"HIV/AIDS Under Health Reform"

Outline of comments by Kristine M. Gebbie, R.N., M.N.

National AIDS Policy Coordinator

before

American Medical Student Association
Annual Convention
March 17, 1994
Arlington, Virginia

How does health reform fit into HIV policy

Research services prevention

Key features of health reform pertinent to HIV

Universal, non-cancelable, non-discriminatory coverage benefits package prescription drugs
 mental health services substance abuse services essential providers quality assurance protections confidentiality protections public health infrastructure

Problems of transition payment doesn't equal care recognition in law doesn't mean delivery of service disproportionate underservice of those with HIV need for Ryan White funding/transition planning

The continuing challenge to health professionals

Staying current with an emerging science base anecdotes about the failure to refer "can't do anything"

Keeping the epidemiology in mind as a clue to need for assessment/prevention messages-example:women

Keeping occupational exposure issues in perspective keeping personal risk in perspective

Dear Ms. Gebbie:

This is a letter of invitation asking you to speak at the upcoming American Medical Student Association's (AMSA) annual convention. Each year this convention draws three to five thousand medical students from across the nation. In brief, these are the details of the convention:

The dates of the convention are: March 17 - 20, 1993.

The location is the Crystal City Hyatt.

The theme is "Through the Looking Glass: Health Care Reform and the Future Provider".

Given your availability, we can speak further regarding specific times within these dates. If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 429-9763. We would really appreciate your presence at the convention. Thank you.

Respectfully yours,
