Subject: Presidential Design Awards Ceremony

I am writing to seek your guidance on how GSA might initiate communication with the White House to arrange for the President and/or Mrs. Clinton to present Round Four of the Presidential Awards for Design Excellence.

Recently, GSA signed an interagency agreement with the National Endowment for the Arts to manage and provide primary funding for the quadrennial Presidential Design Awards. GSA would like to have a White House ceremony to present the Round Four awards and have the President announce the call for entries for the next round, which would be presented in the fall of 1999.

President Clinton announced the call for entries for Round Four in a White House ceremony in the East Room on April 28, 1994, when he and Mrs. Clinton presented the awards for Round Three. I believe the NEA had a commitment from the White House to do the awards ceremony, but no specific date has ever been confirmed.

Nine projects have been selected to receive awards. They range from Focus: Hope Center for Advanced Technologies in Detroit funded by the Department of Commerce to the design of the food label by the Food and Drug Administration.

The Presidential Design Awards exemplify several major goals of the Clinton Administration:

- Providing cost-effective government
- Fostering innovation and creativity
- Improving U.S. global competitiveness
- Enhancing quality of life
- Establishing successful public-private partnerships

Any assistance you can provide would be most appreciated.

Bobbie -- Susan passed your fax over to me. It's a little unclear what they're asking for -- an awards ceremony now or in 1999? We'd like to help.

10/8/97 Left word to Peggy that the award could be presented (at any time). It's given every 4 yrs. - the next will be in ~~1999~~ 2000. The current award should have been presented last year but was postponed because they couldn't get a presenter.
