Ms. Bobbie Green
Office of the First Lady

Washington, D.C.

Dear Ms. Green:

Just a note to thank you for referring my December request on behalf of the Levine School of Music to the First Lady last month. Her gracious letter in response was read to a gathering of over 300 people to open the holiday concert for our Kensington, Maryland Branch. It was read by an eight year old student from our Southeast Branch outreach program, and was the highlight of the whole day as far as he was concerned! (I wish you could have heard him ring out the name "Hillary Rodham Clinton" at the end of the letter -- he was really bursting with pride.) For everyone there, it added a touch of class, inspiration and personal warmth to our program.

Please convey to the First Lady my personal appreciation for her interest, and my hope that she can join us at another of our school events this year to hear some of our wonder young students make music. She has been a good friend to my parents, Gene and Terry Lang, and I'm pleased to have my own connection with her as well.

And to you, of course, my sincere thanks. Your very prompt follow-up on my request, and the genuineness of the letter, re-enforced my conviction that we have people who care in the White House. Best wishes for a happy new year.

Sincerely,

Jane Lang

Dear Ms. Greene:

I am writing at the suggestion of Sara Kovner to request your assistance in our work with women, men and children affected by breast or ovarian cancer. Sara is very familiar with SHARE... she and I have enjoyed a long, productive working relationship both locally as well as nationally through our Board membership in the National Breast Cancer Coalition.

At the present time we are preparing our 1997 Annual Report, a critical record of our efforts to promote early detection and provide support and information to women like myself who have already been diagnosed. We ask for your assistance in obtaining a letter of support from Mrs. Clinton for inclusion in this annual report.

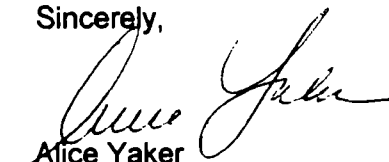

As you will see from the attached materials, SHARE is a 22 year old self-help organization for women, men and children affected by breast or ovarian cancer. Our model of survivorship provides opportunities for those who've been diagnosed to be more in control of their lives during and after a diagnosis, and promotes public awareness and early detection of these diseases.

Among the materials I have enclosed are copies of our two most recent annual reports. As you will see, we use these to provide information and enhance our outreach efforts, not as a vehicle for directly soliciting funds.

We do hope you will be able to help us in this matter. It would be a great honor for SHARE and for the women, men and children we serve to have the recognition of Mrs. Clinton.

I will call your office in the next several days to follow up on this letter.

Sincerely,

Alice Yaker
Executive Director

Dear Ms. Greene:

I want to thank you for your assistance in arranging the First Lady's meeting with students from Representative Lampson's District on March 16, 1998. The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children's "Know the Rules" and "Safe Place" event was a success.

The First Lady's meeting with the Student Safety Ambassadors made a significant impression on the teenagers. The students will now return to their high schools and share this message with their classmates.

We welcome any interest the First Lady may have in working with the Congressional Missing and Exploited Children's caucus in the future. Thanks again for all of your hard work.

Sincerely,

Tom Combs
Chief of Staff
