Nurses & HIV

helping explode the myths

I. Basic Policy Framework

stop epidemic
research services prevention

II. Why Role is important with individuals - caring/educating/supporting with systems - organizing/building in ~~state~~ local/state/national policy raising critical questions

III. Myths to explode - ~~myths~~

1) only gay men get HIV infection - true that in US most people living with HIV are gay men but - 1993 less than 1/2 cases

2) gay men don't get HIV any more - young women fastest growing behavior change in older gay men not held

3) talking about self causes it to happen must include in health evaluations in prevention education in families

4) that knowledge is enough to make change happen

IV. the leadership potential

Know the facts
Act on the facts

Dear Kris:

We are all still very excited that you are going to be our Commencement Speaker! This is to confirm that our Commencement Ceremony is on Sunday, June 19, 1994 at 4:00 pm in the Perloff Quad on campus. My secretary, Marla Crow, spoke to Gus Ventura on Thursday, and he plans to make your plane reservations as you can obtain a much better fare. The University will reimburse you for the cost of your plane ticket and other expenses; please retain and send us your original receipts once you return to Washington, D.C. Please also include your Social Security number.

Once we have the definite times of your arrival we will make arrangements for you to be picked up at LAX. We also will arrange for your transportation to the UCLA campus Sunday afternoon for the Commencement Ceremony.

I have made reservations for you at the Westwood Plaza Hotel at 10740 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90024 for Sunday June 19. Their telephone number is (310) 475-8711 and your confirmation number for the hotel is #550004.

If you will be available and would like, we could arrange a small reception or dinner for you early Sunday evening. Please let me know as soon as possible. In any event, I look forward to seeing you and having you participate in our Commencement Ceremony.

Sincerely,

Ada M. Lindsey, R.N., Ph.D.
