Subject: holiday lists

I don't know who is handling your lists for the Social Office for holiday party invites, but I've received some suggestions from Chris Jennings regarding Hill staffers that he thinks should be included on a list somewhere. If you are not going to include them in your list, please let me know, and I'll include them on ours. Thanks for your help!

Thank you!

You should let Chris know that I will send the agency people to Cabinet Affairs, and the Hill people to Leg. Affairs. I will talk to them about who they will be able to invite, and put those they are not inviting on our list. However, the Social Office would likely defer to those offices for a final word. I'll also ask OPL if they're taking care of the groups he listed. If not, I'll submit them.

Subject: Holiday Guest Lists

The Social Office has requested that we submit lists of anyone we would like to recommend for an invitation to a White House Holiday reception. Please send me your recommendations for anyone outside of the building that you would like to recommend (ie, someone from a group that has been particularly helpful or you think would be appropriate to recommend). Please note that current and former staff will be submitted on a separate list. Also, space is limited so please prioritize who you recommend, and indicate if you think they are a "must do" or a "would be nice" suggestion.

I apologize for the late notice, but I need your suggestions by COB TODAY. Thank you for your assistance.
