Event: PLACEMENT OF A PLAQUE, WREATH LAYING, AND GREETING
EMERGENCY WORKERS AND THE PEOPLE OF OMAGH

Date: Thursday, September 3, 1998

Time: 5:15 PM - 6:30 PM

Location: Market Street, Omagh

Participants: THE PRESIDENT and the First Lady
Prime Minister Tony Blair
Mrs. Cherie Blair
John McKinney, Omagh Town Clerk and Chief Executive
Omagh Town Council
Omagh Emergency workers
Townspeople of Omagh

Press: POOL PRESS

Translation: NONE

Scenario:

THE PRESIDENT and the First Lady arrive via motorcade at the bottom of Market Street, Omagh and hold in the limo until the press pool is in position. THE PRESIDENT and the First Lady exit the limo and greet Prime Minister and Mrs. Blair. Prime Minister Blair will escort THE PRESIDENT and the First Lady to the site of the car-bombing. THE PRESIDENT removes a cloth from a pre-positioned plaque and the First Lady places flowers next to it. Upon conclusion of the unveiling, THE PRESIDENT and the First Lady, accompanied by the Blairs, re-board the motorcade for the short drive up the street.

THE PRESIDENT and the First Lady exit the limo and work a ropeline of emergency workers, hospital employees, construction workers, clergy, and town officials.

At the end of the ropeline, THE PRESIDENT is handed a bouquet of flowers to place in front of Watterson's Clothing and Drapery Shop where 3 long-time employees were killed. After placing the flower, THE PRESIDENT and the First Lady work a ropeline of Omagh townspeople and depart via motorcade en route Omagh Athletic Field Landing Zone.
