frame between now and November 10, I have had to proceed quickly with the plans for this day. I hope the following schedule will be acceptable to you:

Morning to early afternoon-----arrive, Minneapolis airport
Allow two hours to claim baggage and travel to Northfield
(St. Olaf staff to meet you and provide transportation)

4:30-6:00 pm: presentation to professional community at the Northfield Hospital; light buffet meal included
Allow one hour for additional questions and travel to campus

7:00-8:30 pm: presentation to campus community
Overnight housing provided

Thursday, depart Minneapolis airport (St. Olaf staff to provide transportation)

To describe your presentation for publicity purposes, I have identified four objectives:

1. Discuss AIDS as a social issue.
2. Discuss the scope of AIDS as a health problem.
3. Describe the role of the nation's AIDS policy coordinator.
4. Discuss factors which enhance or inhibit unified strategies for fighting the AIDS epidemic in the U.S.

I hope you will find these broad enough to allow flexibility in your presentation to either audience, yet specific enough to give direction to the information you share with us.

Please notify me as soon as possible of your travel arrangements, and all bills should be submitted to me for payment. Based on your travel needs, I will arrange overnight housing.

If you have questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at 507-646-3265. Again, let me say how much we are looking forward to your visit. Thank you for your continued commitment to St. Olaf College.

Dear Dr. George:

Thank you so much for writing, and for the good wishes of the St. Olaf community. I am so often reminded of the network, and cross paths with fellow Oles all over the country.

I would very much like to visit the campus, and will watch for an opportunity as I begin planning my schedule. I look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Gebbie:

Warm congratulations from all of us at St. Olaf College on your appointment as the AIDS coordinator. This is an extremely important position, and your selection for it is a tribute to your technical and managerial skills. We are very proud that so much local attention was paid to the fact that you are a St. Olaf graduate, and we join millions of other concerned citizens around this nation in wishing you Godspeed and great success as you lead the battle against this terrible epidemic.

It would be a great privilege to have you speak some time at St. Olaf about your work as AIDS coordinator and the epidemic itself. If your official travels will ever bring you toward Minnesota, I do hope you will let me know as far in advance as possible, as we would love to have you back.

With all best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Mel George
