Subject: More Havel names

The following names are suggestions for the Havel state dinner. If for any reason they can not be included on that guest list, Bobbie would appreciate their consideration for that week's millennium lecture. Bobbie is expecting additional names from Ronnie Ginnot and David Altschul during the next day or two and will forward them asap.

1. Rona and David Ginnot

B [REDACTED] 0021
P6(b)(6)

Ronni went on the treasures tour and has committed to preserving the Louis Armstrong archives -- all his original recordings. David owns Winston Musical Instrument Co. and provides instruments to schools for use by underprivileged kids.

2. David and Margaret Altschul
Vice Chair, Warner Records

B [REDACTED]
P6(b)(6)

David is a treasures committee member and is spearheading Warner Record's effort to produce a Save America's Treasures CD, whose proceeds will largely be donated to the Treasures program.

3. Charles and Edna Marie Allen

A [REDACTED]
P6(b)(6)

The Allens are major supporters of the President and the democratic party. Edna Marie was Mary Landrieu's finance chair. They are very prominent citizens in Shreveport, responsible for much that is good and worthwhile in that city, including most cultural causes. Charles is an accomplished jazz musician and an enormous fan. This would mean a lot to them.

4. Nancy (Bitsey) Folger and Sidney Werkman

B [REDACTED]
P6(b)(6)

Bitsey was the head of the WH Endowment, and is working with us to Save America's Treasures. Among many others, Bitsey is on the boards of the National Symphony and the Ellington School. Both are great music lovers and Sidney is an accomplished musician.

5. Dr. Lucy Waltezk

Allen/Sanjay -

Attached are the lists I've given to the Social Officer
the jazz evening.

The Jazz Rec'd
Label Excs.
Came from David Atschul
-- he's used an
* to indicate those he considers a priority.

Just FYI...
I would really love to get Ron White from Philadelphia invited.

Please let me know what you decide.

Thanks.

Cheers,

~~Robbie~~

P.S. I'm still expecting a list from Pini Ginnott.

BOBBIE GREENE

Kim-

Here are more names for the Millennium Jazz evening. The * indicates those David Altschul (Vice Chair of Warner Bros.)
considers a priority. They are all execs of jazz labels.

Pls. let me know what you

Beige.

For what it's worth, Jim particularly eager to invite Ron White from Philadelphia, whose name I handed you at our last meeting last week.

Thanks.

P.S. Jim expecting another list from Roni Ginnott & will pass it on asap.

Re: Jazz Label Executives

Dear Bobbie:

As you requested, please find enclosed a list of senior jazz executives at the most important jazz labels. If your invitation list is limited, you should probably focus on those executives next to whose names I have placed an asterisk.

Kindest regards.

Cordially,

Capricia, Kim, et al - I think the Whites would be a great addition to either the Havel Dinner or the Jazz Millennium. Every. of hope we can include them.

Ronald A. White, Esq. and his wife, Dr. Aruby White are both graduates of Wesleyan University. Dr. White is a practicing psychiatrist. Mr. White owns Philadelphia's largest, by far, African-American law firm and, for the past few years, has been, by far, individually and through his political action committees the most generous African-American political donor in Pennsylvania. Primarily through Mayor Rendell, he has sent tens of thousands of dollars to both the Clinton/Gore campaigns and the DNC. Mr. White also has been a prolific and regular contributor to numerous African-American and Hispanic community groups and activities. Mr. White's private ambition is to help create a national "Jazz Hall of Fame" in Philadelphia. Presently he owns the city's largest jazz restaurant, Zanzibar Blue. Throughout Mr. White's law offices hang paintings depicting performing jazz artists. When on hold, callers to his office enjoy listening to what else, jazz music.

The White's address is
