

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 13, 1998
Dear Ann Marie:

Many thanks for making the effort to meet with you, Nou & me yesterday. It was a most interesting and productive first meeting, and we all look forward to further discussing a possible joint venture.

I think the best way to move things along is for you to send me a proposal that reflects our conversation and outlines conceptually how we might work together. I'll then talk it through with my colleagues and the First Lady, and get Back to you fairly quickly as to whether we are prepared to take the next steps.

Please feel free to call me if you have questions or want to confer at any time.

Thanks again for your interest & enthusiasm -- Beyle infections

Best regards,

Bobbie
