Roberta W. Greene

CAREER SUMMARY

Vice President and Director of Development People For the American Way

September 1985 - April 1997
Washington, D.C.

Over 11 years, built a strong and sophisticated development department that has succeeded in more than doubling annual revenues from major donors, foundations, unions, direct mail and special events. Play a leadership role in the organization and work closely with the president, other senior staff and board of directors to set policy and strategy, and to create programs that address a full range of constitutional and political issues.

- Serve as primary contact for more than 1,800 major contributors ($1,000+ a year), hundreds of foundations and a prestigious 50-person board of directors. Maintain close personal ties to many of this country's leading progressive funders through extensive cultivation of current and prospective supporters.
- Develop and manage the department's $6 million annual budget and program plan.
- Identify and cultivate special event prospects in various cities, oversee all event planning and play a major part in the events themselves.
- Supervise a seven-person staff in Washington and provide guidance, coordination and support for fundraising and related activities in five state and regional offices.

Deputy Director The Forum Institute

October 1982 - August 1985
Washington, D.C.

Responsible for project management, board liaison and fundraising for this small non-profit that served as a bridge between funders (individuals and foundations) and grantees, particularly on national security and voter participation issues.

- Helped organize several major convenings and produce numerous studies and reports for the Funders for the Prevention of Nuclear War and the Funders Committee for Voter Participation.

Associate Director for Administration Committee for National Security

March 1981 - September 1982
Washington, D.C.

Primary responsibility for personnel, administration, financial management and fundraising at this non-profit dedicated to alerting the American public to the dangers posed by the military build-up of the early 1980s.

- With the executive director and the other associate director, organized the first Women's Leadership Conference on National Security, a highly-praised annual event to demystify arms control, defense spending and related issues and to amplify women's voices in efforts to prevent nuclear war.

Deputy to the President Indo-China Refugee Action Center (IRAC) and Cambodia Crisis Center

October 1979 - March 1981
Washington, D.C.

Worked with the president of both organizations on every aspect of their joint mission to develop the first fully-coordinated response to a major humanitarian crisis.

- Served as the primary liaison to the White House, representatives of allied government and relief agencies, the board of directors and a combined 40-person staff.

Chief, Robert F. Kennedy Oral History Project
John F. Kennedy Presidential Library

October 1968 - October 1979
Washington, D.C.

Conducted hundreds of taped interviews on John and Robert Kennedy with their family, friends and political associates. Tapes and transcripts of these interviews are available at the Library and are used by historians, writers and researchers to supplement the written record.

- Helped develop the Library's exhibits on Robert Kennedy.
- Solicited and negotiated on the Library's behalf for the personal papers of those associated with the Kennedy family.
- After the Library's move to Boston, served as its representative in Washington.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Issues and Research Director
Biden for Senate

June - November 1972
Wilmington, Delaware

On leave from the JFK Library, played a major role in Joe Biden's first Senate Campaign.

Peace Corps Volunteer
Rural Community Action Project

1965 - 1967
Vihiga, Kenya

As one of Kenya's first volunteers, taught in the local Harambee elementary school and founded the village's first Girl Guides troop; also worked at the local health clinic on pre-natal and well-baby care and developed the community's first birth control program.

VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

Board of Directors

- ISAR (formerly The Institute for Soviet-American Relations), 1990 - 1995
- 20/20 Vision, 1990 - 1997
- Voices from the Streets, 1990 - 1995

Advisory Board

- Food and Friends, 1994 - 1997
