MEMORANDUM:

FROM: William W. Wilkins, Jr.
Chairman

SUBJECT: Symposium on Drugs & Violence in America

On behalf of the Commission, I am pleased to provide you with a copy of Proceedings of the Inaugural Symposium on Crime and Punishment in the United States: Drugs & Violence in America. The Sentencing Commission sponsored the Symposium to bring together policymakers to share information and exchange ideas about the problems of drug abuse and violence. We hope that the Symposium will stimulate discussion and lead to new federal, state, and local strategies for addressing these critical issues.

Please call upon the Commission if you have questions about this publication or if we can be of service in any way. For those interested, VHS recordings of the Symposium are available on loan from the Commission's Office of Communications at (202) 273-4590. Thank you.
