Dear Ms. Gebbie:

I understand from our parishioner Bill Riggs (Executive Director of Episcopal Caring Response to AIDS) that you would consider an invitation to speak at our Sunday morning Rector's Forum, and I very much hope that is so.

We hope you might be with us on Sunday, May 15, to address this large and interested audience. Forum time for us occurs in the hour between our main services, and it stands at the intersection between faith and life. We include outside speakers who are policy makers and advocates, teachers or visionaries, and we mix them with our own teaching of the tradition. The post-Easter season will largely deal with outreach-based ministries of the parish and the wider church. St. Columba's has recently strengthened its commitment to channel energy and support for AIDS ministry. We would like to hear from you about the public policy front and about where people and congregations like ours can be best involved.

The congregation includes more than its share of journalists and leaders, and the Forum audience has a reputation for careful listening, lively questions and all kinds of follow-up and action.

If this will work for you, we will be privileged to schedule you in for May 15. We would expect to begin at 10:20 am and to conclude by 11:05.

Please let me or my assistant, Mrs. Fowler, know if this date—or perhaps another—will suit you.

Sincerely,

William McD. Tully
Rector
