Mr. Bert DiClemente
State Director
Office of Senator Joseph R. Biden
Federal Office Building
Wilmington, DE 19801

Dear Bert:

As I mentioned in a recent conversation with you, I would be so pleased if it were possible for Senator Biden to request a brief letter from the President and First Lady to my daughter and her husband on their wedding day, September 27, 1997. Our daughter, Joan Beestman, and her fiancé, Paul Geller, are great admirers of President Clinton and Hillary Rodham Clinton and would be thrilled to be surprised with a letter from the Clintons.

A little background:

Bride and Groom: Joan Beestman and Paul Geller

Wedding Date: P6/(b)(6)

Wedding Location: Sewall-Belmont House on Capitol Hill, a National Historic Site which is a museum honoring the heroines of the women's suffrage movement.

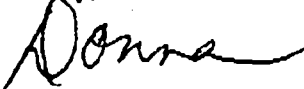

Proposal: P6/(b)(6)

Other: The rehearsal dinner will be at a restaurant in Union Station and the wedding reception will be at the Phoenix Park Hotel, a few blocks from the Capitol.

The bride attended the President's alma mater—she is a 1994 graduate of Georgetown University Law Center and currently is a staff attorney for the Washington, DC Court of Appeals. The groom works for The Washington Post.

If such a letter is possible, I would like to present it to them at the wedding reception rather than have it mailed to them. Many thanks for anything you can do.

Sincerely,

Donna M. Beestman

RE: Letter for Justice Ruth I. Abrams
SENDER: Susan Medalie -- 1 pages, including cover sheet

Dear Bobbie;

Thank you so much for your help. My sister Ruth graduated from Radcliffe in 1953 and was in the third class of women graduating from Harvard Law School in 1956. My father was the first graduate of Harvard Law School to have a son and daughter graduate from the law school.

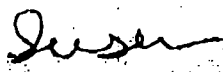

Ruth was appointed to the Superior Court by Governor Frank Sargent in 1972. She then was appointed by Governor Michael Dukakis to be a Justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court in 1977. She served as the first and only woman Justice on the Court until last year when Margaret Marshall was appointed to the Court.

On March 18th, Ruth will be the recipient of the Emma Schofield Award at a dinner in Boston, Mass. Emma Schofield was the first woman judge in Massachusetts. This award is being given by the Cambridge, Malden, and Somerville Bar Associations. Justice Sandra Day O'Connor will be delivering the keynote address at the dinner. The dinner has had an enormous response with over 600 leaders of the bar planning to attend.

I am requesting a letter from the first woman lawyer to be First Lady to the first woman Justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court at a dinner at which the first woman Justice of the United States Supreme Court will be the keynote speaker.

Thank you very much for your consideration and help. If the letter could be sent to the above address, I will see that it is delivered personally.

Sincerely,

Susan D. Medalie

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to have this opportunity to send greetings to each of you attending the 1998 Keshet Rainbow Banquet.

A nation's greatest resource is its people, especially its children. I am grateful for individuals like you who are committed to protecting and promoting the well-being of children with special needs. All members of the community, men and women, husbands and wives, parents and teachers, must work together to ensure that every child is given the opportunity to live up to his or her God-given potential. The services provided by Keshet not only improve the quality of life for children in Illinois, but strengthen the family and community as well. It is my hope that your hard work and dedication will inspire people across our nation to nurture and support our nation's children. I encourage your continued commitment to this important cause.

Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful evening.

Tenth Annual Rainbow Banquet A Decade of Heroes

Mike Cherry

December 4, 1997

P6(b)(6)

Mrs. Hillary Clinton
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500-2000

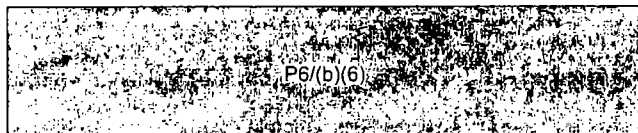

Dear Mrs. Clinton:

On behalf of the Keshet Board of Trustees, I am privileged to extend an invitation to the First Lady of the United States to be our Guest of Honor at the 1998 Keshet Rainbow Banquet. The Banquet to be held on March 15, 1998 at the Chicago Hilton and Towers will be our tenth and will commemorate "A Decade of Heroes", who champion the cause of children.

I had the distinct honor of meeting your husband, the President, last night at Lino's in Chicago. My wife and I were thoroughly impressed by his charm, warmth and intellect. He also signed a note to my 11 year old son Mark, who aspires to be the President one day. The note was great motivation!

I also had the pleasure of being introduced by Mike Cherry to your dear friend Betsy Ebeling. I told her about Keshet and of my hope of having the First Lady be our Guest of Honor for our milestone Tenth Annual Dinner. She thought it was a great idea to ask.

Keshet is an organization that provides educational, social service and camping programs to Jewish children with special needs. Two years ago, at our annual dinner, we honored Eunice Kennedy Shriver. Mrs. Shriver, who had spent the day visiting our organization proudly exclaimed that "Keshet was the national model for special needs integration and inclusion." The organization is very proud of the work it does and has been recognized for many years by the larger Jewish community which has shown us tremendous support and commitment.

I am enclosing a copy of the 1997 Keshet Dinner Tribute Journal which will give you a comprehensive overview of Keshet and its programs as well as a better understanding of the importance of this dinner. As you can see from our Journal, the Keshet Rainbow Banquet is one of the highlights of the community's charitable galas. Last year it was attended by over 1,800 prominent guests and raised 1.2 million dollars.

Previous Guests of Honor have included Governors, television personalities, philanthropists, and financiers. We feel strongly that it would be a fitting commencement to our ten years of service to have the most prestigious Guest of Honor in this upcoming year. We can think of no one better suited than the First Lady, Mrs. Clinton, your reputation for championing children's causes is legendary and by being the Guest of Honor at Keshet Dinner, you would continue your legacy of care and concern for those children in need.

I thank you for your consideration and am prepared to come to Washington if necessary to answer any questions or concerns.

On behalf of the children of Keshet, we look forward to welcoming you as a part of the Keshet Rainbow, a Rainbow of Hope for Special Kids.

Respectfully,

Robert Hartman
Chairman, Board of Trustees

December 4, 1997

Ms. Betsy Ebeling

P6(b)(6)

Dear Betsy:

A truly remarkable twenty-four hours . . . I had the high honor and privilege of meeting the President of the United States as well as being introduced to the charming, grade school classmate of the First Lady!

I very much appreciate your help in attempting to have the First Lady be our Guest of Honor at Keshet's Tenth Annual Rainbow Banquet "A Decade of Heroes" to be held March 15, 1998 at the Chicago Hilton and Towers.

I'm enclosing, for your review, a copy of our 1997 Dinner Tribute Journal which will give you a comprehensive overview of Keshet and its programs as well as a better understanding of the importance of this dinner. I am also enclosing a copy of the formal request that I sent, both to the First Lady and to Ms. Patti Solis Doyle.

On behalf of the special needs children of Keshet, I thank you again for your help and look forward to meeting and greeting the First Lady at our upcoming dinner.

Respectfully,

Robert Hartman

[005d]

Dear Mr. Annenberg:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the White House Historical Association, warmest wishes for a happy 90th birthday.

We are delighted that Cynthia Polsky, Steven Ames, Stephen Simon, John Friede, and Donald Kahn have chosen to establish "The Hon. Walter H. Annenberg White House Publication Fund" in honor of your birthday. The Association gratefully accepts this most generous P6/(b)(6) gift from your family. The new Fund will significantly enhance our mission to increase the knowledge and appreciation of the history of our Nation's House.

We are pleased to inform you that, with the concurrence of your family, the Fund will first be used toward the publication of a major new book on the White House decorative arts collection. This book will be unveiled in time for the bicentennial celebration in the year 2000, marking the 200th anniversary of the first occupancy of the White House when President and Mrs. John Adams became residents there in November 1800.

This Fund will continue for years to come as a tribute to the contributions you have made to our nation. We are proud to play a part in carrying out your commitment to education and excellence.

With all best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

J. Carter Brown

Director Emeritus, National Gallery of Art

February 13, 1998

Dear Mr. Henrich:

Cynthia Polaky and Steven Ames have suggested that the next step in preparing this surprise birthday present for Walter's 90th would be a draft letter of proposal that we could run by appropriate people at the White House. Once sure that the terms were acceptable, we could begin to trigger the preparation of a letter of thanks from the president in time for the festivities, which I understand are March 13.

Cynthia said that she suggested the gift, P6(b)(6) would be a permanent rotating publications fund bearing the title "The Honorable Walter H. Annenberg White House Publications Fund." 2006

Its initial use would be to make possible the publication of a book on the decorative arts at the White House. Revenues from that book could then come back into the fund, and in the future it should be able to support a variety of publications projects, including CD-ROMs and electronic publishing.

It would be contemplated that the gifts also could be used to make these publications available to embassies, schools and colleges.

Each publication so supported would bear an appropriate credit to the fund. In the case of a book, it would be hoped normally to appear on the title page, and on an equivalently prominent place in other forms of publication.

You may think of other points needing to be made. I don't know whether a countersigned copy is the appropriate route, but Cynthia was hoping we could get this moving even while she is in Asia.

For your own information, I attach a copy of the outline of the decorative arts book that I sent to her.

She is hopeful that the president might write a letter of thanks to be read at the birthday. Therefore if we can get this in the works soon, we can start those wheels turning.

Dear Bobbie,

I want to thank you for your suggestions concerning the sculpture exhibition the Department of Veterans Affairs will host in July. We have invited Vice-President and Mrs. Gore and hope that they will be able to help us honor the 50th anniversary of our Blind Rehabilitation Centers. You were wonderful to work with me and to give me such great advice on possible donors. I have just been authorized to begin raising funds and will keep you posted on my success!

Again, thanks so much for all of your help and encouragement!

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Clinton:

For the last three years our community, through a major initiative called Project Parent, has been increasing awareness of parenting issues, both at home and in the work place. This year we are hosting a Work/Life Conference on family-friendly workplace policies in Lexington, Kentucky on Tuesday, May 12, 1998. Knowing your strong leadership in this area and your role in the White House Conference on Child Care, we would like to invite you to be our keynote speaker.

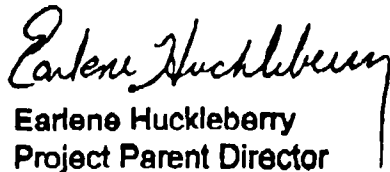

Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government's Project Parent has been diligently working to enlist community-wide support to address the needs of parents and advocating for quality child care. Another primary goal has been for parents, in particular single parents who have moved from welfare to work, to access parenting skills workshops and information on affordable health care. We have had great success in this community effort with the guiding force of Mayor Pam Miller, a working mother, who has had a proactive vision of how to promote effective parenting skills throughout Central Kentucky workplaces.

A unique aspect of this conference will be the presentation of results from a year long survey research project of central Kentucky businesses, conducted by the University of Kentucky and Project Parent. The survey measured the implementation of family-friendly workplace policies, such as child care centers, flextime and telecommuting, and how their employees perceive and use these employee assistance benefits.

Our efforts to improve the lives of women and children in this community and our ongoing commitment to expanding the involvement of business and organizations, such as our local hospitals and health care organizations, will be reflected in the presentations at the conference in May. Thus far, our conference planning committee has involved the Commonwealth of Kentucky's Cabinet for Families and Children, under the leadership of our Governor Paul Patton, the National League and Kentucky League of Cities; the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government's Project Parent; Kentucky Utilities; The United Way, The Lexington Herald-Leader, and the University of Kentucky.

We hope that you will consider speaking at our conference. It would be a great honor for our city. We look forward to hearing from your office.

Sincerely,

Earlene Huckleberry

Dear Mrs. Clinton,

On behalf of the President's Interagency Council on Women, I respectfully invite you to serve as the Honorary Chair of the Second International Conference on Women in Agriculture. Your participation in this conference would mean a great deal to the millions of women living in agricultural communities around the world.

The conference is being sponsored by the Council and will be held in Washington, D.C. June 28- July 2, 1998. Even though rural women make up one quarter of the Earth's population, they are often overlooked. Through this conference we hope to raise awareness of the important role that these women play in producing food that helps to feed the world. An equally important objective of the conference is to provide a setting for women from agricultural communities to share successes, exchange dialog, and to create beneficial networks.

I am proud to share your commitment to these women and to giving them a voice. We hope your schedule will allow you to lead the conference.

Sincerely,

Re: Request for Letter in Support of ARC Project

Dear Ms. Meyer:

Although we are disappointed that the First Lady's schedule will not permit her to attend our January 29 event in person, a letter from Mrs. Clinton, expressing her support for the children's rights project that we intend to launch at our dinner event, would be greatly appreciated because it would provide a tremendous boost to our efforts to recruit volunteer attorneys to participate in the program. My intention would be to read such a letter to the audience at the January 29 event in connection with "rolling out" the new project.

By the way, in the weeks which have passed since we sent our letter of invitation to the First Lady, we have developed a new name for the project. In the future, we will refer to the project as the "Attorneys Representing Children Project" -- or the "ARC Project" for short. A draft of the logo that we are working on for the project is enclosed.

With respect to the "specifics" of the ARC Project, an overview of the project components is enclosed for your review. Please note that these are the "initial" components of what we hope will be a long-term project aimed at addressing the legal needs of at-risk children in Orange County. The program will remain fluid enough to address additional needs of children as they become known in the future. The bottom line of the ARC Project is that, for the first time ever, the OCBA and the Public Law Center ("PLC") will commit time and resources to a special project dealing exclusively with the unmet legal needs of indigent or disabled children.

We would be most grateful if the First Lady could underscore in her letter (1) her special interest in addressing the needs of at-risk children and (2) the unique opportunity which the ARC Project offers attorneys in Orange County to meet the legal needs of:

(a) abused, abandoned, or neglected children whose relatives need free legal assistance to adopt these children or to establish a legal guardianship to take them into their homes, rather than leaving them in shelters or foster homes;

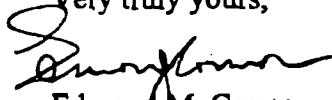

(b) disabled children who are entitled to special education benefits;

(c) children whose SSI benefits have been recently terminated in the wake of the Welfare Reform Act and who are entitled to seek reconsideration of such termination; and

(d) children who are still entitled to adequate medical assistance even though their parents are dropped from the welfare rolls as the Welfare Reform Act is implemented, but who may become innocent victims of the system if their rights to such medical care are not properly safeguarded.

As we stated in our earlier letter to the First Lady, we hope that the ARC Project can serve as a model for similar children-oriented programs to be undertaken by other local bar associations in California and throughout the country. A "good word" from the First Lady lauding the objectives of the project and urging OCBA members to sign up as volunteers to participate in this pro bono program would help us greatly. If you need any more information regarding the ARC Project, or if I can be of any further assistance in helping your office prepare the requested letter, please do not hesitate to call me at my office (714-622-2600). Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Edmond M. Connor

Attorneys Representing Children ("ARC")
A Project of the Orange County Bar Association

Brief Project Overview

Recognizing the important role volunteer attorneys can play in the lives of at-risk children, the Orange County Bar Association will introduce its ARC Project on January 29, 1998. In conjunction with the Public Law Center, a local volunteer attorney program sponsored by the OCBA, Association members will be encouraged to provide volunteer time and resources to aid local children in need. Listed below are some of the activities planned to date:

- Expanded Assistance in Guardianship and Adoption of Minor Children
The OCBA will offer substantive training to attorneys in order to provide an increased pool of practitioners available to assist grandparents and other relatives to assume the care of minor children. The training will be provided free of cost and clients will come from a variety of sources including the Orangewood Children's Home. The goal of this training is to allow children to stay with loving relatives and avoid the foster care system.
- Educational Programming to Assist Children in Maintaining Health Care Coverage
During the summer of 1998, the OCBA will sponsor clinics throughout Orange County designed to educate indigent parents on changes in health care programs and how to maintain health coverage for their children. Law student clerks from local law firms will staff these clinics under the supervision of volunteer attorneys.
- New Assistance to Special Needs and Disabled Children Seeking Federally Mandated Special Education Services
The OCBA will offer substantive training to instruct volunteer attorneys how to assist disabled children to obtain educational services required by federal law. The goal of this training is to keep special needs children in school and provide them with the tools to become productive members of the community.
- Expanded Family Law Assistance Designed to Help Single Parents Obtain Medical Coverage and Child Support from Non-Custodial Parents
The OCBA will revamp its family law training materials to prepare volunteer attorneys to aggressively seek child support and health insurance coverage orders from non-custodial parents. The goal of this training is to keep as many children as possible on private health insurance.
- New Assistance For Children Facing the Loss of Supplemental Security Income Benefits
The OCBA will offer substantive training to instruct volunteer attorneys on advising parents of disabled children on maintenance of health care benefits should existing SSI benefits be terminated.
- Services Available in English, Spanish, Vietnamese, and American Sign Language
As the population of Orange County is diverse, the above-referenced activities will provide assistance in a variety of languages spoken in Orange County.

Ms. Melanne Verveer
Chief of Staff to the First Lady
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Verveer:

On behalf of The Board of Trustees of The Mosaic Foundation, I want to thank the First Lady for agreeing to be Honorary Chair of our Inaugural Benefit Gala on May 19, 1998 at the Kennedy Center, to benefit St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. (Already $450,000 has been raised from Corporate Benefactors.)

It is very generous of Mrs. Clinton, and we would very much appreciate an opportunity to send a small delegation to thank her personally. Depending on Mrs. Clinton's schedule, our group would include Mariam Al-Mahmood of Bahrain who is President of our Board, Hoda Maher of Egypt and Sawsan Al-Moualem of Syria, the three Co-Chairs of the Gala, Shaikha Feryal Al-Sabah of Kuwait and myself. (If she would prefer, the entire Board of Trustees of Mosaic could be present.) All are spouses of Arab Ambassadors to the United States.

We would not want to take more than a few minutes of her time to thank her and explain how The Mosaic Foundation came into being this year. The foundation is dedicated to raising money for women and children through established American organizations.

Again, please convey our sincere gratitude to Mrs. Clinton and our hope to thank her personally.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Clinton:

We are writing to ask if you would agree to be the Honorary Chairman of the Inaugural Benefit Gala of The Mosaic Foundation, which will benefit St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Mosaic, for short, is an American charitable foundation formed in 1998. The spouses of Arab Ambassadors to the United States are the founders and Member of the Board of Trustees of Mosaic. A complete list of the Board is enclosed. While Mosaic is organized to support general charitable activities, the focus of Mosaic and our fund raising activities is children and women. St. Jude Children's Research Hospital has been selected to be the recipient of the proceeds of our first benefit because of its unparalleled work in childhood catastrophic illnesses - both in the United States and through its global outreach programs.

The inaugural gala dinner will be held at The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts on Tuesday, May 19, 1998. The evening will begin with a performance in the Eisenhower Theater by the Caracalla Dance Theater of Lebanon with the American premiere of its newest ballet: "Elissa: Queen of Carthage." Additional information about the Caracalla Dance Theater is also enclosed.

You might be interested in knowing that the following have agreed to be generous corporate benefactors for the evening: Boeing, Mobil, General Dynamics, Lockheed Martin, Colsa, Raytheon, Texaco and Riggs Bank. While one can never be certain with an inaugural event, we expect to raise at least $300,000 for St. Jude Hospital.

Your work on behalf of children is highly respected by each Trustee of Mosaic. In addition, your long time support of St. Jude Hospital is equally well known. Your participation in the 1994 opening ceremonies of St. Jude Hospital's Patient Care Facility demonstrated your interest in the lifesaving research and treatment of childhood catastrophic illnesses. Your generous contribution through the proceeds of your inspiring book, It Takes a Village, shows your continued personal commitment to helping the young patients at St. Jude Hospital. By joining us as Honorary Chairman at our Inaugural Benefit Gala, you will be able to continue your support of St. Jude Hospital and its International Outreach Program.

We would be honored to have you as our Honorary Chairman. We would be doubly honored if you could attend part or all of the evening as our special guest. Your support would undoubtedly guarantee the success of this event. On behalf of the entire Board of Trustees and our General Committee, we are

CARACALLA DANCE THEATER

...a magical journey blending the beauty of cultural heritage with the disciplines of modern dance theater

The Washington Post's dance critic, Alan Kreigsman, has commented that "Caracalla has a fine historic sense. The ...dancers are beautifully trained. The women's movements as volatile as flame and their arms and hands swirl with the delicacy of tropical fish." The New York Times' Jennifer Dunning has written that "Caracalla wove exciting line dances...Costumes were colorful and the dancers lively, good-looking and most engaging."

In 1970, Abdel-Halim Caracalla founded what would evolve into the first and most prominent theater in the Middle East, the Caracalla Dance Theater. Aiming towards a new language in dance with a style which fuses modern Western dance idioms with Eastern traditions. Having combined yesterday's heritage with today's technique, the company's continued success makes it a permanent visitor on the stages on every continent. The Company, which includes 30 dancers, is noted for many full length productions: Mystery of The Bizarre (1974), The Black Tents (1978), Shot Of Glory (1980), Taming of the Shrew (1982), Echoes (1985), Oriental Midsummer's Night Dream (1990). Authentically researched productions, full of inspired choreograph, original costumes, combine in Caracalla's uniquely energetic ballet style.

The newest production, Elissa, Queen of Carthage premiered in London in 1996 at the Sadler Wells Theater. The unique historical ballet reawakening ancient myths from the golden age of Phoenician civilization to the Roman epic "The Aeneid" by Virgil, portrays the legend of Elissa ("Dido"), 9th century BC Phoenician princess of Tyre. After her brother Pygmalion killed her husband, she fled across the Mediterranean to build a legend and a new city, Carthage on the North African coast. There Elissa faced an even more tragic choice when the Berber King demands her as a bride. The ballet will sweep you away with magic carpets and Genies, jealousy and joy, sacrifice and tragedy. Elissa is choreographed and directed by Abdel-Halim Caracalla.

Bobbie - Here's a draft letter

DRAFT LETTER to the participants of the GSA Child Care Conference

Dear Friends:

Welcome to the wonderful city of New Orleans and to the annual General Services Administration's 9th Annual Child Care Conference.

This conference focuses on the most important citizens in our country, the children, and how we support Federal workers so that they can do a better job at work and at home. The care you provide at child development centers goes a long way in helping our workforce balance the demands of the job and the responsibilities and privileges of family.

Certainly the primary responsibility and by far the greatest influence on any child is that child's family. Any parent who doesn't recognize that and do all that he or she can do to fulfill those obligations is letting that child down and turning his or her back on the most sacred responsibility any of us has.

But at the same time parents have never done it alone. Schools have a responsibility to ensure a good education. Health and safety officials have a responsibility to ensure a safe and clean environment. Businesses have a responsibility to create jobs and provide economic responsibility. In short, it takes a village. And you are just as important in that village, for it is in your hands that our workers trust their children five days a week, 10 hours a day.

So what you are doing here is extremely important. By making these connections, you are reinforcing your roles as responsible members of the village. Early care and education is crucial, particularly for brain development and emotional intelligence gained in the first three years of life. The children deserve nothing short of the best, and I thank you and encourage you to keep on providing the very best child development centers in the nation. We count on you.

Sincerely,

Hillary Rodham Clinton

General Information

Conference Registration

Two discounted registration fees and two regular registration fees have been established for this conference; all four entitle the individual to all conference meetings and materials, the evening reception, two breakfasts and three luncheons on the Conference Schedule.

The two discounted conference registration fees are as follows: (1) Special Registration Fee - $90.00. This fee has been established for caregiving personnel and family day care providers. Caregiving personnel are defined here as teachers, teachers aides, teachers assistants, family day care providers including providers and assistants. This category of attendees does not include center directors, assistant directors, and center operators. (2) Regular Conference Registration Fee - $155.00. This fee applies to all attendees except those who are eligible for the special conference registration fee as cited in (1). These discounted conference registration fees are due by June 8, 1998 (i.e., postmarked no later than June 8, 1998 if mailed).

The two regular conference registration fees are required if registration materials are mailed, faxed, or hand-carried to the logistics contractor after June 8, 1998. (1) Special Conference Registration Fee - $105.00 for caregiving personnel and family day care providers as defined in (1) of the preceding paragraph. (2) Regular Conference Registration Fee - $170.00 for all those who are not caregiving personnel or family day care providers as defined in (1) in the preceding paragraph.

Approved purchase orders/training authorizations with Registration Cards or Registration Cards with credit card numbers and signatures may be faxed to our logistics contractor. (IF YOU ARE FAXING, DO NOT MAIL ORIGINAL REGISTRATION FORM). Faxed registration forms without credit card information WILL NOT be processed.

Upon the logistics contractor's receipt of your original registration paperwork, you will be sent a confirmation card. Bring this card to the conference registration desk to receive your packet of conference materials, which includes the identification badge that will permit your entry into all conference meetings and events.

Cancellation Policy

Prior to the conference, a registration fee refund is possible only if written cancellations are received by the logistics contractor before June 30, 1998. Substitution of another individual is possible, under certain circumstances, but the registered individual must discuss procedures directly with the logistics contractor.

Hotel Reservations

Please reserve your own sleeping room accommodations. A block of rooms has been reserved at the New Orleans Marriott, 555 Canal Street, New Orleans, LA 70140. The conference hotel rate (inclusive of state and local taxes) is $88.00 for single and double occupancy. The special rates begin three days before and end three days after the official conference dates. (The "before" and "after" is on a space available basis not part of the rooms blocked for GSA.) To ensure the rates, you must make your reservation before midnight on June 8, 1998, indicating that you are coming to the GSA Child Care Conference. Reservations received after June 8, 1998, will be accepted, based on availability of rooms, at the conference rate. Reservation can be made directly with the hotel (504/581-1000) or through the Marriott's Central Reservations Office in the Continental U.S.A at 800/831-4004.
