Parent Patrol Program Annual Luncheon

Per Betsy
Ebel

- What: A luncheon to honor parents (and other community members) who volunteer their time to help provide safe passage for elementary-age children to and from school. Parent Patrols also serve to bring communities together, expose youth to caring adults who serve as role models, and improve communication between the schools and the communities they serve.
- The Parent Patrols are a community-driven effort coordinated by the Chicago Department of Human Services/Chicago for Youth Office in partnership with the Chicago Public Schools, local private schools, and the Chicago Police Department's community policing program. During the 1997-98 school year, almost 400 public and parochial schools in the City of Chicago participated in the Parent Patrol Program. Together the Parent Patrol volunteers, CDHS/Chicago for Youth Office staff, Chicago Public School employees and Chicago Police Officers are working to make the path safe and clear for our young citizens.
- Who: Over 2,000 parents and community members.
- Where: McCormick Place Annex - Grand Ballroom
(Located in the South Loop)
- When: Wednesday, June 3, 1998
11:00 a.m.
- Request: We would be greatly honored to have the First Lady briefly stop by the luncheon to congratulate and express appreciation to the Parent Patrol volunteers for their efforts.
