Ms. Kristine Gebbie
750-17th Street NW, Suite 1060
Washington, DC

Dear Ms. Gebbie:

I am grateful to Bob Duea for introducing to you the possibility of meeting with the board and staff of the Division for Church in Society. I am writing now to extend a formal invitation to you for that very purpose.

Our board meets at the ELCA churchwide offices (10 minutes from O'Hare Airport) on Thursday, March 10 beginning at 1:00 p.m. through Saturday, March 12 ending at 5:00 p.m. We would be delighted if it is possible for you to meet with the board for an hour or so some time during those three days. Our division would cover your travel expenses.

We would be glad to arrange our agenda according to your schedule. However, if it is possible for you to be with us during the day on Thursday, March 10 in the afternoon or Friday, March 11, it would permit us the opportunity to invite key staff from other churchwide units to participate in the session, to hear your presentation on the challenge of AIDS and to join in the discussion. As of this writing, Bishop Chilstrom is also in the churchwide offices those two days. I know he would be grateful for some time with you as well. I would be glad, by the way, to make arrangements with him after a date and time is confirmed.

I am enclosing a recent mailing of the Lutheran AIDS Network for your information. You may have seen this already since you are among the speakers listed for the February conference in California.

Please let me know if you are available to be with us at our board meeting in March and the best date and time for your schedule. If scheduling for March is not possible, our board next meets September 29 - October 1, 1994 in Chicago.

I look forward to hearing from you. Thanks for your service to our nation and for your lay ministry in this extremely important area of health and human service.

Sincerely,

The Rev. Charles S. Miller
Executive Director

The conference will include a 1/2-day Spanish-language institute on AIDS and Ministry in the Latino Community ("El SIDA, la Iglesia y la Comunidad Latina"), led by Carlos Lisandro Orlov, editor of

"Luz y Verdad," the national magazine of the United Evangelical Lutheran Church [Iglesia Evangelica Luterana Unida (IELU)] of Argentina.

Caregiver Grants for Community Interfaith Coalitions Offered by Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

A huge program called "Faith In Action" has just been announced that will provide start-up grants of $25,000 to as many as 900 local interfaith groups to provide "home-based volunteer services, care, and companionship" to persons with chronic health conditions.

AIDS-specific programs qualify under the conditions of the grant, according to Faith In Action Director Dr. Kenneth Johnson. A flyer containing more details about the grant is being mailed along with this newsletter.

Lutheran Outdoor Ministries Hosts Camp for HIV+ Families in Illinois

Nineteen parents and 39 children attended "Camp Getaway" which was organized by Families' and Children's AIDS Network of Chicago and held at a Lutheran Outdoor Ministries campground in Illinois. The families had to have at least one member--either parent or child--who was HIV+.

The participants came from poor urban neighborhoods in Chicago, according to Peter Ohman, the initiator of the idea for the camp and one of its organizers. "Many of these families had never been on a vacation of any kind because of their financial limitations," said Ohman. "The favorite part for many people was taking a simple hike in the woods...something they had never done before."

For information about Camp Getaway, contact Peter Ohman in Chicago at (312) 684-5147.

RWJ To Fund Huge Interfaith Initiative; 20 Projects Per State To Get Funding

NEW YORK CITY—In what may be the largest program of its kind ever undertaken by a private philanthropy, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation will make $23 million available to launch more than 900 interfaith volunteer caregiver projects nationwide.

The program, Faith in Action, will support interfaith coalitions that establish projects providing home-based volunteer services, care, and companionship to individuals with chronic health conditions.

This program will assist thousands of Americans with functionally impaired conditions to maintain their independence and dignity.

Religious congregations of all faiths are invited to submit grant proposals.

Over the next four years, Faith in Action intends to establish more than 900 projects with individual start-up grant awards of $25,000. Each project will be expected to obtain matching support from local sources.

RWJ president Steven Schroeder explained the rationale: "While the nation labors to reform its formal system of delivering healthcare, there is an urgent need to address the informal system that acts as a lifeline to the millions of Americans with chronic health problems," he said.

"This program will assist thousands of Americans with functionally impaired conditions to maintain their independence and dignity," he added.

Kenneth Johnson directs the Faith in Action program. "We're offering people an opportunity to accomplish something they very much want to do," Dr. Johnson said. "Helping others is an integral part of all religions."

He said that to his knowledge no other healthcare program has involved the creation of so many projects in such a short period. "Government programs typically fund two or three projects per state. We're looking at 20 projects per state," he said.

Applications will be accepted through June 30, 1996. Decisions will be made within 90 days of receipt of application.

For application materials contact Dr. Kenneth G. Johnson, Director, Faith in Action, Health Services Research Center, 368 Broadway, Suite 105, PO Box 2290, Kingston, NY 12401-0227, 914-331-0016, Fax: 914-331-4191.

Faith in Action: A National Replication of the Interfaith Volunteer Caregivers Program. Grants will support the development of interfaith caregiving ministries for people of all ages with chronic health conditions. This program builds on the success of previous RWJF activities to form effective community coalitions that provide home-based volunteer services. Organizations eligible to apply under this program are community interfaith coalitions that have identified as a fiscal agent an organization that is tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. All inquiries about the program should be directed to Kenneth G. Johnson, M.D., Director, Faith in Action, The Kingston Hospital, P.O. Box 2290, 368 Broadway, Suite 105, Kingston, N.Y. 12401. Applications will be accepted under a rolling admissions process.

June 30, 1996 – Applications will continue to be accepted at the National Program Office, Kingston, N.Y., until this date.

Announcement of grant awards can be made within 90 days after receipt of completed application.
