Dear Ms. Gebbie:

Please find following the updated information that I promised you.

I certainly hope you will be able to schedule this event into your schedule. Should you be able to do this yourself, I understand you will be able to send your Deputy Coordinator.

I'm looking forward to meeting you and listening to what you have to say.

Cordially,

Jerry L. Dorchuck,
Executive Director

By Invitation Only

SUBSTANCE ABUSE HIV/AIDS PREVENTION & EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM

October 22, 1993
Stouffer Concourse Hotel
Washington National Airport

Sponsored by Citizen Outreach Office for Substance Abuse-HIV/AIDS Prevention

• • • • •

A Project of Citizen Outreach, Inc., a Non-Profit Educational Corporation
Post Office Box 1734 • Carson City, Nevada 89702
(702) 885-2839

Plan now to attend this "By Invitation Only" event.

Invitations are limited to Alcohol and Drug Abuse Directors, State Public Health Directors and State HIV/AIDS Coordinators and various government public health officials of the United States and its Territories...ONLY.

This event will not be open to the general public.

Attendance will be limited to 120 participants.

This Symposium will consist of a one-day intense study and overview of substance abuse HIV/AIDS prevention and education, current issues and their educational impacts. This comprehensive one-day event will be limited to the first 120 individuals responding to this invitation. This will ensure an informal setting and allow for maximum interaction. Your reservation must be received by September 1, 1993. No reservations will be accepted after that date. Purchase orders are accepted from governmental agencies only.

Symposium participants can choose from seven presentations representing prevention and education efforts from five states; California, Colorado, Maine, Maryland, Nevada, as well as presentations from two different departments within the Small Business Administration. A special presentation will be delivered by Members of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, Bangladesh Anti Drug Abuse Organization.

By attending, you will be provided an opportunity for significant networking and interaction between your industry peers, and be given insight into regionally differing methods of dealing with substance abuse and HIV/AIDS prevention and education efforts.

The field of substance abuse and HIV/AIDS prevention and education is complex and rapidly changing. The time demands are increasing every day and Directors of each state and territorial agency rapidly become enmeshed in directing their own programs, while attempting to keep pace with the latest innovations and developments in other areas of the country and the world. Daily demands tend to leave little time for meaningful discussion with colleagues from other areas. Our Symposium is designed to increase your opportunity to network with others who guide substance abuse-HIV/AIDS prevention and education policy. This Symposium will provide you an invaluable opportunity to gather information with your colleagues in an intimate environment as associates present new, innovative, and working solutions in their respective area of substance abuse - HIV/AIDS.

Each participant will be provided a presentation table to display their respective state's information. Please ship enough material to accommodate at least 150 recipients. Shipping instructions will be forwarded with your registration confirmation.

Follow-up after the Symposium will include a direct mailing to the participants that will serve as a report card/response. Participants will be asked to grade the Symposium, from speakers to staff, and in overall strengths and weaknesses. Included in this mailing will also be the Symposium summaries created during the workshops, which may be edited by each participant, returned, and summarized into a working plan for publication.

Each plenary session and portions of workshops will be video-taped for production and distribution to all participants at no additional charge. (Please allow 4 to 6 weeks to receive your copy.)
